Adis Kidan Amharic Bible:

Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 1991      The Traditional Interpretation of the Apocalypse of St John in the Ethiopian Orthodox Church Roger W. Cowley, 2014-11-13 The aim of this study is to describe the traditional Biblical and patristic Amharic commentary material of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church and to present in translation a sufficient sample of the Amharic and also the Geez commentary material that its character can be clearly seen Accordingly the study is divided into three parts a general introduction an annotated translation of a Geez commentary and an annotated translation of an Amharic commentary The book chosen for parts II and III is the Apocalypse of John      Ethiopia and the Horn of Africa Robert L. Hess, 1978      Traditional Ethiopian Exegesis of the Book of Psalms Kirsten Stoffregen-Pedersen, 1995      African Language Materials in the Boston University Libraries Boston University. Libraries, 1988      List of Titles Added to the Catalogue University of London. School of Oriental and African Studies. Library, 1984      Ethiopian Studies Stanislav Segert, András J. E. Bodrogligeti, 1983      Historical Catalogue of the Manuscripts of Bible House Library Maria Rosaria Falivene, Alan F. Jesson, 1982      The Covenant's Veil Alexandra Sellassie Antohin, 2024-12-03 An exploration of how contemporary Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity preserves and protects sacred ideas and relationships Ethiopia stretches her hand upon God the narrative of Sheba and Solomon the material presence of the Ark of the Covenant in Axum For Ethiopian Orthodox Christians these classic understandings of the covenant are prized narratives For historical and scriptural scholarship a central focus is to explain the characteristics of Ethiopian Orthodox Christianity as retaining key Old Testament qualities to demonstrate a wide chasm with post Enlightenment secular societies By widening the lens of analysis to include a body of knowledge best accessed through Orthodox Christian devotional culture The Covenant s Veil offers an interpretation that challenges the reader to adopt a novel understanding of these well established ideas The multiple complex ways that the covenant idea appears as ideas idioms customs symbols and articulations in the lifeworld of Ethiopian Orthodox are the starting point for The Covenant s Veil Ethiopia s story of the covenant is a domain of nested reference points that inspires celebrants through their devotional activities to expand and elaborate upon a network of meanings Covenant refractions within Ethiopian Orthodox devotional culture not only demonstrate the established pattern of magnifying spiritual importance through symbolic similes and analogic pairings but perform a vital function for keeping traditional knowledge alive and current Detailed ethnographic material arranges devotional activities such as mahaber rituals of communing and processions of tabots on feast days It describes habits of making vows presenting oneself at church and telling stories of saints and their covenants Thinking about the covenant concept as refracting the bending motion of points encountering a common surface is a way to conceive how these reference points reveal a connective thread what is theorized as an Ethiopian Orthodox method of elaboration Identifying when and where elaboration of tradition is happening provides an opportunity to demonstrate how Orthodox Christianity is integral to the lives and actions of its faithful By reframing covenant as expanding beyond Ethiopian religious and political exceptionalism The Covenant's Veil provides us with a timely reappraisal of this concept in light of increased social fragmentation and the urgency for negotiating harmony in a country with many forms of diversity Perception and Identity Seblewengel Daniel, 2019-10-14 Ethiopia is an icon of freedom and indigenous Christianity across Africa due to its historic independence ancient Christian identity and rich religious heritage However Ethiopia and its various Christian denominations have their own understandings of this identity and how these communities relate to one another In this detailed study Dr Seblewengel Daniel explores the perception and identity of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church and evangelical church in Ethiopia and examines the relations between the two Beginning with the earliest evangelical missionary engagement with the Orthodox church Dr Daniel skilfully uses historical and theological frameworks to explain the dynamics at play when approaching the relations over two centuries between these two churches and their respective communities Daniel ultimately emphasizes that what unites the Orthodox and evangelical church is greater than what divides namely an ancient faith in the triune God This important study urges both sides to place the Bible at the centre using it to understand their differences and challenges them to take responsibility for past negative perceptions in order to move forward together in greater unity and mutual respect Africana Catalogue of the Ibadan University Library, Ibadan, Nigeria University of Ibadan.
