Arial There was a time when the Chevrolet Nova was considered a budget option a model engineered primarily for the price conscious customer Certainly performance models were already in Chevrolet s fold With the Camaro the Corvette and the

Chevelle leading the way why would Chevy need another performance model Well savvy Chevy customers knew that you could get a really tricked out Nova right from the factory with SS packages and big block 396 engines along with performance transmissions and gearing for a fair amount less than an equally equipped Camaro As a bonus Novas were lighter weight too It was the performance bargain of the Chevy lineup Fast forward to today The first generation Camaros cost a small fortune and while Novas have held their value quite well they are still a performance bargain compared to the other Chevy performance models of the era Not only are they more affordable than Camaros but you can do a whole lot to make them really fast In Chevy Nova 1968 1974 How to Build and Modify veteran author and Chevy expert Wayne Scraba shows you all you need to know to build a killer street or strip Nova Included is detailed information on driveline upgrades rear suspension options for the ultimate hook front end suspension and chassis components for good handling and weight transfer excellent brake upgrades engine swap options cooling system upgrades and more Focusing on quarter mile performance Scraba expertly covers all of your options for a strong running street Nova a street strip combo package or all out drag racing options If you want to build your Nova into a quarter mile warrior this book is an essential tool for success

COPO Camaro, Chevelle & Nova Matt Avery, 2018-09-14 The COPO Camaros Chevilles and Novas of the 1960s and early 1970s were the ultimate high performance GM muscle cars While few knew about this back channel program at the time it is now recognized as the origin of GM s top muscle cars Dedicated Chevy racers and car owners were determined to compete head to head with Mopar and Ford at the racetrack and on the street But in order to do so they needed to circumvent the corporate ban on racing and resolve the restriction of 400 ci engines in intermediate vehicles Don Yenke and some other creative individuals recognized the loophole in the COPO Central Office Production Order system at General Motors The COPO program was designated for fleet vehicles such as taxicabs but at the peak of the muscle car wars it was used to build the ultimate high performance Chevy muscle cars Some horrific on track accidents compelled General Motors to drop out of racing yet GM did not want to allow Chrysler and Ford to steal the glory on Sundays while they stood on the sidelines As a result GM inconspicuously ran the Chevy racing and high performance program through back channels and COPO was integral part of the program Don Yenke became the COPO muscle car program chief architect and champion He ordered the Corvair through the COPO program and created the Corvair Stinger to mount a SCCA road race campaign From these humble beginnings the road map for creating the ultimate Camaros Chevilles and Novas was established Factory Camaro V 8s came equipped with the 350 small block or 396 big block which had to compete with the Mustang Cobra Jets and Mopar Wedge and Hemi cars In response building the big block Camaro through the COPO program was devised At the factory Camaros were fitted with the 396 engines and shipped to dealers where the 427s were installed in the cars From 1967 to 1969 the factory and dealers installed eight different 427 engines including the all aluminum ZL1 427 Later on others used the road map to build COPO Novas and Chevilles to similar spec with similar results The COPO performance car program did not end with these muscle cars Yenko even ordered several hundred Vegas through the COPO program so they could be fitted with turbochargers and raced in SCCA competition Chevy muscle car aficionado and author Matt Avery retraces the history of the COPO program and the creation of these premier muscle cars He has scoured archives and tracked down owners and personnel involved in the program to deliver a comprehensive story and complete guide to the COPO cars The COPO muscle car and racing program produced a storied and remarkable journey and author Matt Avery captures all these facets in this entertaining and revealing history p p1 margin 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px 0 0px font 12 0px Arial
