Navy, 1904 House of Commons - Committee of Public Accounts: Carrier Strike: The 2012 Reversion Decision - HC 113 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts, 2013-09-03 The Carrier strike u turn will cost the taxpayer at least 74 million When this programme got the green light in 2007 we were supposed to get two aircraft carriers available from 2016 and 2018 at a cost to the taxpayer of 3 65 billion We are now on course to spend 5 5 billion and have no aircraft carrier capability for nearly a decade The MOD rushed into a decision in the 2010 Strategic Defence and Security Review Just 18 months later they were forced to admit they had got it wrong and revert to the original choice of aircraft At the time of the SDSR the Department believed the cost of converting the carriers for the new aircraft would be between 500 million and 800 million By May 2012 it had realised that the true cost would be as high as 2 billion Officials also made basic errors such as forgetting to include the costs of VAT and inflation There are still concerns now According to current plans the early warning radar system essential for protecting the carrier will not be available for operation until 2022 two years after the first carrier and aircraft are delivered and initially operated And the MOD does not yet have the funding to replace the shipping needed to support the new carrier To avoid making the same mistakes again the MOD needs to start planning now

for the next SDSR in 2015 including making sure that this time it has the right information on which to base decisions

Popular Music, Cultural Politics and Music Education in China Wai-Chung Ho, 2016-12-08 While attention has been paid to various aspects of music education in China to date no single publication has systematically addressed the complex interplay of sociopolitical transformations underlying the development of popular music and music education in the multilevel culture of China Before the implementation of the new curriculum reforms in China at the beginning of the twenty first century there was neither Chinese nor Western popular music in textbook materials Popular culture had long been prohibited in school music education by China's strong revolutionary orientation which feared spiritual pollution by Western cultures However since the early twenty first century education reform has attempted to help students deal with experiences in their daily lives and has officially included learning the canon of popular music in the music curriculum In relation to this topic this book analyses how social transformation and cultural politics have affected community relations and the transmission of popular music through school music education Ho presents music and music education as sociopolitical constructions of nationalism and globalization Moreover how popular music is received in national and global contexts and how it affects the construction of social and musical meanings in school music education as well as the reformation of music education in mainland China is discussed Based on the perspectives of school music teachers and students the findings of the empirical studies in this book address the power and potential use of popular music in school music education as a producer and reproducer of cultural politics in the music curriculum in the mainland

Bad Therapy Abigail Shrier, 2024-02-27 From the author of Irreversible Damage an investigation into how mental health overdiagnosis is harming not helping children Apacey no holds barred attack on mental health professionals and parenting experts thought provoking Financial Times A message that parents teachers mental health professionals and policymakers need to hear New Statesman In virtually every way that can be measured Gen Z's mental health is worse than that of previous generations Youth suicide rates are climbing antidepressant prescriptions for children are common and the proliferation of mental health diagnoses has not helped the staggering number of kids who are lonely lost sad and fearful of growing up What's gone wrong In Bad Therapy bestselling investigative journalist Abigail Shrier argues that the problem isn't the kids it's the mental health experts Drawing on hundreds of interviews with child psychologists parents teachers and young people themselves Shrier explores the ways the mental health industry has transformed the way we teach treat discipline and even talk to our kids She reveals that most of the therapeutic approaches have serious side effects and few proven benefits for instance talk therapy can induce rumination trapping children in cycles of anxiety and depression while gentle parenting can encourage emotional turbulence even violence in children as they lash out desperate for an adult to be in charge Mental health care can be lifesaving when properly applied to children with severe needs but for the typical child the cure can be worse than the disease Bad Therapy is a must read for anyone questioning why our efforts to support our kids have backfired and what it will take for parents to
