Abjection Melancholia And Love The Work Of Julia Kristeva:

Abjection, Melancholia, and Love John Fletcher, Andrew E. Benjamin, 1990 Abjection, Melancholia, and Love John Fletcher, Andrew E. Benjamin, 1990 Understanding Kristeva, Understanding Modernism Maria Margaroni, 2022-11-03 Julia Kristeva has revolutionized the study of modernism by developing a theoretical approach that is uniquely attuned to the dynamic interplay between on the one hand linguistic and formal experimentation and on the other hand subjective crisis and socio political upheaval Inspired by the contestatory spirit of the late 1960s in which she emerged as a theorist Kristeva has defended the project of the European avant gardes and has systematically attempted to reclaim their legacy in the new societal structures produced by a global spectacle dominated capitalism Understanding Kristeva Understanding Modernism brings together essays that take up the threads in Kristeva s analyses of the avant garde offering an appreciation of her overall contribution the intellectual and political horizon within which she has produced her seminal works as well as of the blind spots that need to be acknowledged in any contemporary examination of her insights As with other volumes in this series this volume is structured in three parts The first part provides new readings of key texts or central aspects in Kristeva s oeuvre The second part takes up the task of showing the impact of Kristeva s thought on the appreciation of modernist concerns and strategies in a variety of fields literature philosophy the visual arts and dance The third part is a glossary of some of Kristeva s key terms with each entry written by an expert contributor The Abject of Desire , 2007-01-01 The Abject of Desire approaches the aestheticization of the unaesthetic via a range of different topics and genres in twentieth century Anglophone literature and culture The experience of disgust which Winfried Menninghaus describes as an acute crisis of self preservation is correlated with conceptualizations of gender in theories of the abject abjection In view of this general crisis of identity in the experience of disgust the contributions to this volume discuss examples of the aestheticization of the unaesthetic in cultural representations and locate conceptual re codings of the body gender and identity with regard to the abject as an immediate and uncompromising experience on the one hand and a social and political phenomenon on the other Considering a variety of cultural narratives by writers as diverse as Samuel Delany Sarah Schulman Joyce Carol Oates Leslie Marmon Silko Paul Magrs J G Ballard Stevie Smith T C Boyle Joseph Conrad Poppy Z Brite and Will Self by film directors John Waters and Peter Greenaway playwrights Girish Karnad and Mahesh Dattani and body artist Gunter von Hagens the contributors to this volume scrutinize different implications of the ambivalent concept of the abject abjection Cultural Semiosis Hugh J. Silverman, 2014-04-23 Cultural Semiosis traces the theoretical itinerary of the signifier in the continental tradition Cultural semiosis provides links for cultural studies to the philosophical the literary the historical and the social Understood semiotically cultural signs and signifiers are inscribed in the fabric of cultural practices Cultural semiosis enters the spaces of everyday language visibility sexuality and symbolization These original essays interpret and provide tools for the understanding of cultural studies within a philosophical framework

Contributors M Alison Arnett Debra Bergoffen Peter Carravetta Alessandro Carrera Julia Kristeva John Llewelyn Michael Naas Kelly Oliver Adi Ophir Francois Raffoul Mark Roberts Stephanie Sage Hugh J Silverman Embodying Identity Harri Garrod Roberts, 2009-07-01 Since the time of Freud some of the most radical innovators within critical theory have stressed the importance of the body and its representation to the constitution of subjectivity This book explores some of the theoretical debates surrounding the body and assesses its value as a critical concept through an analysis of the body's representation both in Welsh literary texts in English and discourse about Wales more generally Combining psychoanalytic with more culturally orientated approaches to the body the book offers an historically informed account of the body that analyses its role in the construction and contestation of identity at a cultural as well as individual level contributing in a new and radical way to the rapidly expanding critical literature concerned with exploring the construction of identity in a Welsh cultural context Vision and Textuality Stephen W. Melville, Bill Readings, 1995 The influence of contemporary literary theory on art history is increasingly evident but there is little or no agreement about the nature and consequence of this new intersection of the visual and the textual Vision and Textuality brings together essays by many of the most influential scholars in the field both young and more established writers from the United States England and France to address the emergent terms and practices of contemporary art history With essays by Rosalind Krauss Hal Foster Norman Bryson Victor Burgin Martin Jay Louis Marin Thomas Crow Griselda Pollock and others the volume is organized into sections devoted to the discipline of art history the implications of semiotics the new cultural history of art and the impact of psychoanalysis The works discussed in these essays range from Rembrandt's Danae to Jorge Immendorf's Caf Deutschland from Vauxhall Gardens to Max Ernst and from the Imagines of Philostratus to William Godwin's novel Caleb Williams Each section is preceded by a short introduction that offers further contexts for considering the essays that follow while the editors' general introduction presents an overall exploration of the relation between vision and textuality in a variety of both institutional and theoretical contexts Among other issues it examines the relevance of aesthetics the current concern with modernism and postmodernism and the possible development of new disciplinary formations in the humanities Contributors Mieke Bal John Bender Norman Bryson Victor Burgin Thomas Crow Peter de Bolla Hal Foster Michael Holly Martin Jay Rosalind Krauss Françoise Lucbert Louis Martin Stephen Melville Griselda Pollock Bill Readings Irit Rogoff Bennet Schaber John Tagg Reading Melanie Klein Lyndsey Stonebridge, John Phillips, 1998 Kleinian psychoanalysis has recently experienced a renaissance in academic and clinical circles Reading Melanie Klein responds to the upsurge of interest in her work by bringing together the most innovative and challenging essays on Kleinian thought from the last two decades The book features material which appears here for the first time in English and several newly written chapters Reading Melaine Klein recontextualizes Klein to the more well known works of Freud and Lacan and disproves the long held claim that her psychoanalysis is both too normative and too conservative for critical consideration The essays address Klein's distinctive readings of the unconscious and phantasy her tenacious commitment to the death drive her fecund notions of anxiety projection and projective identification and most famously her challenge to Freud's Oedipus complex and theories of sexual difference The authors demonstrate that not only is it possible to rethink the epistemological basis of Kleinian theory rendering it as vital as those of Freud and Lacan but also that her psychoanalysis can engage in powerful and productive dialogue with diverse disciplines such as politics ethics and literary theory This timely collection is an invaluable addition to the scholarship on Melaine Kein and catalyst for further debate not only within the psychoanalytic community but also across social critical and cultural studies

First Things Mary Jacobus, 2020-04-03 In First Things Mary Jacobus combines close readings with theoretical concerns in an examination of the many forms taken by the mythic or phantasmic mother in literary psychoanalytic and artistic representations She carefully explores the ways in which the maternal imaginary informs both unconscious processes and signifying practices at all levels Her fierce analysis of specific texts and paintings raises questions about the symbolic and biological maternal body and how they relate to each other in literary and psychoanalytic terms The invocation of writings by Kleist Wollstonecraft Mary Shelley Malthus and de Sade along with analysis of French revolutionary iconography and Realist and Impressionist paintings by Eakins and Morisot make this wide ranging text a truly interdisciplinary study First Things sees literary theory and psychoanalysis as mutually illuminating practices The work of Freud Klein Kristeva and Bion shape an inquiry into such topics as population discourse surrogate motherhood AIDS mastectomy and psychoanalysis itself In addition Jacobus elaborates on Freud's oedipal preconceptions Klein's missing theory of signs memory melancholia narcissism and maternal reverie

Daphne du Maurier A. Horner, S. Zlosnik, 1998-04-08 Daphne du Maurier Writing Identity and the Gothic Imagination is the first full length evaluation of du Maurier's fiction and the first critical study of du Maurier as a Gothic writer Horner and Zlosnik argue that the fears at the heart of du Maurier's Gothic fictions reflect both personal and broader cultural anxieties concerning sexual and social identity Using the most recent work in Gothic and gender studies they enter the current debate on the nature of Female Gothic and raise questions about du Maurier's relationship to such a tradition

When History Returns Deborah P. Britzman, 2024-05-01 When History Returns brings together psychoanalytic theories of learning with the antinomies of social strife From a psychoanalytic perspective history returns through transitional scenes of inheriting a past one could not make experiencing a present affected by what came before and facing a future one can neither know nor predict Taking such scenes as the subject of education Deborah P. Britzman provides new approaches and vocabulary for conceptualizing experience and understanding as expressed in psychoanalysis literature film clinical case studies and warm pedagogy Britzman argues that novel quests for humane responsibility take hold in the fallout of understanding in the feel of history in imaginative dialogues and missed encounters and in searches for friendship belonging and affiliation Each chapter charts these quests in contemporary education carrying readers into the heart of learning and the emotional situations that urge the transitions of difficult knowledge into care for thinking and the questions that follow Bakhtin: Carnival and Other Subjects David Shepherd, 2021-11-01 Women by Women Roseanna Lewis Dufault, 1997 While some of the featured works seem dark and pessimistic they express collectively a certain hope for a brighter more egalitarian future This anthology brings together cogent critical studies in a way that identifies and illuminates trends among Quebec's contemporary women writers Psychoanalytic Literary Criticism Maud Ellmann, 2014-01-14 This collection of essays provides students of literary critical theory with an introduction to Freudian methods of interpretation and shows how those methods have been transformed by recent developments in French psychoanalysis particularly by the influence of Jacques Lacan It explains how classical Freudian criticism tended to focus on the thematic content of the literary text whereas Lacanian criticism focuses on its linguistic structure redirecting the reader to the words themselves Concepts and methods are defined by tracing the role played by the drama of Oedipus in the development of psychoanalytic theory and criticism The essays cover a wide generic scope and are divided into three parts drama narrative and poetry Each is accompanied by explanatory headnotes giving clear definitions of complex terms Michèle Roberts Sarah Falcus, 2007 This book provides an accessible and yet thorough analysis of the work of Michèle Roberts a prolific half English and half French writer who can claim both literary and popular appeal Roberts's work is examined alongside contemporary feminist theory particularly the work of Luce Irigaray and feminist philosophers of religion The book traces the development of Roberts's work from its origins in the feminist movement of the seventies through its engagement with the philosophy of religion and its interest in historiography to the postmodern playfulness of her latest work At the same time the book does acknowledge enduring concerns in her oeuvre particularly the fascination with the mother daughter relationship and the desire to engage with and rewrite both history and myth The book offers detailed readings of Roberts's novels together with a selection of her short stories and poetry Mirror, Mirror on the Page W. Michael Mudrovic, 2008 This text offers detailed studies of eight works of poetry written by Spanish women in the years following the death of Francisco Franco and the evolution of a democratic government Each chapter shows how each author defines herself both as a woman and a poet by portraying a female figure in the text of the poem RePresenting Bisexualities Maria Pramaggiore, Donald E. Hall, 1996-07-01 Is bisexuality coming out in America Bisexual characters are surfacing on popular television shows and in film Newsweek proclaims that a new sexual identity is emerging But amidst this burgeoning acknowledgment of bisexuality is there an understanding of what it means to be bisexual in a monosexual culture RePresenting Bisexualities seeks to answer these questions integrating a recognition of bisexual desire with new theories of gender and sexuality Despite the breakthroughs in gender studies and queer studies of recent years bisexuality has remained largely unexamined Problematic sexual images are usually attributed either to homosexual or heterosexual desire while bisexual readings remain unexplored The essays found in RePresenting Bisexualities discuss fluid sexualities through a variety of readings from the fence covering texts from Emily Dickinson to Nine Inch Nails Each author contributes to the collection a unique view of sexual fluidity and transgressive desire Taken together these essays provide the most comprehensive bisexual theory reader to date Image and Power Sarah Sceats,Gail Cunningham,2014-09-11 Image and Power is an important work of literary and cultural criticism This collection of essays focuses on some of the major issues addressed by women s writing in the twentieth century concerning genre subjectivity and social and cultural expectations issues which in the past have been regarded from an essentially male perspective The text introduces women writers whose novels have been widely read and provides an important contribution to the debate about women in literature Liberating Dylan Thomas Rhian Barfoot,2015-03-15 The book attempts for the first time to demonstrate a vital connection between Thomas s poetry and post Freudian psychoanalysis This will benefit readers by helping shed new and illuminating light on the writing and will help close the gap that sadly still exists between Thomas s critical and popular receptions Close textual analysis of poems that have to date received only scant critical attention e g Today this insect The Notebooks have received only scant critical attention and have been subordinated to a purely minor role Here however the Notebooks are re visited and re evaluated because the text of these four manuscript exercise books provides us with a highly significant and revealing document J. G. Ballard: Visions and Revisions J. Baxter,R. Wymer,2011-11-10 Providing an extensive reassessment of dominant and recurring themes in Ballard s writing including historical violence pornography post 9 11 politics and urban space this book also engages with Ballard s late modernism his experimentation with style and form and his sustained interests in psychology and psychopathology
