Adel Abdessemed L'Age D Or:

Adel Abdessemed: L'Age D'or Pierluigi Tazzi, 2014-10-31 L'Age D'Or is the new work of Algerian artist Adel Abdessemed born 1971 This gold cloth covered box set contains three volumes one volume of drawings a photography volume and an essays volume with four texts in English and Arabic Adel Abdessemed Adel Abdessemed, 2013 L'Âge D'or Pier Luigi Tazzi, 2013 Curating Under Pressure Janet Marstine, Svetlana Mintcheva, 2020-07-14 Curating Under Pressure breaks the silence surrounding curatorial self censorship and shows that it is both endemic to the practice and ubiquitous Contributors map the diverse forms such self censorship takes and offer creative strategies for negotiating curatorial integrity This is the first book to look at pressures to self censor and the curatorial responses to these pressures from a wide range of international perspectives The book offers examples of the many creative strategies that curators deploy to negotiate pressures to self censor and gives evidence of curators political acumen ethical sagacity and resilience over the long term It also challenges the assumption that self censorship is something to be avoided at all costs and suggests that a decision to self censor may sometimes be politically and ethically imperative Curating Under Pressure serves as a corrective to the assumption that censorship pressures render practitioners impotent It demonstrates that curatorial practice under pressure offers inspiring models of agency ingenuity and empowerment Curating Under Pressure is a highly original and intellectually ambitious volume and as such will be of great interest to students and academics in the areas of museum studies curatorial and gallery studies art history studio art and arts administration The book will also be an essential tool for museum practitioners Modernity and the Museum in the Arabian Peninsula Karen Exell, 2016-03-10 Modernity and the Museum in the Arabian Peninsula is dedicated to the recent and rapid high profile development of museums in the Arabian Peninsula focusing on the a number of the Arabian Peninsula states Bahrain Kuwait Oman Qatar and the UAE These Gulf states are dynamically involved in the establishment of museums to preserve and represent their distinct national culture and heritage as well as engaging in the regional and global art worlds through the construction of state of the art museums Alongside such developments is a rich world of collection and displaying material culture in homes and private museums that is little known to the outside world Museum Studies literature has struggled to keep pace with such developments and Modernity and the Museum in the Arabian Peninsula is the first book to coherently present a contemporary overview of the ever evolving landscape of museums and related heritage projects in the Arabian Peninsula a critical evaluation of the nature of these museum projects within the political and cultural conditions in the Arabian Peninsula suggestions for productive ways forward for museum developments in the Arabian Peninsula Museums Studies students and museum professionals now have a book that fills an important gap in the picture of the museum worldwide Contextualising this study in the history and politics of the region from a scholar working within the region this in depth overview and critical analysis of museums in the Arabian Peninsula stands alone as an entry into this important topic

Museums in Arabia Karen Exell, Sarina Wakefield, 2016-05-12 Museum activity has in recent years undergone major and rapid development in the Arabian Peninsula with the regeneration of existing museums as well as the establishment of new ones. Alongside such rapid expansion questions are inevitably raised as to the new challenges museums face in this region and whether the museum as a central focus of heritage preservation also runs the risk of overshadowing local forms of heritage performance and preservation. With contributions from leading academics from a range of disciplines and heritage practitioners with first hand experience of working in the region this volume addresses the issues and challenges facing museums in Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Yemen and the UAE. It focuses on the themes of politics, public engagement and the possibility of a new museum paradigm which might appropriately reflect the interests and culture of the region. The interdisciplinary approaches analyse museum development from both an inside and outside perspective suggesting that museums do not follow a uniform trajectory across the region but are embedded within each state's socio-cultural context, individual government agendas and political realities. Including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the Arabian Peninsula societies, this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of Gulf heritage and museology. It will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies, cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the Gulf and Middle East.

Adel Abdessemed Adel Abdessemed, 2007 This book looks at the behavior of individuals at risk, insurance industry decision makers and policy makers at the local, state and federal level involved in the selling, buying and regulating of insurance. It compares their actions to those predicted by benchmark models of choice derived from classical economic theory. Where actual choices stray from predictions the behavior is considered to be anomalous. Howard C. Kunreuther, Mark Pauly and Stacey McMorro attempt to understand why these anomalies sometimes occur and sometimes do not in many cases using insights from behavioral economics. The authors then consider if and how such behavioral anomalies could be modified to improve individual and social welfare. This book is in no way a defense of the insurance industry nor an attack on it. Neither is it a consumer guide to purchasing insurance although the authors believe that consumers will benefit from the insights it contains. Rather this book describes situations in which both public policy and the insurance industry's collective posture need to change. This may require incentives, rules and institutions to help reduce both inefficient and anomalous behavior thereby encouraging behavior that will improve individual and social welfare.

Representing the Nation Pamela Erskine-Loftus, Mariam Al-Mulla, Victoria Hightower, 2016-05-26 The 1970s saw the emergence and subsequent proliferation across the Arabian Peninsula of national museums, institutions aimed at creating social cohesion and affiliation to the state within a disparate population. Representing the Nation examines the wide ranging use of exhibitionary forms of national identity projection via consideration of their motivations, implications, current and future possible historical backgrounds, official and unofficial meanings and meanings for both the user, visitor and the multiple creators The book responds to due to the importance placed on tradition heritage and national identity across all the states of the Peninsula and the growth of re imagined and new museums the need for far greater discussion and research in these areas

L'âge D'or, 2013 L'âge d'or is the first solo exhibition by Adel Abdessemed at Mathaf Arab Museum of Modern Art Curated by Pier Luigi Tazzi this exhibition includes recent works and many are created especially for this show in Doha Publisher's website

Takedown Farah Nayeri, 2022-01-25 Farah Nayeri addresses the difficult questions plaguing the art world from the bad habits of Old Masters to the current grappling with identity politics For centuries art censorship has been a top down phenomenon kings popes and one party states decided what was considered obscene blasphemous or politically deviant in art Today censorship can also happen from the bottom up thanks to calls to action from organizers and social media campaigns Artists and artworks are routinely taken to task for their insensitivity In this new world order artists critics philanthropists galleries and museums alike are recalibrating their efforts to increase the visibility of marginalized voices and respond to the people's demands for better ethics in art But what should we the people do with this newfound power With exclusive interviews with Nan Goldin Sam Durant Faith Ringgold and others Nayeri tackles wide ranging issues including sex religion gender ethics animal rights and race By asking and answering questions such as Who gets to make art and who owns it How do we correct the inequities of the past What does authenticity exploitation and appropriation mean in art Takedown provides the necessary tools to navigate the art world
