Eutsler, 2025-04-24 For years the best sages have warned Those who fail to plan plan to fail Experience has proven this advice to be true in the spiritual realm as well as in the secular Without careful planning even Pentecostal ministers of the gospel often repeat certain texts or topics while they neglect other critical truths This frequent phenomenon inspired the integrated approach in this project Dr Eutsler has written a book on preaching that Pentecostal Charismatic pastors and ministers have needed for a long time Based on years of practical experience and sound scholarship it combines an emphasis on the guidance of the Holy Spirit along with long range planning After exploring the unique dynamics of Pentecostal preaching he discusses step by step how to increase their implementation on a more consistent basis This volume will benefit both beginning and veteran students of preaching It could easily be used personally or in a classroom setting Those preachers who read and implement its wise counsel will improve the quality creativity and variety of their preaching George O Wood General Superintendent of the Assemblies of God Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry Program Planning Guide for Agriscience and Technology Education Jasper S. encompassing study of preaching in the Reformations and early modern period in Europe. They do, however, provide new insights on Catholic, Lutheran, and Reformed preaching in Western and Central Europe. Part One examines changes in sermon structure, style, and content in Christian sermons from the thematic sermon typical of the Middle Ages to the wide variety of later preaching styles. Catholic preaching after Trent proves not to be monolithic and intolerant but a hybrid of forms past and present applied as needed to particular situations. Lutheran homiletic theory is traced from Luther and through Melancthon, the intention of the sermon being to transform the worship service based on exegesis of Scripture. In Reformed worship, the expository sermon, often given on a daily basis with a continuing exegesis, was designed to communicate the tenets of the faith in terms that the laity could understand in plain style. Part Two deals with the social history of preaching in France, where preachers often incited their hearers to attack human beings or holy objects or were themselves attacked; in Italy, where preaching became a collective and home-grown product; in early modern Germany, where the authorities strove for uniformity of preaching practice and the preacher was seen as a moral guardian; in Switzerland, where leaders from Zwingli on sought to bring religious practice, conduct, and government in line with biblical teaching and propagated a pastoral vision of preaching; in England, where after the Reformation preachers became the indispensable agents of salvation but clergy and congregations were often ill-prepared for the task; in Scandinavia, where post-Reformation sermons have a clear didactic aim, teaching obedience to the authorities; and in the Low Countries, characterized by its numerous denominations, all with their own churches and particular practices in terms of preaching. The volume ends with a consideration of the influence of late medieval preaching on the Reformation, concluding that the diversity of emphasis on how the practice of penance was preached and received very likely affected the appeal or not of the Lutheran Reformed message in a given country.

A Legacy of Preaching, Volume One---Apostles to the Revivalists Zondervan, 2018-11-13

A Legacy of Preaching Volume One: Apostles to the Revivalists explores the history and development of preaching through a biographical and theological examination of its most important preachers. Instead of teaching the history of preaching from the perspective of movements and eras, each contributor tells the story of a particular preacher in history, allowing the preachers from the past to come alive and instruct us through their lives, theologies, and methods of preaching. Each chapter introduces readers to a key figure in the history of preaching, followed by an analysis of the theological views that shaped their preaching, their methodology of sermon preparation and delivery, and an appraisal of the significant contributions they have made to the history of preaching. This diverse collection of familiar and lesser-known individuals provides a detailed and fascinating look at what it has meant to communicate the gospel over the past two thousand years. By looking at how the gospel has been communicated over time and across different cultures, pastors, scholars, and homiletics students can enrich their own understanding and practice of preaching for application today. Volume One covers the period from the apostles to the revivalists and profiles thirty preachers, including Paul by Eric Rowe, Peter by David R. Beck, Melito of Sardis by Paul A.
