Sustainability in Accounting Education Maria Cadiz Dyball,Ian Thomson,Richard M.S. Wilson,2015-10-14 Accounting sustainably involves accounting for and to the natural environment and accounting for and to society including groups currently oppressed or disadvantaged by unsustainable processes and practices This book creates a compelling case for the inclusion of sustainability at the heart of accounting educational programmes offering critical lessons and identifying risks to avoid when designing accounting programmes and courses Accounting sustainability has moved from the side lines of policy discourses accounting institutions professional accounting practices and research activities into the mainstream The chapters in this proposed book engage in a critical dialogue to facilitate change in accounting education for sustainability They dispel the myth that accounting for sustainability is an oxymoron bad for business unrelated to practice or contrary to professional accounting bodies accreditation requirements This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education Corporate Governance in Banking and Investor Protection Belén Díaz Díaz,Samuel O.

Idowu,Philip Molyneux,2018-01-02 This book explores the status quo of corporate governance in banking and investor protection from both theoretical and practical perspectives Bringing together original conclusions with a regional and international focus it provides a timely and comprehensive overview of the effectiveness of corporate governance in the financial sector and an assessment of investor protection It also includes a number of examples and case studies to illustrate the findings The book compares corporate governance in the banking and financial industries before and after the financial crisis and helps to evaluate the effect of the recommendations and regulations that have been developed in the interim
