
Administrative Law Exam Questions With Correct Answers

administrative law - Answer body of law that governs the activities of administrative agencies of government. Government agency action can include rulemaking, adjudication, or the enforcement of a specific regulatory agenda. Administrative law is considered a branch of public law system theory - Answer provides simple and revealing framework of the relation between participants; accepts one basic truth- first instinct is to survive; does not measure influence of any single input

Independent Regulatory Commissions - Answer entities such as the FCC(Federal Communications Commission) and FAA(Federal Aviation Administration). Within the authority granted them by Congress, they have the power to form and enforce their own regulations. Supposedly unbiased executive departments - Answer a federal department in the executive branch of the government of the United States (ag. commerce, labor, defense, energy, H&HS, justice, treasury, state, interior, housing and urban development, transportation, education, homeland security, veterans affairs) due process - Answer legal requirement that the state must respect all of the legal rights that are owed to a person. Due process balances the power of law of the land and protects the individual person from it. When a government harms a person without following the exact course of the law, this constitutes a due-process violation, which offends against the rule of law common law - Answer also known as case law or precedent, is law developed by judges through decisions of courts and similar tribunals, as opposed to statutes adopted through the legislative process or regulations issued by the executive branch precedent - Answer a principle or rule established in a previous legal case that is either binding on or persuasive for a court or other tribunal when deciding subsequent cases with similar issues or facts; Stare decisis is a legal principle by which judges are obliged to respect the precedent established by prior decisions

Administrative Procedure Act (1946) - Answer United States federal law that governs the way in which administrative agencies of the federal government of the United States may propose and establish regulations. The APA also sets up a process for the United States
