Our Darlings: the Children's Treasury of Pictures & Stories T.J. Barnardo, 1890 Patterns of Aboriginal Culture M. J. E. King-Boyes, 1977 Check end notes for NT references Literacy Education and Indigenous Australians Jennifer Rennie, Helen Harper, 2019-10-21 This edited volume brings together diverse perspectives on Australian literacy education for Indigenous peoples highlighting numerous educational approaches ideologies and aspirations The Australian Indigenous context presents unique challenges for educators working across the continent in settings ranging from urban to remote and with various social and language groups Accordingly one of the book's main goals is to foster dialogue between researchers and practitioners working in these contexts and who have vastly different theoretical and ideological perspectives It offers a valuable resource for academics and teachers of Indigenous students who are interested in literacy focused research and complements scholarship on literacy education in comparable Indigenous settings internationally Indigenous Peoples and Colonialism Colin Samson, Carlos Gigoux, 2016-12-16 Indigenous peoples have gained increasing international visibility in their fight against longstanding colonial occupation by nation states Although living in different locations around the world and practising highly varied ways of life indigenous peoples nonetheless are affected by similar patterns of colonial dispossession and violence In defending their collective rights to self determination culture lands and resources their resistance and creativity offer a pause for critical reflection on the importance of maintaining indigenous distinctiveness against the homogenizing forces of states and corporations This timely book highlights significant colonial patterns of domination and their effects as well as responses and resistance to colonialism It brings indigenous peoples issues and voices to the forefront of sociological discussions of modernity In particular the book examines issues of identity dispossession environment rights and revitalization in relation to historical and ongoing colonialism showing that the experiences of indigenous peoples in wealthy and poor countries are often parallel and related With a strong comparative scope and interdisciplinary perspective the book is an essential introductory reading for students interested in race and ethnicity human rights development and indigenous peoples issues in an interconnected world Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Melanie Duckworth, Annika Herb, 2023-10-04 Storying Plants in Australian Children's and Young Adult Literature Roots and Winged Seeds explores cultural and historical aspects of the representation of plants in Australian children's and young adult literature encompassing colonial postcolonial and Indigenous perspectives While plants tend to be backgrounded as of less narrative interest than animals and humans this book in conversation with the field of critical plant studies approaches them as living beings worthy of attention Australia is home to over 20 000 species of native plants from pungent Eucalypts to twisting mangroves from tiny orchids to spiky silvery spinifex Indigenous Australians have lived with relied upon and cultivated these plants for many thousands of years When European explorers and colonists first invaded Australia unfamiliar species of plants captured their imagination Vulnerable to bushfires climate change and introduced species plants continue to occupy fraught but vital places in Australian ecologies texts and cultures

Discussing writers from Ambelin Kwaymullina and Auntie Joy Murphy to May Gibbs and Ethel Turner and embracing transnational perspectives from Ukraine Poland and Aotearoa New Zealand Storying Plants addresses the stories told about plants but also the stories that plants themselves tell engaging with the wide ranging significance of plants in Australian children's and Young Adult literature The Little Book of Stories from Around the World Marianne Sargent, 2015-06-04 The stories featured in this book come from all over the world The Practice Guidance for the Early Years Foundation Stage sets out the requirement that children be provided with positive images that challenge children's thinking and help them embrace differences in gender ethnicity language religion culture Stories are powerful medium that engage and envelop young children helping them to enter unfamiliar worlds and begin to empathise with characters from different backgrounds This book provides a range of stories through which young children can explore and learn about other cultures Each activity page will include The story Adult led and independent activity ideas to follow up the story Related songs poems and rhymes A list of additional stories information books and websites Relevant links with the EYFS Areas of Learning and Development

A Multimodal Approach to Challenging Gender Stereotypes in Children's Picture Books A. Jesús Moya-Guijarro, Eija Ventola, 2021-11-09 This collection offers a thorough treatment of the ways in which the verbal and visual semiotic modes interrelate toward promoting gender equality and social inclusion in children's picture books Drawing on cutting edge theoretical work in multimodality including multimodal cognitive linguistics multimodal discourse analysis and visual social semiotics the book expands on descriptive oriented studies to offer a more linguistically driven perspective on children's picture books The volume explores the choice afforded to and the lexico semantic and discursive strategies employed by writers and illustrators in conveying representational interpersonal and textual meanings in the verbal and non verbal components in these narratives in order to challenge gender stereotypes and promote the social inclusion of same sex parent families This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars in multimodality discourse analysis social semiotics and children's literature Chapters 1 8 and 9 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> An Encyclopedia of Shamanism Volume 1 Christina Pratt, 2007-08-01 Shamanism can be defined as the practice of initiated shamans who are distinguished by their mastery of a range of altered states of consciousness Shamanism arises from the actions the shaman takes in non ordinary reality and the results of those actions in ordinary reality It is not a religion yet it demands spiritual discipline and personal sacrifice from the mature shaman who seeks the highest stages of mystical development Art of Different Cultures Lilian Coppock, 2000 Picture Perception in Animals Joel Fagot, 2013-06-17 Animal researchers commonly present pictures to their subjects usually birds or monkeys in order to infer how natural objects are perceived and conceptualised or to discover the brain mechanisms underlying these abilities This unique book questions the premise of this experimental approach and asks whether or not pictures can be considered as ecologically valid and realistic stimuli for animals Leading researchers in comparative psychology and neuroscience address such questions as Can animals recognise objects of scenes in pictures despite variations in viewpoints How do animals perceive faces and Is there an equivalence in animals minds between pictures and the objects they represent The result is an authoritative and cutting edge survey of current knowledge in the field which underlines the advantages limits and risks of using pictures to infer cognitive abilities or brain mechanisms in animal studies Picture Perception in Animals will be essential reading for comparative psychologists anthropologists and neuroscientists working in picture perception Indigenous Peoples and Sustainability IUCN Inter-Commission Task Force on Indigenous Peoples, Darrell Addison Posey, 1997 Indigenous peoples are responsible for most of the world s cultural and biological diversity The primary purpose of this document is to alert the conservation and development communities to the value and importance of involving indigenous peoples in national and other strategies for sustainable development Tiwi Textiles Diana Wood Conroy, Bede Tungutalum, 2022-12-01 Tiwi Textiles Design Making Process tells the story of the innovative Tiwi Design centre on Bathurst Island in northern Australia dedicated to the production of hand printed fabrics featuring Indigenous designs from the 1970s to today Written by early art coordinator Diana Wood Conroy with oral testimony from senior Tiwi artist Bede Tungutalum who established Tiwi Design in 1969 with fellow designer Giovanni Tipungwuti the book traces the beginnings of the centre and its subsequent place in the Tiwi community and Australian Indigenous culture more broadly Bringing together many voices and images especially those of little known older artists of Paru and Wurrumiyanga formerly Nguu on the Tiwi Islands and from the Indigenous literature Tiwi Textiles features profiles of Tiwi artists accounts of the development of new design processes insights into Tiwi culture and language and personal reflections on the significance of Tiwi Design which is still proudly operating today Tiwi Textiles is a unique historical document a formidable vindication of the accomplishments of great Indigenous artists and an account of a missing chapter in world art history The book is a wonderful chronicle of a vital and fertile period for Tiwi practice in the emergence of contemporary Indigenous art But it is also a charter for the future Nicholas Thomas FBA FAHA Director Museum of Archaeology and Anthropology University of Cambridge Wood Conroy not only writes intricately and sensitively a vital history of Tiwi art she also firms up the place of fibre and textiles practices in Indigenous art and leaves space for us to consider how art history can shift to become more responsive to the lived realities of Indigenous peoples and our non Indigenous accomplices Tristen Harwood The Saturday Paper
