Department of Public Information,1981 ABC Des Nations Unies Organizacja Narodów Zjednoczonych. Wydział Informacji Prasowej,1969 ABC de L'ONUDI Organisation des Nations Unies pour le développement industriel,1982 La Diplomatie Multilatérale Marcel André Boisard,Evgeny M. Chossudovsky,Jacques Lemoine,1998 In the first part of this book distinguished diplomats and eminent academics have contributed papers on the concept of international organization on international conference diplomacy and on negotiating strategies while experts have provided practical advice on conference management and tips on getting ideas and positions heard and understood in this particular setting A second part includes notices on the United Nations organizations headquartered in Geneva with special emphasis on what may be called their institutional culture and a third part including an invaluable presentation by the Swiss Department of Foreign Affairs is devoted to the question of privileges and immunities There are many studies academic or otherwise on the United Nations organizations but hardly any provide this kind of practical guidance for diplomats and national officials first confronted with the Geneva multilateral setting The book is primarily intended for them but is also of interest for those concerned with international relations International Court of Justice International Court Of Justice Staff,1992-12-31 Military Training And Children In Armed Conflict Jenny Kuper,2005 During recent armed conflicts such as those in Iraq the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda public attention was repeatedly caught by images of children both as civilians and as soldiers Those conflicts like so many others were vivid reminders that where there is armed conflict there are also almost always children Soldiers and officers fulfil many roles in relation to such children sometimes as combatants sometimes as humanitarian workers sometimes as protectors and or sometimes as enemies and abusers This book aims to address three main questions what are the obligations of officers of national armed forces in relation to children either civilians or combatants whom they or those under their command may encounter while participating in situations of armed conflict How realistic and achievable are these obligations How can compliance with them be encouraged monitored and or enforced The book examines these questions in the context of military training In doing so it has another inextricably linked aim to see if there are ways in which the training of officers can improve the protection of children in armed conflict situations in accordance with international law and policy It is intended for use particularly by those involved in training of national armed forces including officers themselves and members of governments non governmental organisations NGOs and inter governmental organisations It is hoped that it will also be of interest to lawyers academics and others concerned with child rights and related law and policy It contains examples of actual training materials that can be modified for use in different countries and contexts Human Survivability Studies Shūichi Kawai,Masakazu Fujita,Eiko Kawai,2018 The challenges we face today are growing conspicuously broad in scale and complex in nature Human Survivability Studies is a new transdisciplinary field born from the growing awareness of the urgent need to tackle the large scale environmental and social issues at crisis point in the world today Based at Kyoto University the recently established Graduate School of Advanced Integrated Studies in Human Survivability is seeking to develop leaders able to challenge global problems on a number of fronts Each of the twenty chapters in this volume written by academics from the Graduate School looks at critical issues facing humanity from a different perspective discussing new ideas and scientific methods that will form the basis of human survivability The aim here is to outline the framework behind the ideas methodology and practice of this new scientific paradigm that incorporates knowledge from both the social and natural sciences Subject Environmental Studies Comparative Studies Natural Sciences Social Sciences ABC des Nations Unies Nations Unies.
