

My Favorite Chinese Festival

5 pages | 1024 words

The Mid-autumn is my favorite Chinese festival. It constantly falls on the 15th day of August, but this year is on 29th September. "This fantastic tale is a depiction of a Chinese family coming together and preparing to celebrate the moon with a nighttime picnic that welcomes their Chinese customizeds with glowing lanterns and includes conventional dishes, such as the moon cakes, pomelos, and tea. "(LIN 94) A couple of days prior to the celebration, everybody in the household will help to make your home tidy and stunning. Lanterns will be hung in front of your house. On the night there will be a big household supper. Individuals who work far from their homes will attempt to come back for the celebration. After supper, individuals will light the lanterns which are usually red and round. Kids will have fun with their own toy lanterns gladly. Then they will sit together to enjoy taking a look at the moon, the moon is typically round and bright at night. People likewise can delight in the moon while consuming moon cakes which are the special food for this celebration. There is the background about moon cakes: The legend of the Han Chinese's uprising against the ruling Mongols at the end to the Yuan dynasty (1280-- 1368 CE), in which the Han Chinese used conventional moon cakes to hide the message that they were to rebel on Wu 2 Mid-Autumn Day. (Yang 270) This Celebration is also a household holiday. The relative are extremely pleased, since people can look back on the past and eagerly anticipate the future together under the beautiful moon. There likewise has many wonderful stories about Mid-autumn celebration's moon, I understand a story is about love, Hou Yi and his wife Chang'e were forced to separate, Hou Yi on the earth and Chang'e on the moon. They just be permitted can satisfy once on the Mid-autumn, so that date is extremely essential and precious to them. This story provides individuals have more expectation, I am a fine example like the story. There is a far away in between me and my sweetheart. We met as soon as every 1 year, and many time of my life is missing her. In every Mid-autumn Day, the missing will become more intense. I constantly felt: No matter East or West, home is best. As the atmosphere of the autumn is becoming more and more evident, the Mid-autumn festival is coming. The weather is turning cool gradually, and there are big differences of the temperatures between day and night. I even have a little sense of sentiment of autumn, homesick became stronger. The moon on the fifteenth of August of the lunar calendar is roundest in the year, and the day is a time of reunion in Chinese people. As to people who are far away from their homes, they undoubtedly miss their relatives and friends much more on the day. Just like me, I felt so lonely at this year's Mid-autumn festival. Because I am in a foreign country, I cannot reunite with my families, lover, only watch the moon alone at here,...
