1mao November 2014:

China's Military Transformation You Ji, 2016-01-25 China's military transformation is one of the major geo strategic developments of the 21st Century Billions of dollars are being spent modernizing The People's Liberation Army PLA as China seeks to upgrade and expand its military capabilities to rival the US In this cutting edge analysis You Ji a leading expert on China's military affairs explores the changes taking place within the PLA today covering its ground aerospace and maritime forces its ability to meet asymmetric threats and the growing role played by the People's Armed Police in quelling dissent in China He shows how these transformations in personnel technology and strategic goals are slowly driving a wedge between China's two most powerful institutions Until recently relations between the CCP and PLA were harmonious but as the PLA becomes increasingly professionalized and autonomous so its unconditional loyalty to the ruling Party may weaken The changing relationship between the CCP and PLA he argues is likely to have profound implications for China's own political development and the balance of power in the Asia Pacific region Comprehensive and incisive this timely book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the nature and consequences of China's military rise Computer Science in Industrial

Zhang, 2017-08-30 This book examines how the Chinese Communist Party CCP has attempted to bolster its nationalist legitimacy through the utilisation of Chinese history The authors identify two different modes of nationalism aggressive and consensual both of which are linked to the historical memory of the late Qing Dynasty and Republican era Aggressive nationalism dwells on China's traumatic century of humiliation and is intended to incite popular resentment towards former imperialist powers particularly Japan and the US whenever they are deemed to still be acting in a provocative manner in their dealings with China The aim is to remind the Chinese people that the CCP liberated China from imperialism after 1949 and has since restored national pride Consensual nationalism is more conciliatory emphasising common historical ties with the Guomindang KMT during the Second Sino Japanese War and the Republican era Here the CCP is trying to promote itself as the party of national harmony and unity with the long term objective being peaceful reunification with Taiwan However the public response in China has not always been supportive of the CCP's claims to be the sole defender of Chinese national interests Some critics have suggested that China would have been better off if the KMT had won the civil war instead of the CCP Others have insisted that the party is hopelessly weak on issues of national importance and that China is no stronger now than it was during the final throes of the much hated Qing Dynasty This book will be of interest to research students and scholars of Chinese politics history and international relations DeVita, Hellman, and Rosenberg's Cancer Vincent T containing articles on Learning Algorithms and Classification Systems Artificial Intelligence and Neural Networks Theory Design and Applications Image and Signal Processing and Intelligent Social Networks The End of the Maoist Era: Chinese Politics During the Twilight of the Cultural Revolution, 1972-1976 Frederick C Teiwes, Warren Sun, 2014-12-18 This book launches an ambitious reexamination of the elite politics behind one of the most remarkable transformations in the late twentieth century As the first part of a new interpretation of the evolution of Chinese politics during the years 1972-82 it provides a detailed study of the end of the Maoist era demonstrating Mao's continuing dominance even as his ability to control events ebbed away The tensions within the gang of four the different treatment of Zhou Enlai and Deng Xiaoping and the largely unexamined role of younger radicals are analyzed to reveal a view of the dynamic of elite politics that is at odds with accepted scholarship The authors draw upon newly available documentary sources and extensive interviews with Chinese participants and historians to develop their challenging interpretation of one of the most poorly understood periods in the history of the People's Republic of China Pattern Recognition and Computer Vision Huimin Ma, Liang Wang, Changshui Zhang, Fei Wu, Tieniu Tan, Yaonan Wang, Jianhuang Lai, Yao Zhao, 2021-10-22 The 4 volume set LNCS 13019 13020 13021 and 13022 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 4th Chinese Conference on Pattern Recognition and Computer Vision PRCV 2021 held in Beijing China in October November 2021 The 201 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 513 submissions The papers have been organized in the following topical sections Object Detection Tracking and Recognition Computer Vision Theories and Applications Multimedia Processing and Analysis Low level Vision and Image Processing Biomedical Image Processing and Analysis Machine Learning Neural Network and Deep Learning and New Advances in Visual Perception and Understanding Broken Altars Thomas Albert Howard, 2025-03-25 A sweeping history of the violence perpetrated by governments committed to extreme forms of secularism in the twentieth century A popular truism derived from the Enlightenment holds that violence is somehow inherent to religion to which political secularism offers a liberating solution But this assumption ignores a glaring modern reality that putatively progressive regimes committed to secularism have possessed just as much and often a vastly greater capacity for violence as those tied to a religious identity In Broken Altars Thomas Albert Howard presents a powerful account of the misery deaths and destruction visited on religious communities by secularist regimes in the twentieth century Presenting three principal forms of modern secularism that have arisen since the Enlightenment passive secularism combative secularism and eliminationist secularism Howard argues that the latter two have been especially violence prone Westerners do not fully grasp this however because they often mistake the first form passive secularism for secularism as a whole But a disconcertingly more complicated picture emerges with the adoption of a broader global vision Admitting different species of secularism greater historical perspective and case studies drawn from the former Soviet Union Turkey Mexico Spain Czechoslovakia Albania Mongolia and China among other countries Howard calls into question the conventional tale of modernity as the pacifying triumph of secularism over a benighted religious past Nutrition and behavior as determinants of host-associated microbiomes Yvonne Vallès, M. Pilar Francino, 2023-05-05 Small Wars, Faraway Places Michael Burleigh, 2014-11-25 A sweeping history of the Cold War's many hot wars born in the last gasps of empire The Cold War reigns in popular imagination as a period of tension between the two post World War II superpowers the United States and the Soviet Union without direct conflict Drawing from new archival research prize winning historian Michael Burleigh gives new meaning to the seminal decades of 1945 to 1965 by examining the many largely forgotten hot wars fought around the world As once great Western colonial empires collapsed counter insurgencies campaigns raged in the Philippines the Congo Iran and other faraway places Dozens of new nations struggled into existence the legacies of which are still felt today Placing these vicious struggles alongside the period defining United States and Soviet standoffs in Korea Vietnam and Cuba Burleigh swerves from Algeria to Kenya to Vietnam and Kashmir interspersing top level diplomatic negotiations with portraits of the charismatic local leaders The result is a dazzling work of history a searing analysis of the legacy of imperialism and a reminder of just how the United States became the world's great enforcer The Sino-Soviet Alliance Austin Jersild, 2014-02-03 In 1950 the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China signed a Treaty of Friendship Alliance and Mutual Assistance to foster cultural and technological cooperation between the Soviet bloc and the PRC While this treaty was intended as a break with the colonial past Austin Jersild argues that the alliance ultimately failed because the enduring problem of Russian imperialism led to Chinese frustration with the Soviets Jersild zeros in on the ground level experiences of the socialist bloc advisers in China who were involved in everything from the development of university curricula the exploration for oil and railway construction to piano lessons Their goal was to reproduce a Chinese administrative elite in their own image that could serve as a valuable ally in the Soviet bloc's struggle against the United States Interestingly the USSR's allies in Central Europe were as frustrated by the great power chauvinism of the Soviet Union as was China By exposing this aspect of the story Jersild shows how the alliance and finally the split had a true international dimension
