Congress. House. Committee on the Library,1937 The National Gallery Maurice Walter Brockwell,1909 A Popular Handbook to the National Gallery ,1909 National Galleries Simon Knell,2016-01-22 Are national galleries different from other kinds of art gallery or museum What value is there for the nation in a collection of international masterpieces How are national galleries involved in the construction national art National Galleries is the first book to undertake a panoramic view of a type of national institution which are sometimes called national museums of fine art that is now found in almost every nation on earth Adopting a richly illustrated globally inclusive comparative view Simon Knell argues that national galleries should not be understood as great galleries but as peculiar sites where art is made to perform in acts of nation building A book that fundamentally rewrites the history of these institutions and encourages the reader to dispense with elitist views of their worth Knell reveals an unseen geography and a rich complexity of performance He considers the ways the national galleries entangle art and nation and the differing trajectories and purposes of international and national art Exploring galleries artists and artworks from around the world National Galleries is an argument about how we think about and study these institutions Privileging the situatedness of each national gallery performance and valuing localism over universalism Knell looks particularly at how national art is constructed and represented He ends with examples that show the mutability of national art and by questioning the necessity of art nationalism The National Gallery National Gallery (Great Britain),1899 Museums in Motion Edward P. Alexander,Mary Alexander,2008 In 1979 Edward P Alexander s Museums in Motion was hailed as a much needed addition to the museum literature In combining the history of museums since the eighteenth century with a detailed examination of the function of museums and museum workers in modern society it served as an essential resource for those seeking to enter to the museum profession and for established professionals looking for an expanded understanding of their own discipline Now Mary Alexander has produced a newly revised edition of the classic text bringing it the twenty first century with coverage of emerging trends resources and challenges New material also includes a discussion of the children s museum as a distinct type of institution and an exploration of the role computers play in both outreach and traditional in person visits Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired 1881/1900-. Congress, 1969 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873      National Gallery of Canada Douglas Ord, 2003-05-26 Ord looks at the gallery's historical and intellectual context from 1910 when Eric Brown became the gallery's founding director through Jean Sutherland Boggs to Shirley Thomson shedding light on its acquisitions government policy towards the arts and the public's deep rooted suspicion of avant garde art In showing how Canadian art came to be housed in a building whose architectural and ideological sources include Gothic cathedrals Islamic mosques Egyptian temples St Peter's Basilica and the squared stone facades of the Holy City of Jerusalem The National Gallery of Canada insightfully explores the relationship of Canada's art and its National Gallery to the project of the Canadian nation state      Museums in Motion Juilee Decker, 2024-08-06 This book explores the histories and functions of museums while also looking at the current standing of museums and their ongoing efforts toward relevance resiliency and future proofing Section I examines the beginnings of museums with chapters dedicated to art and design museums natural history and anthropological museums science museums museums focused history and the past and gardens zoos and children's museums Emphasis is on museums in the United States with some historical framing beyond the U S Section II explores the primary functions of museums including conservation exhibition interpretation engagement and service Section III examines museums from within by exploring critical issues and contemporary movements facing museums and our society transparency and openness labor and equity belonging and coalition building risk taking and risk aversion and sustainability and empathy Advocating for change rather than death to museums Museums in Motion demonstrates the very premise that museums have been in motion all along as they have shifted from their rather simple form of a treasury storehouse and tomb to something much more complex by deeply considering where museums have come from where they are today and where they are going Entirely new to this edition Section III Museum Aspirations features five new chapters each centered around topics rather than a museum type or museum function Each topic is meant to be a micro narrative and springboard for a conversation about museums today and their sustainability in the future The chapters examine museums from the inside museum workers and their voices especially as well as power held by people and institutions and DEIA without using those individual words as chapter headings On their own or in conjunction with the chapters in the previous sections of this book these chapters serve as vignettes that can help readers to understand where how and why we need to apply critical lenses to institutions and articulate how doing so helps us to understand this historical moment and ultimately how we can realize resiliency and sustainability for museums and those who make their existence possible      The Nelson A. Americas Alisa LaGamma, Joanne Pillsbury, Eric Kjellgren, Yaëlle Biro, 2014-08-01 This Bulletin and the exhibition it accompanies The Nelson A Rockefeller Vision In Pursuit of the Best in Arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas reflect on an extraordinary act of philanthropy that was also a catalyst for momentous change in the art world In establishing the Museum of Primitive Art MPA in 1956 the precursor to what is today the Department of the Arts of Africa Oceania and the Americas AAOA at the Metropolitan Museum Nelson Rockefeller was a true pioneer assembling what remains the greatest collection of fine art from these disparate fields Perhaps even more important than this singular achievement however was Rockefeller s long campaign to place his collection at the Metropolitan Museum as a gift to the city and to the world which he finally achieved in 1969 after nearly forty years of effort Rockefeller s gift carried the unequivocal message that artists from Africa Oceania and the Americas are equal in every respect to those of their peers across the globe and throughout history Yet until that time there was famously skepticism in the Western art world on this point as well as resistance from earlier generations of Metropolitan directors in viewing non Western art as part of the institution s mission Relying on his formidable powers of persuasion Rockefeller eventually brokered an agreement to transfer the collections staff and library of the of the MPA to the Metropolitan an astounding triumph that fundamentally changed the character of the museum making the collections truly encyclopedic
