The Academy of Fisticuffs Sophus A. Reinert, 2018-12-28 The Italian Enlightenment no less than the Scottish was central to the emergence of political economy and creation of market societies Sophus Reinert turns to Milan in the late 1700s to recover early socialists preoccupations with the often lethal tension among states markets and human welfare and the policies these ideas informed

The Right Sensory Mix Diana Derval, 2022-04-08 Many companies fail to acknowledge and analyze disparities observed among customers and simply put them down to culture or emotion New neuroendocrinological research proves that people are rational They just have a different biological perception of the same stimulus Their preferences behavior and decisions are strongly influenced by the hundreds of millions of sensors monitoring their body and brain People with more taste buds are for example sensitive to bitterness and are more likely to drink their coffee with sugar or milk or to drink tea This book helps product managers marketers and corporate decision makers understand and predict customers behavior and preferences It provides the tools to design the right sensory mix color shape depth taste smell texture and sound for each product and fine tune their positioning and range for every local market Using cases from different sectors the author shows that this approach delivers planet and people friendly innovations which have a higher chance of success in the market

Jihad Academy Nicolas Hénin, 2015-09-30 When you keep repeating that the worst is about to happen it finally does The threat of terrorism has caught up with us By invading Iraq in 2003 and not intervening in Syria since 2011 we have helped fuel radicalization And we continue to fuel it by making diplomatic compromises with dictators by refusing to heed the suffering of populations and by failing to invent counter speech What is the responsibility of our societies in the creation of these new jihadists How are they molded How have we played the Islamic State s game and spread its propaganda allowing it to invade our neighborhoods and enlist more and more recruits ready to fight for a distorted fantasy of Islam Nicolas Hénin presents the case against the West showing how its mistakes and inaction have contributed to the disaster He also advances possible strategies to repair what can still be repaired

The American Villain Richard A. Hall, 2020-12-02 The American Villain Encyclopedia of Bad Guys in Comics Film and Television provides one go to reference for the study of the most popular and iconic villains in American popular culture Since the 1980s pop culture has focused on what makes a villain a villain The Joker Darth Vader and Hannibal Lecter have all been placed under the microscope to get to the origins of their villainy Additionally such bad guys as Angelus from Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Barnabas Collins from Dark Shadows have emphasized the desire for redemption in even the darkest of villains Various incarnations of Lucifer Satan have even gone so far as to explore the very foundations of what we consider evil The American Villain Encyclopedia of Bad Guys in Comics Film and Television seeks to collect all of those stories into one comprehensive volume The volume opens with essays about villains in popular culture followed by 100 A Z entries on the most notorious bad guys in film comics and more Sidebars highlight ancillary points of interest such as authors creators and tropes that illuminate the motives of various villains A glossary of key terms and a bibliography provide students with resources to continue their study of what makes the baddest among us so bad

Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy
Awad Ibrahim, Tamari Kitossa, Malinda S. Smith, Handel Kashope Wright, 2022-02-02 The essays in Nuances of Blackness in the Canadian Academy make visible the submerged stories of Black life in academia They offer fresh historical social and cultural insights into what it means to teach learn research and work while Black In daring to shift from margin to centre the book's contributors confront two overlapping themes First they resist a singular construction of Blackness that masks the nuances and multiplicity of what it means to be and experience the academy as Black people Second they challenge the stubborn durability of anti Black tropes the dehumanization of Blackness persistent deficit ideologies and the tyranny of low expectations that permeate the dominant idea of Blackness in the white colonial imagination Operating at the intersections of discourse and experience contributors reflect on how Blackness shapes academic pathways ignites complicated and often difficult conversations and reimagines Black pasts presents and futures This unique collection contributes to the articulation of more nuanced understandings of the ways in which Blackness is made unmade and remade in the academy and the implications for interrelated dynamics across and within post secondary education Black communities in Canada and global Black diasporas

The Psychology of the Car Stefan Gossling, 2017-06-16 The Psychology of the Car explores automotive cultures through the lens of psychology with the goal of achieving a low carbon transport future Worldwide there are now more than one billion cars and their number grows continuously Yet there is growing evidence that humanity needs to reach peak cars as increased air pollution noise accidents and climate change support a decline in car usage While many governments agree the car remains attractive and endeavors to change transport systems have faced fierce resistance Based on insights from a wide range of transport behaviors The Psychology of the Car shows the why of automotive cultures providing new perspectives essential for understanding its attractiveness and for defining a more desirable transport future The Psychology of the Car illustrates the growth of global car use over time and its effect on urban transport systems and the global environment It looks at the adoption of the car into lifestyles the mobilities turn and how the car impacts collective and personal identities The book examines car drivers themselves their personalities preferences and personality disorders relevant to driving The book looks at the role power control dominance speed and gender play as well as the interrelationship between personal freedom and law enforcement The book explores risk taking behaviors as accidental death is a central element of car driving The book addresses how interventions can be successful as well as which interventions are unlikely to work and concludes with how a more sustainable transport future can be created based on emerging transport trends Features deep analyses of individual and collective psychologies of car affection moving beyond sociology based interpretations of automobile culture Illustrates concepts using popular culture examples that expose ideas about automobility Shows how fewer smaller and more environmentally friendly cars as well as low carbon transport modes are more socially attractive Superheroes, Movies, and the State Tricia Jenkins, Tom Secker, 2022-01-07 Tricia Jenkins and Tom Secker deliver a highly original exploration of how the government entertainment complex has influenced the world's most popular movie genre superhero films Superheroes Movies and the State sets a new standard for exploring the government Hollywood relationship as it persuasively documents the critical role different government agencies have played in shaping characters stories and even the ideas behind the hottest entertainment products Jenkins and Secker cover a wide range of US government and quasi governmental agencies who act to influence the content of superhero movies including the Department of Defense the National Academy of Sciences Science and Entertainment Exchange and to a lesser extent the FBI and the CIA Superheroes Movies and the State deploys a thematic framework to analyze how five of the key themes of our time militarism political radicalism and subversion the exploration of space the role of science and technology and representation and identity manifest in the superhero genre and the role of the government in molding narratives around these topics The book includes interviews with both producers and influencer insiders and covers a wide range of superhero products from 1970s TV shows up to the most recent movie and TV releases including the first major analysis of the hit Amazon show The Boys In addition it is the first deep exploration of NASA's Hollywood office and the first detailed account of the role of the Science and Entertainment Exchange which has worked on thousands of products since its creation in 2008 but is little known outside of the industry Superheroes Movies and the State offers an innovative blend of research methods and interpretive frameworks combining both production histories and deep readings of superhero texts to clearly reveal how the government entertainment complex works in the world of blockbuster cinema to shape public perceptions of the United States war science and much much more Contextualizing Entrepreneurship Theory Ted Baker, Friederike

Welter, 2020-02-13 As the breadth and empirical diversity of entrepreneurship research have increased rapidly during the last decade the quest to find a one size fits all general theory of entrepreneurship has given way to a growing appreciation for the importance of contexts This promises to improve both the practical relevance and the theoretical rigor of research in this field Entrepreneurship means different things to different people at different times and in different places and both its causes and its consequences likewise vary For example for some people entrepreneurship can be a glorious path to emancipation while for others it can represent the yoke tethering them to the burdens of overwork and drudgery For some communities it can drive renaissance and vibrancy while for others it allows only bare survival In this book we assess and attempt to push forward contemporary conceptualizations of contexts that matter for entrepreneurship pointing in particular to opportunities generating new insights by attending to contexts in novel or underexplored ways This book shows that the ongoing contextualization of entrepreneurship research should not simply generate a proliferation of unique theories one for every context but can instead result in better theory construction testing and understanding of boundary conditions thereby leading us to richer and more profound understanding of entrepreneurship across its many forms Contextualizing

Entrepreneurship Theory will critically review the current debate and existing literature on contexts and entrepreneurship and use this to synthesize new theoretical and methodological frameworks that point to important directions for future research

Toxic Childhood Sue

Palmer, 2015-02-12 One in six children in the developed world is diagnosed as having developmental or behavioural problems this book explains why and shows what can be done about it Children throughout the developed world are suffering instances of obesity dyslexia ADHD bad behaviour and so on are all on the rise And it's not simply that our willingness to diagnose has increased there are very real and growing problems Sue Palmer a former head teacher and literacy expert has researched a whole range of problem areas from poor diet lack of exercise and sleep deprivation to a range of modern difficulties that are having a major effect television computer games mobile phones This combination of factors added to the increasingly busy and stressed life of parents means that we are developing a toxic new generation TOXIC CHILDHOOD illustrates the latest research from around the world and provides answers for worried parents as to how they can protect their families from the problems of the modern world and help ensure that their children emerge as healthy intelligent and pleasant adults ``It is the theory which decides what can be observed" Daniel Kruse,2022-03-14 The worldwide increase in societal challenges such as climate change political instability and economic volatility puts pressure on institutions organisations and individuals to develop means to address social problems Unfortunately many organisations fail to adequately formulate social problems and even solve the wrong ones which is due to their inherent complexity Consequently this dissertation adopts a complexity lens to interpret the intertwined forces driving social problems within organisational and environmental contexts Problem complexity requires different governance modes as solutions cannot be developed in the typical linear and hierarchical process that commercial products follow To this end this dissertation entails two studies that explore how the complexity of social problems can be managed at the organisational and individual level In particular study 1 employs Procedural Action Research and mixed methods together with a humanitarian organisation to qualitatively develop and quantitatively validate a theory guided bottom up search process for surfacing solutions to reoccurring floods in Indonesia In a similar vein study 2 investigates and compares the individual innovation processes of 20 social entrepreneurs from Ethiopia and Germany Branding with Powerful Stories Greg Stone,2018-12-07 Whether you are branding your company your product your service or yourself learn to boost the power of your story and convey a compelling message in any setting by incorporating villains victims and heroes Compelling stories exalt motivate and acculturate every worker in an enterprise They also attract customers and media alike Imagine an elderly man snowed in unable to shop for groceries until a supermarket comes to the rescue and delivers his food The story of this company going out of its way to help a customer in need will resonate not only with consumers but also with employees This book explains not just how to tell a captivating story but also what elements namely villains victims and heroes it should include in the first place This approach is based on the notion that in business messaging the villains may just be your best friends The villains are simply any problems that cause pain discomfort or extra expense for customers who are in effect the victims As for the heroes they are best illustrated by the supermarket going beyond expectations Who in business wouldn t want to emulate that company If your products and services offer real solutions to customers predicaments there is nothing more powerful than communicating that message and making sure your potential customers remember it
