Corn, 2011-11-01 We've all been there Seduced by the sleek designs and smart capabilities of the newest gadgets we end up stumped by their complicated set up instructions and exasperating error messages In this fascinating history Joseph J Corn maps two centuries of consumer frustration and struggle with personal technologies Aggravation with the new machines people adopt and live with is as old as the industrial revolution Clocks sewing machines cameras lawn mowers bicycles electric lights cars and computers all can empower and exhilarate but they can also exact a form of servitude Adopters puzzle over which type and model to buy and then how to operate the device diagnose its troubles and meet its insatiable appetite for accessories replacement parts or upgrades It intrigues Corn that we put up with the frustrations our technology thrusts upon us battling with the unfamiliar and climbing the steep learning curves It is this ongoing struggle more than the uses to which we ultimately put our machines that animates this thought provoking study Having extensively researched owner's manuals computer user group newsletters and how to literature Corn brings a fresh consumer oriented approach to the history of technology User Unfriendly will be valuable to historians of technology students of American culture and anyone interested in our modern dependence on machines and gadgets      The Model T Ford Car, Its Construction, Operation and Repair Victor Wilfred Pagé, 1916      The Canada Gazette Canada, 1918      Tractor Wars Neil Dahlstrom, 2022-01-11 Mr Dahlstrom has written a superb history of the tractor and this long forgotten period of capitalism in U S agriculture We now know the whole story of when farming business and the free market economy diverged divided and conquered Wall Street Journal Discover the untold story of the tractor wars the twenty year period that introduced power farming the most fundamental change in world agriculture in hundreds of years Before John Deere Ford and International Harvester became icons of American business they were competitors in a forgotten battle for the farm From 1908 1928 against the backdrop of a world war and economic depression these brands were engaged in a race to introduce the tractor and revolutionize farming By the turn of the twentieth century four million people had left rural America and moved to cities leaving the nation's farms shorthanded for the work of plowing planting cultivating harvesting and threshing That's why the introduction of the tractor is an innovation story as essential as man's landing on the moon or the advent of the internet after all with the tractor a shrinking farm population could still feed a growing world But getting the tractor from the boardroom to the drafting table then from factory and the farm was a technological and competitive battle that until now has never been fully told A researcher historian and writer Neil Dahlstrom has spent decades in the corporate archives at John Deere In Tractor Wars

Dahlstrom offers an insider's view of a story that entwines a myriad of brands and characters stakes and plots the Reverend Daniel Hartsough a pastor turned tractor designer Alexander Legge the eventual president of International Harvester a former cowboy who took on Henry Ford William Butterworth and the oft at odds leadership team at John Deere that partnered with the enigmatic Ford but planned for his ultimate failure With all the bitterness and drama of the race between Ford Dodge and General Motors Tractor Wars is the untold story of industry stalwarts and disruptors inventors and administrators racing to invent modern agriculture a power farming revolution that would usher in a whole new world
