After Ethnic Conflict Cvete Koneska,2014 Debating the End of Yugoslavia Florian Bieber,Armina Galijaš,2016-05-13 Countries rarely disappear off the map In the 20th century only a few countries shared this fate with Yugoslavia The dissolution of Yugoslavia led to the largest war in Europe since 1945 massive human rights violations and over 100 000 victims Debating the End of Yugoslavia is less an attempt to re write the dissolution of Yugoslavia or to provide a different narrative than to take stock and reflect on the scholarship to date New sources and data offer fresh avenues of research avoiding the passion of the moment that often characterized research published during the wars and provide contemporary perspectives on the dissolution The book outlines the state of the debate rather than focusing on controversies alone and maps how different scholarly communities have reflected on the dissolution of the country what arguments remain open in scholarly discourse and highlights new innovative paths to study the period Extraterritorial Citizenship in Postcommunist Europe Timofey Agarin,Ireneusz Pawel Karolewski,2015-09-29 What role does the protection of citizens abroad play in motivating states policies How does citizenship of non residents map onto domestic nation building projects And in what ways do extraterritorial citizenship issues differ from those related to diaspora and migration This volume develops a new analytical framework for emerging research on how states establish relationships with non resident citizens and resident non citizens It provides new insights on the changing relationship between states and the societies they govern particularly in light of the liberalization of the state institutions on the one hand and their approach to citizenship as a political resource on the other Examining a range of European states in the post communist region the book illustrates the complex geopolitical interests and interstate relations involved with these policy decisions whilst highlighting the relevance of similar issues around the globe Post-Soviet Conflict Potentials Cindy Wittke,2022-08-18 Instead of resurrecting old images and nourishing new narratives about a New Cold War Post Soviet Conflict Potentials features politically and legally oriented critical investigations into conflict potentials and dynamics in the post Soviet region and beyond Contributions coming from the disciplinary perspectives of international relations international law and comparative political science are linked to investigations dealing with international transnational regional and local levels of the dynamics between conflict and cooperation in the region Despite the diversity of perspectives the authors of this volume take a shared critical view on an alleged New Cold War as their point of departure observing that contemporary post Soviet conflict potentials are produced through various discursive practices ranging from intentional choices of belligerent language to unintentional misinterpretations The chapters in this volume seek to shed light on conflict potentials from different angles as well as on processes that increase or decrease the probability of political and violent conflicts in the post Soviet region Together the authors offer individual and shared outside the box approaches to the study of conflict dynamics and potentials in the post

Soviet space The book draws connections to conflict potentials on the cross regional and global levels providing varied perspectives on what can be learned in and from the post Soviet region The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies Ethnic Minorities and Politics in Post-Socialist Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, Marko Valenta, 2016-09-22 Southeast European politics cannot be understood without considering ethnic minorities This book is a comprehensive introduction to ethnic political parties Southeast European Security Albrecht Schnabel, 2001 Contents Southeastern Europe the unlikely security community Environmental security in Southeastern Europe a basis for regional co operation Russian in the Transcaucasus and Kosovo from insecurity to security provider Churches and in security providers in Southeastern Europe Bulgaria and the disintegration of Yugoslavia between ethnic affinity and international commitment regional implications of a failed transition to democracy the case of Serbia The internationalisation of conflict in the Transcaucasus and the former Yugoslavia The OSCE security model for the Balkans a viable model for the 21st century Lessons from UN Peacekeeping in Cyprus Srebrenica The failure and future of safe areas Conflict management in Southeastern Europe the use of force as a last resort The Georgian Abkhazian conflict failed realpolitik with moralistic justifications Rethinking the concept of peace building Bosnia and the lessons for Kosovo Kosovo and the international community Index Cultures of Democracy in Serbia and Bulgaria James Dawson, 2016-05-13 At a time when some EU member states are attracting attention for the rise to power of illiberal anti democratic political movements this book s analytical focus on ideas and identities helps explain why institutional progress is not necessarily reflected in the formation of liberal democratic publics Starting from the premise that citizens can only uphold the institutions of liberal democracy when they understand and identify with the principles enshrined in them the author applies normative public sphere theory to the analysis of political discourse and everyday discussion in Serbia and Bulgaria From this perspective the Serbian public sphere is observed to be more contested pluralist and at the margins liberal than that of Bulgaria Considering that Bulgaria has been a full EU member since 2007 while Serbia remains stuck in the waiting room it is argued that democratic cultures are not shaped by elite led drives to meet institutional criteria but rather by the spread of ideas through politics the media and the discussions of citizens Moving beyond the narrow focus on institutions that currently prevails in studies of democratization this book demonstrates the value of a more ethnographic and society oriented approach Football in Southeastern Europe John Hughson, Fiona Skillen, 2015-10-14 This volume draws together scholarship across a number of disciplines history sociology media and cultural studies political science Slavonic Studies to examine the significance of the sport of football within Southeastern Europe with an especial focus on countries of the former Yugoslavia The volume is timely as there is growing recognition inside and beyond the academy that football is a key cultural site in which the tensions within the region have and continue to be reflected Important issues such as resurgent nationalism ethno religious identity construction and collective masculine identity are played out in relation to the sport of football The papers within the volume explore these and other themes in detailed case studies that will be of interest to academics and policy makers concerned with wanting to know more about how football should be considered within agendas focused on reconciliation and a socially inclusive future This book was published as a special issue of Sport in Society

Stateness and Democratic Consolidation Filip Milačić, 2022-07-18 This book argues that the unresolved stateness in the republics of the former Yugoslavia played a key role in determining the course and dynamics of their turbulent democratic transition To support this claim the authors develop a series of causal mechanisms Subsequently they analyze to what extent these causal mechanisms could be applied to other cases like the one of Ukraine s democratization The book presents a theoretical framework as well as conclusions and arguments that are instrumental for the better understanding of the democratization process in general which could be useful for other countries to avoid the mistakes that were made in the cases of former Yugoslav republics It therefore is a must read for researchers and scholars of political science as well as practitioners and policy makers interested in a better understanding of democratization transformation processes nation building and stateness

Social Mobilization Beyond Ethnicity Chiara Milan, 2019-11-20 This book offers an in depth investigation of the emergence and spread of social mobilizations that transcend ethnicity in societies violently divided along ethno national lines Using Bosnia Herzegovina as a case study the book explores episodes of mobilization which have superseded ethno nationalist cleavages Bosnia Herzegovina emerged from the 1992 95 war brutally impoverished and deeply ethnically divided representing a critical and strategic case for the examination and understanding of the dynamics of mobilization in such divided societies Despite difficult circumstances for civic based collective action social mobilizations in the country have grown in size number and intensity in recent years Marked by citizen demand for accountable governance responsive urbanism and access to basic human rights these protests have been driven by economic social and political problems which cut across religious and ethnic divides Examining the variation in spatial and social scale of contention the book investigates movements formation their organizational structures and networking strategies and advances research on divided societies and social movements This volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of Southeastern Europe and those examining political dissent social movements and mobilization in divided societies as well as practitioners in civil society grassroots groups and political activists

Europe Péter Niedermüller, Bjarne Stoklund, 2001 At the beginning of a new millennium a new Europe is emerging but behind this imagination we have to face old problems and unsolved conflicts of our historical past The collapse of socialism in Eastern Europe led to decline and fall of the conceptual geography which was based on East vs West and has shown political social and cultural implications for both parts of the continent Political borders and blocks have disappeared but national ethnic cultural and social differences are all still at work In this book a number of leading European ethnologists investigate the complex process of the social cultural and symbolic constructions of Europe's new geography and shows how old lines of demarcation are revitalised how different cultural imaginations of Europe are politically instrumentalised and how political conflicts are being culturalised
