Images and Ideas in Modern French Piano Music Siglind Bruhn, 1997 In our visually oriented society music appears to stand apart from other arts Yet just as a poet can write a poem whose focus is a painting so musicians have composed scores based on poems, paintings and other non-musical art forms In instrumental music such reinterpretations are especially intriguing as the verbal or visual stimulus does not appear in performance but is rendered in musical form In this study Siglind Bruhn investigates how three French composers of the twentieth century Claude Debussy Maurice Ravel and Olivier Messiaen express extra-musical subtexts in their piano works She shows how the relation between the subtexts and the musical works can be broadly categorized in terms of pictoriality and interiority In all cases Bruhn analyzes each musical piece and each source text in its entirety and in depth drawing on her broad background in both literary and musical

Here is a rich feast for any serious student of the Bible, especially of the New Testament. Detailed, incisive, and exquisitely nuanced exegesis, this collection will reward you with a clearer, deeper, and more informed appreciation of Scripture and its application to Christian life and thought today. Crisp, 2015-11-01

Joy is crucial to human life and central to God's relationship to the world, yet it is remarkably absent from contemporary theology and increasingly from our own lives. This collection remedies this situation by considering the import of joy on human flourishing. These essays, written by experts in systematic and pastoral theology, Christian ethics, and biblical studies, demonstrate the promise of joy to throw open new theological possibilities and cast fresh light on all dimensions of human life. With contributions from Jürgen Moltmann, N. T. Wright, Marianne Meye Thompson, Mary Clark Moschella, Charles Mathewes, and Miroslav Volf, this volume puts joy at the heart of Christian faith and life, exploring joy's biblical, dogmatic, ecclesiological, and ethical dimensions in concert with close attention to the shifting tides of culture. Convinced of the need to offer to the world a compelling Christian vision of the good life, the authors treat the connections between joy and themes of creation, theodicy, politics, suffering, pastoral practice, eschatology, and more, driven by the conviction that a vital relationship with the living God is integral to our fullest flourishing as human creatures.
