African Perspectives on Colonialism A. Adu Boahen, 1989-09 This history deals with the twenty year period between 1880 and 1900 when virtually all of Africa was seized and occupied by the Imperial Powers of Europe Eurocentric points of view have dominated the study of this era but in this book one of Africa's leading historians reinterprets the colonial experiences from the perspective of the colonized The Johns Hopkins Symposia in Comparative History are occasional volumes sponsored by the Department of History at the Johns Hopkins University and the Johns Hopkins University Press comprising original essays by leading scholars in the United States and other countries Each volume considers from a comparative perspective an important topic of current historical interest The present volume is the fifteenth Its preparation has been assisted by the James S Schouler Lecture Fund

African Perspectives on European Colonialism A. Adu Boahen, 2011 In this book one of the pioneers of twentieth century African history examines the perceptions and responses of Africans to European colonialism of the late nineteenth and early twentieth century This edition of Boahen's text originally published in 1989 is contextualized in a new foreword by John Lonsdale updating some of Boahen's findings and interpretations while maintaining that the best totally unambiguous legacy of this republication would surely be the inspiration of a new generation of African scholars locally based as clear minded and outspoken as Adu Boahen himself

Historical Memory and Commemoration in Africa Cassandra Mark-Thiesen, Moritz Mihatsch, Michelle Sikes, 2021-12-06

Essays in Memory of Jan Georg Deutsch The volume observes some of the principles that drove Prof Jan Georg Deutsch's research highlighting present day politics for the way they shape historical remembrance learning from people on the ground through fieldwork and oral history and bringing various parts of the African continent into discussion with one another From Cape Town to Charlottesville many societies are grappling with historical consciousness and the production of public memory In particular how and why societies remember and forget what should serve as symbols of collective memory and whether there exists space for multiple memory cultures are questions being vigorously debated once again These discussions present particular challenges not only to official memory bound to ideological constructions of nationhood but also to the teaching of history and its links to social justice movements The volume re-centres Africa and African history in memory studies with each chapter drawing parallels to comparable cases in Africa and the world An underlying assumption is that what can be learned from the politics of historical memory in Africa will have relevance for contemporary politics globally and for understanding how memories can be mobilised for political ends Muslim Interpreters in Colonial Senegal, 1850-1920

Tamba M'bayo, 2016-07-01 This book investigates the lives and careers of Muslim African interpreters employed by the French colonial administration in Saint Louis Senegal from the 1850s to the early 1920s It focuses on the lower and middle Senegal River valley in northern Senegal where the French concentrated most of their activities in West Africa during the nineteenth century The Muslim interpreters performed multiple roles as mediators military and expeditionary guides emissaries diplomatic hosts and treaty negotiators As cultural and political powerbrokers that straddled the colonial divide they were indispensable for French officials in their relations with African rulers and the local population As such a central concern of this book is the paradoxical and often contradictory roles the interpreters played in mediating between the French and Africans This book argues that the Muslim interpreters exemplified a paradox while serving the French administration they pursued their own interests and defended those of their local communities In doing so the interpreters strove to maintain some degree of autonomy Moreover this book contends that the interpreters occupied a vantage position as mediators to influence the construction of colonial discourse and knowledge because they channeled the flow of information between the French and the African population Thus Muslim interpreters had the capacity to shape power relations between the colonizers and the colonized in Senegal      Africa in Global History Toyin Falola, Mohammed Bashir Salau, 2021-12-06 This handbook places emphasis on modern contemporary times and offers relevant sophisticated and comprehensive overviews It aims to emphasize the religious economic political cultural and social connections between Africa and the rest of the world and features comparisons as well as an interdisciplinary approach in order to examine the place of Africa in global history This book makes an important contribution to the discussion on the place of Africa in the world and of the world in Africa An outstanding work of scholarship it powerfully demonstrates that Africa is not marginal to global concerns Its labor and resources have made our world and the continent deserves our respect Mukhtar Umar Bunza Professor of Social History Usmanu Danfodiyo University Sokoto and Commissioner for Higher Education Kebbi State Nigeria This is a deep plunge into the critical place of Africa in global history The handbook blends a rich set of important tapestries and analysis of the conceptual framework of African diaspora histories imperialism and globalization By foregrounding the authentic voices of African interpreters of transnational interactions and exchanges the Handbook demonstrates a genuine commitment to the promotion of decolonized and indigenous knowledge on African continent and its peoples Samuel Oloruntoba Visiting Research Professor Institute of African Studies Carleton University      Fighting for Britain David Killingray, 2012 Based mainly on oral evidence and soldiers letters tells the story of over half a million African troops who served with the British Army in campaigns in the Horn of Africa the Middle East Italy and Burma Looks at the impact of army life and travel on the men and their families and the role of ex servicemen in post war nationalist politics      Africa in Black Liberation Activism Tunde Adeleke, 2016-12-19 This book analyzes three of the most accomplished twentieth century black diaspora activists Malcolm X Stokely Carmichael and Walter Rodney All began their careers in the Diaspora and later turned toward Africa This became the foundation for developing and solidifying a global force that would advance the struggles of Africans and people of African descent in the Diaspora Adeleke explores this African centered discourse of resistance which informed the collective struggles of these activists The book illuminates shared attributes and differences presenting these men as unified by a struggle against and resistance to shared historical and cultural challenges      The King of Drinks Dmitri van den Bersselaar, 2007-10-30 Imported schnapps gin has a remarkable history in West Africa Gin was imported in great quantities between 1880 and World War I when its consumption showed access to the modern international world Subsequently schnapps was transformed into a good that signified traditional local culture Today imported schnapps has high status because of its importance for African ritual and as symbol of the status of chiefs and elders but actual consumption is limited This book explores this unexpected trajectory of commoditisation to investigate how imported goods acquire specific local meanings This analysis of consumption and marketing of gin contributes to our understanding of patterns of consumption rejection and appropriation within processes of identity formation elite formation and the redefinition of community in colonial and postcolonial West Africa      The Little African History Book - Black Africa from the Origins of Humanity to the
