QUESTIONS

The following questions refer to Stanza 1:

The "mist" (line 1) and "smoke" (line 2) are compared to "pus" (line 5); while the "White City Jabavu" (line 3) is compared to a huge "sore" (line 6).

1. Are these comparisons examples of either similes or metaphors? Explain your response in detail.
A simile is used to compare the smoke to pus with the word "as"
The city of Jabavu can be seen as being compared to a giant sore - metaphor
2. Discuss the figurative effectiveness of each of these comparisons. (Find three similarities which they share.)
The mist is compared to pus effectively as both pus and smoke are thick, yellow, disgusting, unhealthy (any other similarities). The city of Jabavu is effectively compared to a sore as like a sore the city is seen as dirty, unhygienic, unhealthy, an unwanted blemish in society, full of pain etc.
3. What emotional impact do these comparisons have on the reader in terms of setting the scene in which the events of the poem will take place?
It creates an uncomfortable feeling in the reader. The images are unsettling.
4. To the politicians in apartheid South Africa, how might White City Jabavu, a sprawling part of Soweto township, been like a "gigantic sore" (line 6)?
It's unwanted. It's a blemish on society. They would rather that it were not there.

The following questions refer to Stanza 2:

Stanza 2 contains only two lines. The two elements being compared here are "our little houses" (line 7) and "fish caught in a net" (line 8).

5. What is the "It" referred to in line 7?
The mist / smoke
6. Discuss the figurative effectiveness of this comparison. What is suggested about the people of Jabavu when the poet compares them to "fish caught in a net" (line 8)?
They are trapped in their circumstances, they cannot escape into better lives, they are suffering, they are cramped together in a confined space.

The following questions refer to Stanzas 3 and 4:

7. What are the "bandanas" (line 10) which the dogs wear?
It's the flesh and blood of the infant
8. Why would the poet describe the dogs with the line "they bared fangs" (line 14), as opposed to "they showed their teeth".
It's much more threatening. It create a scary image. Showing teeth is not threatening.
9. What do the words "leaving a mutilated corpse" (line 17) reveal about the condition of the infant?
The child is dead

The following questions refer to Stanza 5:

10. How does the mother feel about having abandoned the bundle? Substantiate your response with direct reference to the text.
She's sad and crying. The word "glistening" suggests that there are tears streaming down her face.
11. Do you think that the mother to blame for leaving her child? Explain your answer in detail.
(opinion) What the mother did was definitely wrong, but the poet is suggesting that perhaps it is society's fault as society has created the circumstances that lead to the mother's actions. The mother is a victim of political circumstance and she didn't have very many options.

Religion, Secularization and Political Thought James E. Crimmins,2013-05-02 The increasing secularization of political thought between the mid seventeenth and mid nineteenth centuries has often been noted but rarely described in detail The contributors to this volume consider the significance of the relationship between religious beliefs dogma and secular ideas in British political philosophy from Thomas Hobbes to J S Mill During this period Britain experienced the advance of natural science the spread of education and other social improvements and reforms in the political realm These changes forced religion to account for itself and to justify its existence both as a social institution and as a collection of fundamental articles of belief about the world and its operations This book originally published in 1990 conveys the crucial importance of the association between religion secularization and political thought

Murder in the First-Class Carriage Kate Colquhoun,2013-04-30 This story of a real life Victorian mystery is a meticulously researched true crime account its final revelation is a showstopper The New York Times In July 1864 Thomas Briggs was traveling home after visiting his niece and her husband for dinner He boarded a first class carriage on the 9 45 pm Hackney service of the North London railway A short time later two bank clerks entered the compartment and noticed blood pooled in the seat cushions and smeared all over the floor and windows But there was no sign of Thomas Briggs All that remained was his ivory knobbed walking stick his empty leather bag and a bloodstained hat that strangely did not belong to Mr Briggs The race to identify the killer and catch him as he fled on a boat to America was eagerly followed by the public on both sides of the Atlantic The investigation and subsequent trial became a fixture in New York newspapers and a frequent distraction from the Civil War that ravaged the nation In Murder in the First Class Carriage Gold Dagger Award nominee Kate Colquhoun tells the gripping tale of a crime that shocked an era A suspenseful well paced account of a baffling mystery The Washington Post Deploying her skill as a historian Colquhoun turns a single curious murder case into a fascinatingly quirky portrait of the underside of mid Victorian London I found it unputdownable Daily Telegraph
