Proposed Master Plan Update Development Actions, Seattle-Tacoma (Sea-Tac) International Airport, King County ,1996 Participatory Evaluation Up Close J. Bradley Cousins, Jill Anne Chouinard, 2012-07-01 Empiricism provides the backbone of knowledge creation within social science disciplines e g psychology sociology and applied domains of study e g education administration alike Yet relative to such domains of inquiry comparatively little empirical research on evaluation has occurred and the research knowledge base been infrequently synthesized and integrated to influence theory and practice The proposed book aims to fill this void with regard to participatory evaluation a set of collaborative approaches to evaluation that is receiving considerable attention of late including a growing body of empirical studies The authors begin in Part 1 with the delineation of a widely known and familiar conceptual framework for participatory evaluation They then use the framework in Part 2 as a guide to conducting an extensive review of the extant empirical knowledge base in participatory evaluation culminating in a thematic analysis of what we know about the approach In Part 3 the authors focus on

methodological considerations of doing research on participatory evaluation through a critique of existing studies and an explication of design choices drawn from their own research program The book concludes in Part 4 with implications for moving the field forward in terms of important research questions methodological direction and evaluation practice This book will be of central interest to evaluation theorists and to those who choose to conduct research on evaluation appeal will be conceptual and methodological It will provide excellent supplementary reading for graduate students many of whom seek to develop empirical studies on evaluation as part of their graduate programs Rife with examples of participatory evaluation in practice and practical implications the book will also benefit evaluation practitioners with an interest in evaluation capacity building and participatory and collaborative approaches to practice An Integrative Approach to Leader

Seekins,2017-03-27 Burma Myanmar is a Southeast Asian country that is emerging from crisis after more than a half century of hard line military rule and cultural diplomatic and economic isolation With the dissolution of its military regime the State Peace and Development Council in 2011 a formally civilian but military dominated constitutional government was inaugurated By 2012 Burma s president retired General Thein Sein had established a working relationship with Daw Aung San Suu Kyi the leader of the country s pro democracy movement since 1988 and after a 2012 by election she and members of her opposition party the National League for Democracy NLD entered the new Union Parliament as legislators However even with the election victory of Daw Suu Kyi and the NLD in the General Election of November 2015 Burma faces daunting challenges it is still one of the poorest countries in Southeast fissured by longstanding ethnic conflicts that have made a nationwide peace agreement elusive and its people s security and the environment are threatened by foreign economic exploitation Religious discord is also widely evident as Buddhist militants instigate violence against the country s religious minorities especially Muslims Today Burma s prospects are the most hopeful they have been for over half a century as the country takes steps along the road to a more open society and economy This edition of the Historical Dictionary of Burma Myanmar encompasses not only current developments but also Burma s over 1 500 years old recorded history and the most important features of its cultures ethnicity religions society and economy This is done through achronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture International Handbook of Urban

Education William T. Pink,George W. Noblit,2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education

The Lives of Children and Adolescents with Disabilities Angharad E. Beckett, Anne-Marie Callus, 2024-01-04 This book will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in disability studies childhood studies medicine and health sciences and sociology It also provides insights that will be of use and value to professionals working with disabled children and adolescents in education health and in disability specific services Opening with four narratives that offer the reader a window into the lived experience of disabled children adolescents and their families subsequent chapters explore a range of issues facing disabled children from early childhood through to late adolescence Topics include family life early intervention inclusive and post secondary education the right to play digital participation the effects of labelling and matters relating to agency and sexuality With chapters discussing research from Australia Canada Ireland Italy Malta Mexico New Zealand Sweden and the UK amongst others this book contributes to the existing body of knowledge about the lives of disabled children and adolescents with a focus on socially created disabling factors provides the reader with analysis of issues affecting disabled children and adolescents according to different conceptual frameworks national contexts and with regard to different types of impairments disabilities highlights the main issues that confront disabled children and adolescents their families and their allies in the early twenty first century highlights the importance of actively listening to the perspectives of disabled children and adolescents It provides a rich source of knowledge and information about the lives of disabled children and adolescents and a variety of perspectives on how their lives are affected by material and non material factors social structures and cultural constructions
