African Parliamentary Reform Frederick Stapenhurst, Rasheed Draman, Andrew Imlach, Alexander Hamilton, Cindy Kroon, 2012-04-27 Some of the most far reaching and innovative parliamentary reform is occurring in Africa While these reforms are not yet widespread across the continent parliaments in some African countries are asserting their independence as policymakers as overseers of government and as the guardian of citizens rights and needs This book presents recent reforms in selected African parliaments Ghana Kenya Uganda Tanzania Rwanda Benin Zambia Ethiopia Liberia and Nigeria It also presents cross cutting innovations by African parliaments in fighting corruption in providing development to constituents and in combatting climate change Many of the chapters are authored by African MPs themselves making this a book by MPs for MPs as well as being of interest to students and scholars of African Politics and to those international institutions that support parliamentary development African Parliamentary Reform is a joint initiative by the World Bank Institute the Commonwealth Parliamentary Association and the Parliamentary Centre Africa Further Correspondence Relating to Proposed Political Reforms in the South African Republic...Presented to Both Houses of Parliament by Command of Her Majesty...1899 Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1899 The Palgrave Handbook of African Political Economy Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2020-06-23 This handbook constitutes a specialist single compendium that analyses African political economy in its theoretical historical and policy dimensions It emphasizes the uniqueness of African political economy within a global capitalist system that is ever changing and complex Chapters in the book discuss how domestic and international political economic forces have shaped and continue to shape development outcomes on the continent Contributors also provoke new thinking on theories and policies to better position the continent's economy to be a critical global force The uniqueness of the handbook lies in linking theory and praxis with the past future and various dimensions of the political economy of Africa Parliamentary Agency and Regional Integration in Europe and Beyond Bruno Theodoro

Luciano, 2021-08-17 This comparative book analyses the development of regional integration parliaments in three different continents of the world It assesses and compares the expansion and current stage of institutional development of three regional assemblies the European Parliament the Pan African Parliament and the Mercosur Parliament for Latin America Looking in particular at parliamentary agency it aims to answer why and to what extent these regional parliaments have developed differently in terms of their functions and legislative competences Drawing on new and original empirical data official documents and secondary literature the book focuses on the critical junctures in the trajectory of the three assemblies and argues that parliamentary agency has impacted the institutional development of the parliaments leading to diverse paths of regional parliamentarisation This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of global and regional governance comparative regionalism European Union studies legislative studies and more broadly to international relations history law political economy and international organisations African Parliaments Volume 1 Linda Khumalo, Candice Morkel, Caitlin Blaser Mapitsa, Hermine Engel, Aisha Jore Ali, 2021-11-23 Parliaments play a pivotal role in governance and yet little is known about how evidence is used for decision making in these complex political environments Together with its practice companion volume African Parliaments Systems of evidence in practice this volume explores the multiple roles legislatures play in governance the varied mandates and allegiances of elected representatives and what this means for evidence use Given the tensions in Africa around the relationships between democracy and development government and citizen agency this volume considers the theories around parliamentary evidence use and interrogates what they mean in the context of African governance The Oxford Handbook of the South African Economy Arkebe Oqubay, Fiona Tregenna, Imraan Valodia, 2021 This Handbook provides a detailed and wide ranging coverage of the key economic questions in South Africa concentrating on the more recent economic challenges facing the country China and African Parliaments Innocent Batsani-Ncube, 2025-05-12 China and African Parliaments maps the political controversies surrounding the designing making and utilisation of three parliament buildings in Southern Africa that were financed and constructed by the People's Republic of China China The book is the first to explore and explain the impact of China's expanding influence in African parliaments The financing of African parliament buildings is a new and tangible phenomenon around which to understand China Africa relations the evolution of African parliaments and policy relevant debates on contemporary representative politics in Africa topics all tackled in this book The book draws on eight months of mixed method fieldwork in Lesotho Malawi and Zimbabwe Data was collected through official access to all three buildings key informant interviews with political and civil society elites and focus group discussions with a cross section of ordinary citizens who live and work around the buildings The book makes two distinct contributions to the China Africa relations and African parliaments literature The first contribution is to advance a ground breaking argument that China's method of donating Parliament buildings to African countries indicates that it is targeting the institution as a site of long term influence The second contribution is to make a theoretical and comparative case to utilise discussion of the concept of African legislative institutionalisation through and in juxtaposition to these Chinese government funded parliament buildings Oxford Studies in African Politics and International Relations is a series for scholars and students working on African politics and International Relations and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on contemporary developments in African political science political economy and International Relations such as electoral politics democratization decentralization gender and political representation the political impact of natural resources the dynamics and consequences of conflict comparative political thought and the nature of the continent's engagement with the East and West Comparative and mixed methods work is particularly encouraged as is interdisciplinary research and work that considers ethical issues relating to the study of Africa Case studies are welcomed but should demonstrate the broader theoretical and empirical implications of the study and its wider relevance to contemporary debates The focus of the series is on sub Saharan Africa although proposals that explain how the region engages with North Africa and other parts of the world are of interest Series Editors Nic Cheeseman University of Birmingham Peace Medie University of Bristol and Ricardo Soares de Oliveira University of Oxford

Conflict and Peacebuilding in the African Great Lakes Region Kenneth Omeje, Tricia Redeker Hepner, 2013-06-19 Driven by genocide civil war political instabilities ethnic and pastoral hostilities the African Great Lakes Region primarily Uganda Rwanda Democratic Republic of the Congo and Burundi has been overwhelmingly defined by conflict Kenneth Omeje Tricia Redeker Hepner and an international group of scholars many from the Great Lakes region focus on the interlocking conflicts and efforts toward peace in this multidisciplinary volume These essays present a range of debates and perspectives on the history and politics of conflict highlighting the complex internal and external sources of both persistent tension and creative peacebuilding Taken together the essays illustrate that no single perspective or approach can adequately capture the dynamics of conflict or offer successful strategies for sustainable peace in the region

Turning Points in African Democracy Abdul Raufu Mustapha, Lindsay Whitfield, 2009 A team of scholars examine the radical political changes that have taken place since 1990 in eleven key countries in Africa Radical changes have taken place in Africa since 1990 What are the realities of these changes What significant differences have emerged between African countries What is the future for democracy in the continent The editors have chosen eleven key countries to provide enlightening comparisons and contrasts to stimulate discussion among students They have brought together a team of scholars who are actively working in the changing Africa of today Each chapter is structured around a framing event which defines the experience of democratisation The editors have provided an overview of the turning points in African politics They engage with debates on how to study and evaluate democracy in Africa such as the limits of elections They identify four major themes with which to examine similarities and divergences as well as to explain change and continuity in what happened in the past Abdul Raufu Mustapha is University Lecturer in African Politics at Queen Elizabeth House and Kirk Greene Fellow at St Antony's College University of Oxford Lindsay Whitfield is a Research Fellow at the Danish Institute of International Studies Copenhagen

Women in the South African Parliament Hannah Britton, 2010-10-01 Although the international press closely chronicled the dismantling of South Africa's apartheid policies it paid little attention to the unique role women from a variety of political parties played in establishing the new government Utilizing interviews participant observation and archival research Women in the South African Parliament tells an inspiring story of liberation showing how these women achieved electoral success learned to work with lifelong enemies and began to transform Parliament by creating more space for women's voices during a critical time in the life of their democracy Arguing from her detailed analysis of the strategies and political tactics used by these South

African women both individually and collectively Hannah Britton contends that contrary claims in earlier studies of the developing world mobilization by women prior to a transition to democracy can lead to gains after the transition including improvements in constitutional mandates party politics and representation At the same time Britton demonstrates that not even national leadership can ensure power for all women and that many who were elected to South Africa s first democratic parliament declined to run again feeling they could have a greater impact working in their own communities African

Parliaments M. Salih,2005-12-10 This book offers in depth analysis of parliamentary development set in a historical context informed by Africa s post 1990s democratic resurgence In particular it illustrates how African parliaments are caught between the twin processes of being part of the machinery of government while exercising the function of holding government accountable African Development Report 2005 The African Development Bank,2005-12-22 The African Development Report 2005 is the seventeenth annual survey of economic and social progress in Africa The Report provides comprehensive analysis of the state of the African economy examining development policy issues affecting the economic prospects of the continent The African Development Bank Group is a regional multilateral development finance institution the members of which are all of the 53 countries in Africa and 25 countries from Asia the Middle East Europe North and South America The purpose of the Bank is to further the economic development and social progress of African countries individually and collectively To this end the Bank promotes the investment of public and private capital for development primarily by providing loans and grants for projects and programs that contribute to poverty reduction and broad based sustainable development in Africa The non concessional operations of the Bank are financed from its ordinary capital resources In addition the Bank s soft window affiliates the African Development Fund and the Nigeria Trust Fund provide concessional financing to low income countries that are not able to sustain loans on market terms African State Governance A. Carl

LeVan,Joseph Olayinka Fashagba,Edward R. McMahon,2016-02-05 Africa is changing and it is easy to overlook how decentralization democratization and new forms of illiberalism have transformed federalism political parties and local politics Chapters on Kenya Nigeria Ethiopia and South Africa help fill an important gap in comparative institutional research about state and local politics in Africa Public Budgeting in African Nations Peter Fuseini Haruna,Shikha

Vyas-Doorgapersad,2016-04-14 Public Budgeting in African Nations aims to provide usable budgeting and fiscal policy management information to development practitioners interested in improving the performance of governments in the context of good governance It shares regional and cross cultural experiences with international audiences and gives reflective attention to comparative budgeting and fiscal policy management With a promising economic and fiscal forecast such information is timely for international development practitioners and for scholars and researchers interested in advancing development management This book adopts an interdisciplinary pragmatic approach to analyze and present research findings on public budgeting as a sustainable development tool The central argument is that development practice will benefit from a bottom up decentralized approach to budgeting and fiscal policy management involving national sub national and civil society institutions From this perspective a balanced budget should draw from and reflect values and priorities across the full spectrum of social and political life      Global Parliamentary Report Greg Power,2012

African's Life, 1745-1797 James Walvin,2000-05-01 The autobiography of Olaudah Equiano a prominent African in late 18th century Britain is quoted anthologized and interpreted in dozens of books and articles More than any single contemporary Equiano speaks for the fate of millions of Africans in the era of the transatlantic slave trade This study attempts to create a rounded portrait of the man behind the literary image and to study Equiano in the context of Atlantic slavery      Learning from West African Experiences in Security Sector Governance Alan Bryden,Fairlie

Chappuis,2015-11-05 Many efforts have been undertaken to address dysfunctional security sector governance in West Africa However security sector reform SSR has fallen short of radical transformational change to the fundamental structures of power and governance in the region Looking more closely at specific examples of SSR in six West African countries Learning from West African Experiences in Security Sector Governance explores both progress and reversals in efforts by national stakeholders and their international partners to positively influence security sector governance dynamics Written by eminent national experts based on their personal experiences of these reform contexts this study offers new insights and practical lessons that should inform processes to improve democratic security sector governance in West Africa and beyond      The Palgrave Handbook of Diplomatic Reform and Innovation Paul Webster Hare,Juan Luis Manfredi-Sánchez,Kenneth Weisbrode,2023-02-04 In this handbook a group of 40 scholars and practitioners from some 30 countries takes a critical look at the contemporary practice of diplomacy Many assume diplomacy evolves naturally and that state and non state actors are powerless to make significant changes But Diplomacy s methods its key institutions and conventions were agreed more than six decades ago None take account of the opportunities and vulnerabilities presented by the Internet Diplomacy is now a neglected global issue The COVID pandemic and the invasion of Ukraine have highlighted some of the problems of diplomatic dysfunction Beyond identifying current problems diplomacy is facing the book also seeks to identify some practical options for reform and innovation How might a process of reform be agreed and implemented What role might the United Nations regional organizations and Big Tech play How can new norms of diplomatic behavior and methods be established in a multipolar digital world where diplomacy is seen as less and less effective      Legislative Development in Africa Ken Ochieng' Opalo,2019-06-20 What explains contemporary variations in African legislative institutions including their strengths and weaknesses Compared with the more powerful executive branches legislatures throughout the continent have historically been classified as weak and largely inconsequential to policy making processes But as Ken Ochieng' Opalo suggests here African legislatures actually serve important roles and under certain conditions powerful and independent democratic legislatures can emerge from their autocratic foundations In this book Opalo examines the colonial origins of African legislatures as well as how postcolonial intra elite politics structured the processes of adapting inherited colonial legislatures to local political contexts and therefore continued legislative development Through case studies of Kenya and Zambia Opalo offers a comparative longitudinal study of the evolution of legislative strength and institutionalization as well as a regional survey of legislative development under colonial rule postcolonial autocratic single party rule and multiparty politics throughout Africa
