

Abstract

This research investigates various formation processes that have been developed by Far Right groups in response to the global health emergency crisis caused by COVID-19. An examination of statements by six organizations of the Identitarian and National Socialist movements published online over a two-month period revealed six “crisis frames” that have been evolved: migration, globalization, governance, freedom, resilience, and conspiracy. In addition to determining crisis frames applied by Far Right, this study has found that these Far Right groups emphasized involvement in activities aimed at nourishing community sustainability. It was further identified that conspiracy theories and disinformation practices were mostly absent. These findings imply that in the early stages of the COVID crisis, there was a shift by certain Far Right groups not to practices of encouraging violent disputes, but to using propaganda to highlight their contribution to supporting families, communities, and the nation, against the government’s failure to fight the virus . This paper is a first step towards understanding the development of the modern “crisis frame” in the Far Right, focusing on the interactive processes that occur between Far Right groups, global events and the authorities.

Essentials of Scientific Writing Joseph Mugah,2016-12-13 Essentials of Scientific Writing How to Write Effective Titles and Abstracts for Research Papers and Proposals is a belated entrant into a vast and crucially important area with scarce reference materials This scarcity manifested itself as I searched what I had expected would be useful source materials for the present book I skimmed through many textbooks on scientific writing and editing articles on the Internet and notes from courses on scientific writing They all turned out to be manifestly wanting in both depth and scope None extended beyond two pages and most were hardly a page long so they were largely useless for my purposes To the authors knowledge few published books treat the subjects of Titles and Abstracts in the kind of detail presented in this book Accordingly in developing the book the author hoped to fill a void in the crucial area of facilitating sharing of knowledge and information from research work It is my hope that everyone writing scientific work will endeavor to find space for the book on their shelves and will place it within arms length whenever they are writing or editing the title or abstract
