Iraqi Kurdistan, the PKK and International Relations Hannes Černý, 2017-07-28 Due to its primacy in explaining issues of war and peace in the international arena the discipline of International Relations IR looms large in analyses of and responses to ethnic conflict in academia politics and popular media in particular with respect to contemporary conflicts in the Middle East Grounded in constitutive theory this book challenges how ethnic ethno nationalist conflict is represented in explanatory IR by deconstructing its most prominent state centric models frameworks and analytical concepts As much a critique of contemporary scholarship on Kurdish ethno nationalism as a detailed analysis of the most prominent Kurdish ethno nationalist actors the book provides the first in depth investigation into the relations between the PKK and the main Iraqi Kurdish political parties from the 1980s to the present It situates this inquiry within the wider context of the ambiguous political status of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq its relations with Turkey and the role Kurdish parties and insurgencies play in the war against ISIS in Iraq and Syria Appreciating these complex dynamics and how they are portrayed in Western scholarship is essential for understanding current developments in the Iraqi and Syrian theatres of war and for making sense of discussions about a potential independent Kurdish state to emerge in Iraq Iraqi Kurdistan provides a comprehensive and critical discussion of the state centric and essentialising epistemologies ontologies and methodologies of the three main paradigms of explanatory IR as well as their analytical models and frameworks on ethnic identity and conflict in the Middle East and beyond It will therefore be a valuable resource for anyone studying ethnicity and nationalism International Relations or Middle East Politics The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L.

Bock,2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students

Perspectives on International Relations Henry R. Nau,2018-01-03 Perspectives on International Relations Power Institutions and Ideas shows students new to the field how theories perspectives of international affairs realism liberalism constructivism identity and critical theory play a decisive role in explaining every day debates about world affairs Why for example do politicians and political scientists disagree about the causes of the ongoing conflict in Syria even though they all have the same facts Or why do policymakers disagree about how to deal with North Korea when they are all equally well informed The new Sixth Edition of this best seller includes updates on Brexit the rise of Donald Trump and other populist leaders and continuing developments for ISIS Syria and Russia Entrepreneurship Marketing Sonny Nwankwo,Ayantunji Gbadamosi,2010-12-02 Small and medium sized enterprises SMEs dominate the market in terms of sheer number of organizations Their role in the business world is difficult to overstate Despite this there is a high failure rate among smaller organizations which can be explained to a significant degree by a lack of marketing understanding in this sector Introducing the importance of marketing to entrepreneurial firms this book guides the student through the fundamentals of marketing within the SME context providing a more value added learning experience than your standard marketing run through The authors deal directly with people issues i e everyday entrepreneurial marketing interactions to prepare students for the dragon s den of entrepreneurialism This new and lively textbook provides a fresh and unfettered approach for marketing students who require a more real world understanding of the impact of their discipline on entrepreneurial firms The growing student body involved with studying entrepreneurship will also benefit from the customer insight offered by this approach

Bewildering Borders Werner Zips, Manuela Zips-Mairitsch, 2019 Transfrontier conservation challenges African borders the colonial scars of history The global tourism industry has discovered the potential of African borderlands for adventure travel Iconic animals and indigenous cultures are marketed in the same breath often evoking stereotypical images of Wild Africa Can ecotourism and ethno tourism be commended as viable panaceas for environmental protection and development The marketing of nature and culture raises important questions on the meaningful inclusion of local communities as tourism entrepreneurs Living museums and cultural villages are emerging as start ups of local communities They commodify ethnicity albeit on their own terms This volume debates the economy of conservation providing diverse perspectives on an issue of great contemporary relevance Routledge International Handbook of Religion in Global Society Jayeel

Cornelio, François Gauthier, Tuomas Martikainen, Linda Woodhead, 2020-11-29 Like any other subject the study of religion is a child of its time Shaped and forged over the course of the twentieth century it has reflected the interests and political situation of the world at the time As the twenty first century unfolds it is undergoing a major transition along with religion itself This volume showcases new work and new approaches to religion which work across boundaries of religious tradition academic discipline and region The influence of globalizing processes has been evident in social and cultural networking by way of new media like the internet in the extensive power of global capitalism and in the increasing influence of international bodies and legal instruments Religion has been changing and adapting too This handbook offers fresh insights on the dynamic reality of religion in global societies today by underscoring transformations in eight key areas Market and Branding Contemporary Ethics and Virtues Intimate Identities Transnational Movements Diasporic Communities Responses to Diversity National Tensions and Reflections on Religion These themes demonstrate the handbook's new topics and approaches that move beyond existing agendas Bringing together scholars of all ages and stages of career from around the world the handbook showcases the dynamism of religion in global societies It is an accessible introduction to new ways of approaching the study of religion practically theoretically and geographically Advanced Business David Needham, Robert Dransfield, 2000 Everything you need to cover the compulsory units of the AVCE specification can be found in the student friendly textbook The Tutor's Resource File contains all the extra materials ideas and support to get the very best from your students Power and Transnational Activism Thomas Olesen, 2010-12-03 Offering new and critical insights on global activism and power it features case studies on China and Tibet HIV AIDS climate change child labour the WTO women and the UN the global public sphere world social forums and global civil society How to Read and Write Critically Alex Baratta, 2021-09-22 To succeed in any assessment you need to demonstrate critical thinking but what does it mean to be critical This book takes a hands on approach to helping you think read and write critically Packed with examples from different disciplines and subjects it talks through dozens of written extracts so you can see what criticality actually looks like

The book Equips you with tools for making an argument explaining your reasoning and using examples to illustrate your points Enables you to structure coherent arguments and choose appropriate language Helps you interpret and apply feedback from your lecturers For undergraduate students studying in any discipline this clear guide takes the confusion out of reading and writing critically so you can approach your assessments with confidence

Bridges and Boundaries Colin Elman, Miriam Fendius Elman, 2001-04-13 Bridges and Boundaries offers a conversation between what might loosely be described as traditionalist diplomatic and military historians and political scientists who employ qualitative case study methods to examine international relations The book opens with a series of chapters discussing differences commonalities and opportunities for cross fertilization between the two disciplines To help focus the dialogue on real events and research the volume then revisits three empirical topics that have been studied at length by members of both disciplines British hegemony in the nineteenth century diplomacy in the interwar period and the causes of World War II and the origins and course of the Cold War For each of these subjects a political scientist a historian and a commentator reflect on how disciplinary guild rules have shaped the study of international events The book closes with incisive overviews by Robert Jervis and Paul W Schroeder Bridges and Boundaries explores how historians and political scientists can learn from one another and illustrates the possibilities that arise when open minded scholars from different disciplines sit down to talk

In Search of Our Frontier Eiichiro Azuma, 2019-10-08 In Search of Our Frontier explores the complex transnational history of Japanese immigrant settler colonialism which linked Japanese America with Japan s colonial empire through the exchange of migrant bodies expansionist ideas colonial expertise and capital in the Asia Pacific basin before World War II The trajectories of Japanese transpacific migrants exemplified a prevalent national structure of thought and practice that not only functioned to shore up the backbone of Japan s empire building but also promoted the borderless quest for Japanese overseas development Eiichiro Azuma offers new interpretive perspectives that will allow readers to understand Japanese settler colonialism s capacity to operate outside the aegis of the home empire

On the Frontiers of the Indian Ocean World Philip Gooding, 2022-08-04 This is the first interdisciplinary history of Lake Tanganyika and of eastern Africa's relationship with the wider Indian Ocean World during the nineteenth century Philip Gooding deploys diverse source materials including oral climatological anthropological and archaeological sources to ground interpretations of the better known European authored archive in local epistemologies and understandings of the past Gooding shows that Lake Tanganyika's shape location and distinctive lacustrine environment contributed to phenomena traditionally associated with the history of the wider Indian Ocean World being negotiated contested and reimagined in particularly robust ways He adds novel contributions to African and Indian Ocean histories of urbanism the environment spirituality kinship commerce consumption material culture bondage slavery Islam and capitalism African peoples and environments are positioned as central to the histories of global economies religions and cultures

Extreme Conflict and Tropical Forests Wil De Jong, Deanna Donovan, Ken-ichi Abe, 2007-04-08 There are many compelling reasons for policymakers to pay more attention to forested regions and invest more resources there Forests provide valuable products and environmental services and several hundred million extremely poor people live near them Perhaps the most compelling reason of all however is that unless policymakers take forest governance seriously and respond better to the needs of the people living there these regions will continue to be breeding grounds for violent conflict banditry and illicit crops From Nicaragua's Atlantic Coast to the jungles of Cambodia there are several dozen countries around the world that have experienced severe breakdowns in law and order in their forested regions In many of these cases those breakdowns had widespread economic social and political consequences that have threatened entire societies You would think that after all of the suffering over the last few decades in the forested regions of Colombia Peru Mexico Guatemala the two Congo's Liberia Mozambique Philippines Solomon Islands Nepal Angola Rwanda Nicaragua Cote d'Ivoire Myanmar Bangladesh India Sri Lanka Indonesia Sierra Leone Senegal Sudan Uganda and Vietnam people would begin to take note After all they don't call it jungle warfare for nothing
