2009 Hkcee Past Paper:

Researching Chinese Language Education Mark Shiu-kee Shum, Peter Mican, 2018-09-13 The culmination of more than a decade of research this compelling volume offers a fresh approach for applying functional linguistics to assess student performance to inform the teaching and learning of Chinese and to design curriculum and teaching materials Documenting authentic systemic functional linguistics SFL studies in researching and teaching Chinese as a first or second language this research is set in the multilingual settings of Hong Kong and Australia The experiences of SFL and genre teaching in English have been well demonstrated as valid viable and practical in different contexts however this volume covers the relatively new domain of research into the applications of SFL to the teaching of Chinese Using SFL as the research framework the authors cover three major areas in Chinese language education effective pedagogies curriculum and material design and text analysis Covering major local curriculum reforms and the rapid growth of International Baccalaureate programmes worldwide this book will be of interest to linguists language teachers and teacher educators and those involved in the teaching and learning of Chinese around the world English Language Assessment and the Chinese Learner Liying Cheng, Andy

Curtis, 2010-03-17 This volume addresses a very timely and important topic and provides both broad and in depth coverage of a number of large scale English tests in China including Hong Kong and Taiwan and about the Chinese learner Lyle F Bachman From the Foreword Building on current theoretical and practical frameworks for English language assessment and testing this book presents a comprehensive up to date relevant picture of English language assessment for students in China Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan and for Chinese learners of English around the world Written by well recognized international scholars in language testing it covers the history of tests and testing systems issues and challenges and current research in China both test designers and test users points of view on test development and test validation within a range of political economical social and financial contexts in China theoretical conceptual perspectives on the use of the English language assessment at different levels including societal university and schools empirical research related specifically to test development curricular innovation and test validation Given the long history of objective testing and its extensive use in Chinese society and considering the sheer number of students taking various tests in English in China and elsewhere an understanding of the impact of English language testing is essential for anyone involved in testing and assessment issues in China and elsewhere in the world This is a must read volume for testing and assessment policy makers curriculum designers researchers ESL EFL materials writers graduate students and English language teachers researchers at all levels

Language Planning in the Asia Pacific Robert Kaplan, Richard Baldauf, 2013-12-16 This volume covers the language situation in Hong Kong Timor Leste and Sri Lanka explaining the linguistic diversity the historical and political contexts and the current language situation including language in education planning the role of the media the role of religion and the roles of non indigenous languages Two of the authors are indigenous to the situations described while the other has undertaken extensive field work and consulting there The three monographs contained in this volume draw together the literature on each of the polities to present an overview of the research available about each of them while providing new research based information The purpose of the volume is to provide an up to date overview of the language situation in each polity based on a series of key questions in the hope that this might facilitate the development of a richer theory to guide language policy and planning in other polities where similar issues may arise This book was published as special issues of Current Issues in Language Planning

Making Sense of Education in Post-Handover Hong Kong Thomas Kwan-Choi Tse, Michael H. Lee, 2016-11-10 Since 1997 when Hong Kong became a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China a string of education reforms have been introduced to improve the quality of education and maintain Hong Kong's economic competitiveness in the age of globalization This book provides a comprehensive and critical analysis of major issues and challenges faced by the education system ranging from pre school to higher education It analyses the prospects for educational development in Hong Kong It further addresses how the Hong Kong government has responded to the perceived challenges of the external environment and internal forces and explains the rationales for the actions taken Not only does it review how the reform initiative challenges have been dealt with it also reviews how effective these initiatives are and its implications on future directions

Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

English Language Education and Assessment David Coniam, 2014-07-06 This volume gathers contributions in the closely linked fields of English language assessment and language education The contributors from China and Hong Kong represent a mixture of established and new scholars Areas covered in the language education section range across major developments in the redefining of Hong Kong's secondary and tertiary curricula as well as the huge field of China's vocational education curriculum Regarding assessment the contributions reflect major changes in the marking of examinations in Hong Kong whereby all examinations from 2012 onwards are marked onscreen to quality control issues in the administration of China's College English Test which is taken by over 10 million candidates every year

Learning and Teaching Chinese as a First Language Sin Manw Sophia Lam, John Chi-Kin Lee, Chung Mou Si, 2024-06-28 In this book the authors embark on a critical investigation of the complex field of Chinese language education with a particular focus on exploring new trends and teaching and learning They delve into the intricacies of language education and its effectiveness in teaching Chinese as a first language The book has three objectives establishing a field of study in Chinese language learning and teaching providing critical discussion and progressive insights on language education and offering relevant pedagogical perspectives of learning and teaching Chinese as L1 and L2 The chapters investigate learning and teaching of Chinese in different aspects including four skills culture literature technology assisted learning and learners identity By focusing on the teaching practices of Chinese at different levels it sheds light on teaching Chinese as a first language Theoretically it broadens the linguistic and geographical reach of previous works on language education that mainly examine English as a lingua franca or children s first language acquisition Drawing upon theories in language learning the book demonstrates the applicability of language theories in the first language and Chinese as a non alphabetic language and examines the impact and effectiveness of some theories in Chinese learning and teaching Academic researchers teacher educators teachers and students interested in Chinese language and education will find this a highly relevant text for its focus on curriculum pedagogy and assessment of teaching Chinese as a first language Daily Giving Service Moira M. W. Chan-Yeung, 2022-11-11 In Daily Giving Service A History of the Diocesan Girls School Hong Kong Moira M W Chan Yeung and her fellow contributors present a comprehensive history of one of Hong Kong s oldest girls schools As an alumna of the school Chan Yeung traces the history of her alma mater from its establishment in 1860 its development over the last 150 years until the recent decade Having experienced stability and turbulences in Hong Kong in the twentieth century the school has become one of the most prominent girl s schools in the city In several chapters written by other alumni various aspects of school life of different eras are reconstructed and remembered The author and other contributors focused on the postwar era in which Hong Kong grew from a small city to a global metropolitan The expansion of the Diocesan Girls School largely followed this trend The history of the school has also long been connected with the socio economic development of Hong Kong society sharing its happiness and sadness This book is likely to become the gold standard against which all future school histories in Hong Kong are judged Comprehensive insightful and full of fascinating anecdote the inspiring story of DGS is told both chronologically in Moira Chan s main text and thematically in the specialist chapters contributed by her co authors This is a school history that tells us much about the larger story of education in Hong Kong while focusing on a single educational institution Peter Cunich Director Centenary History Project The University of Hong Kong The history of DGS reinforces my observation that Hong Kong schools form an unusual system that combines the best of East and West in the philosophy and practice of education The younger schools in Hong Kong that mushroomed later were basically modelled after schools such as DGS That accounts for the excellence envied by many Cheng Kai ming SBS JP Professor Emeritus The University of Hong Kong The history of DGS reveals how the path taken by the school over the years reflects the very qualities that define a person DGS like our home Hong Kong has witnessed in equal measure challenges disasters and triumphs and has dealt with them with equanimity Dignity respect tolerance courage fairness honesty and of course excellence underpinned by pastoral care represent those essential qualities that have had to be called upon As we now know they have become the minimum tools expected of her students to realise fully their true potential in life and

properly contribute to our community This is their story The Honourable Mr Geoffrey Ma Tao li GBM Former Chief Justice of the Court of Final Appeal 2010 2021 Hong Kong Soft Power Frank Vigneron, 2018-03-15 In late 2014 the prodemocracy demonstrations that were called the Umbrella Movement revealed to the world that Hong Kong was not the moneyobsessed society it had often been portrayed as Hong Kong Soft Power is a description of the complex relationship the artists and activists of this city have had with the country it has been part of since 1997 Trying to understand all the varied forms of art practices possible in the Special Administrative Region by locating them within a relational model and situating them within the dynamic and changing art ecosystem that has developed over the last decade Hong Kong Soft Power describes the local art field as a site of struggle where the connections with Chinese Mainland institutions and art practices play a fundamental role This is not to say that this influence has entirely dominated the local art field and this book also emphasizes how the artists of the city have engaged in practices ranging from the most personal to the most sociallyoriented With the analysis of the works of about fifty local art practitioners and a representative range of art institutions Hong Kong Soft Power is the portrait of a culture going through the trials and tribulations of rapid political and economic changes in both its negative and positive effects 香港軟實力 Hong Kong, 2009-05-08 The World of Science Education , 2010-01-01 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel Arab States and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on science education in Asia and the scholarship that most closely supports this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in an Asian rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next Student Perspectives on Assessment Dennis M. McInerney, Gregory Arief D. Liem, Gavin T. L. Brown, 2009-12-01 Assessment for learning is meant to engage motivate and enable students to do better in their learning However how students themselves perceive assessments both high stakes qualifications and low stakes monitoring is not well understood This volume collects research studies from Europe North and South America Asia and New Zealand that have deliberately focused on how students in primary secondary and tertiary education conceive of experience understand and evaluate assessments Assessment for learning has assumed that formative assessments and classroom practices would be an unqualified success in terms of student learning outcomes Making use of a variety of qualitatively interpreted focus groups observations and interviews and factor analytic survey methods the studies collected in this volume raise doubts as to the validity of this formulation We commend this volume to readers hoping to stimulate their own thinking and research in the area of student assessment We believe the chapters will challenge

researchers policy makers teacher educators and instructors as to how assessment for learning can be implemented
