Visions of Zion Erin C. MacLeod, 2014 In reggae song after reggae song Bob Marley and other reggae singers speak of the Promised Land of Ethiopia Repatriation is a must they cry The Rastafari have been travelling to Ethiopia since the movement originated in Jamaica in 1930s They consider it the Promised Land and repatriation is a cornerstone of their faith Though Ethiopians see Rastafari as immigrants the Rastafari see themselves as returning members of the Ethiopian diaspora In Visions of Zion Erin C MacLeod offers the first in depth investigation into how Ethiopians perceive Rastafari and Rastafarians within Ethiopia and the role this unique immigrant community plays within Ethiopian society Rastafari are unusual among migrants basing their movements on spiritual rather than economic choices This volume offers those who study the movement a broader understanding of the implications of repatriation Taking the Ethiopian perspective into account it argues that migrant and diaspora identities are the products of negotiation and it illuminates the implications of this negotiation for concepts of citizenship as well as for our understandings of pan Africanism and south south migration Providing a rare look at migration to a non Western country this volume also fills a gap in the broader immigration studies literature

Religion and Law in Ethiopia Mohammed Abdo, 2021-05-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this convenient resource provides systematic information on how Ethiopia deals with the role religion plays or can play in society the legal status of religious communities and institutions and the legal interaction among religion culture education and media After a general introduction describing the social and historical background the book goes on to explain the legal framework in which religion is approached Coverage proceeds from the principle of religious freedom through the rights and contractual obligations of religious communities international transnational and regional law effects and the legal parameters affecting the influence of religion in politics and public life Also covered are legal positions on religion in such specific fields as church financing labour and employment and matrimonial and family law A clear and comprehensive overview of relevant legislation and legal doctrine make the book an invaluable reference source and very useful guide Succinct and practical this book will prove to be of great value to practitioners in the myriad instances where a law related religious interest arises in Ethiopia Academics and researchers will appreciate its value as a thorough but concise treatment of the legal aspects of diversity and multiculturalism in which religion plays such an important part

Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism Charles M.

Fombad,2016-03-03 The new series Stellenbosch Handbooks in African Constitutional Law will engage with contemporary issues of constitutionalism in Africa filling a notable gap in African comparative constitutional law Separation of Powers in African Constitutionalism is the first in the series examining one of the critical measures introduced by African constitutional designers in their attempts to entrench an ethos of constitutionalism on the continent Taking a critical look at the different ways in which attempts have been made to separate the different branches of government the Handbook examines the impact this is having on transparent and accountable governance Beginning with an overview of constitutionalism in Africa and the different influences on modern African constitutional developments it looks at the relationship between the legislature and the executive as well as the relationship between the judiciary and the political branches Despite differences in approaches between the different constitutional cultures that have influenced developments in Africa there remain common problems One of these problems is the constant friction in the relationship between the three branches and the resurgent threats of authoritarianism which clearly suggest that there remain serious problems in both constitutional design and implementation The book also studies the increasing role being played by independent constitutional institutions and how they complement the checks and balances associated with the traditional three branches of government

Language Policy in Ethiopia Mekonnen Alemu Gebre Yohannes,2021-02-18 This book examines the interplay and tensions between hegemonic and counter hegemonic language policy and processes in Tigray a regional state of Ethiopia in the period of pre and post 1991 Viewing language use and language policy as dynamic social and ideological processes the book presents Ethiopia as an example of language policy creation and implementation over time in a highly volatile political context The case of Ethiopia is unique in that different language policies and practices were put in place as the country s leaders changed through political takeovers Declared language policies were not always implemented and those implemented were often protested The book starts with an overview and review of language policy and planning followed by a chapter on the history of such planning in Ethiopia It then presents the methodology used for the study and examines the appropriation of hegemonic LPP patterns of resistance schools and public sites as centers of resistance and the emergence and development of specific patterns of language use in different regions of the country The book ends with recommendations for future research and draws the overall conclusion that since LPP is a dynamic and multilayered contextual process official or de facto language policy is often undermined by overt or covert unofficial language policies ideologies mechanisms and agents that result in different patterns of language use
