Epic Adventures Jan Jansen,Hendrik M. J. Maier,2004 The many adventures of the epic in modern times are fascinating topics in themselves The Romantics claimed that every self respecting nation should at some time have had one and they set out to reconstruct these epics for political as well as cultural reasons Such epics represented earlier stages in the development of nation states and in this modern world they were for a long time hard to appreciate The introduction of tape recorders however brought the epic back in the limelight It became fashionable for scholars to record long oral narratives and to present them as long written poems that reflected deeply ingrained ideas Because of this technology the idea of the epic was revitalized This volume presents critical analyses of epics in Sub Saharan Africa the former Soviet Union South East Asia Medieval Europe and America and discusses the process of revitalization sometimes even invention of epics in particular historical political and academic contexts Jan Jansen is a member of the Department of Anthropology of the University of Leiden Netherlands Henk M J Maier is professor in the Department of Languages and Cultures of Southeast Asia and Oceania of the University of Leiden Netherlands

Sacred Spaces and Transnational Networks in American Sufism Merin Shobhana Xavier, 2018-03-22 This book sheds light on the Bawa Muhaiyaddeen Fellowship BMF one of North America's major Sufi movements and one of the first to establish a Sufi shrine in the region It provides the first comprehensive overview of the BMF offering new insight into its historical development and practices and charting its establishment in both the United States and Sri Lanka Through ethnographic research Sacred Spaces and Transnational Networks in American Sufism shows that the followers of Bawa in the United States and Sri Lanka share far more similarities in the relationships they formed with spaces Bawa and Sufism than differences This challenges the accepted conceptualization of Sufism in North America as having a distinct Americanness and prompts scholars to reconsider how Sufism is developing in the modern American landscape as well as globally The book focuses on the transnational spaces and ritual activities of Bawa's communities mapping parallel shrines and pilgrimages It examines the roles of culture religion and gender and their impact on ritual embodiment drawing attention to the global range of a Sufi community through engagement with its distinct Muslim Hindu Jewish and Christian followers

The Journal of the Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland ,1900 Includes articles on issues of worldwide anthropological interest Islam and the Liberal State Stephen H. Jones,2020-11-26 National identity and liberal democracy are recurrent themes in debates about Muslim minorities in the West Britain is no exception with politicians responding to claims about Muslims lack of integration by mandating the promotion of fundamental British values including democracy and individual liberty This book engages with both these themes addressing the lack of understanding about the character of British Islam and its relationship to the liberal state It charts a gradual but decisive shift in British institutions concerned with Islamic education Islamic law and Muslim representation since Muslims settled in the UK in large numbers in the 1950s Based on empirical research including interviews undertaken over a ten year period with Muslims and analysis of public events organized by Islamic institutions Stephen Jones challenges claims about the isolation of British Islamic organizations and shows that they have decisively shaped themselves around British public and institutional norms He argues that this amounts to the building of a distinctive British Islam Using this narrative the book makes the case for a variety of liberalism that is open to the expression of religious arguments in public and to associations between religious groups and the state It also offers a powerful challenge to claims about the insularity of British Islamic institutions by showing how the national orientation of Islam called for by British policymakers is in fact already happening Level C Kitaab Al-Ad'Iyaa Cilia Ndiaye,2008-07-18 Book of supplications used as part of the Ad Duha Institute Level C Islamic Studies and Arabic Curriculum www.ad-duha.org Journal - Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland,1901
