Sensing Salvation in the Gospel of John Jeannine Marie Hanger, 2023-07-31 Recent scholarship focused on the role of embodiment within cognition and communication reminds us that part of how we know is through our physical senses. We only know the softness of a kitten by touching its fur or the tastiness of bread by eating. How might this influence our understanding of biblical texts such as Jesus's claim, "I am the bread of life," and the invitation to eat? This study explores the "I am" sayings of John's Gospel, their sensory elements, providing an imaginative entry into the narrative and contributing tangible value to the participatory theology of the Fourth Gospel.

Rhythms of Grace , Joys of the Lord Dr. H. Lawrence Zillmer, 2007-11-21 JOYS OF THE LORD is a sequel to Time Out With God or any book on meditation such as The Practice of the Presence by Brother Lawrence, 1692. We need grist for our moments on the mountain, and who is better able to provide that than the Apostle John? No one understood better than John the joy which Jesus planted in His disciple's hearts. These short daily meditations are drawn from his Gospel, Epistles, and the Book of Revelation. Let the one whom Jesus loved be our source of joy, that is our strength.

An Abecedarian of Sacred Trees Mark G. Boyer, 2016-12-09 Every person has seen a tree and maybe planted or climbed one. In all world religions, various trees are considered sacred. Trees have the ability to help us reach wholeness if we learn their wisdom and integrate it into our lives. This abecedarian, a book whose contents are in alphabetical order, explores the spiritual growth that is possible by reflecting on the wisdom of woody plants which help humans experience the divine. In these pages, you can explore trees from Acacia to Zaqquq. For each of the forty entries, the author presents a text identifying the tree, a reflective study, a question for journaling or personal meditation, and a concluding prayer. Some trees you may have heard about, and some may be new to you. The spiritual life is enhanced by the trees that surround and share the earth with us while also disclosing the divine to us.
