the Loser is: A History of Oscar Oversights [2nd Edition] Aubrey Malone, 2020-10-06. This is the first book of its kind. Aubrey Malone has gone back to the start of the Oscar ceremonies and discovered that mistakes have been made every year in the choice of what has been deemed best in the categories of acting, directing, producing, and the subsidiary awards. He has identified all the great stars: Garbo, Montgomery Clift, Peter O'Toole, Barbara Stanwyck, etc., who never held Oscars in their hands, and also iconic directors like Stanley Kubrick who were never thus honored. Why were some people over-rewarded by the Academy and why did others fall below the radar? The author outlines all of the extraneous factors leading to voting choices and how Oscar pariahs have often been subsequently or even posthumously awarded for the wrong films to make up for omissions in a given year. With both wit and wisdom, he has written an alternative history of the Oscars that will be required reading for both academics and film buffs alike. It tells the story behind the story. If there were Oscars for research, Aubrey Malone would be right up there with the best of them. Film Ireland
