

1. What is the first step in the accounting cycle?

Answer: The first step in the accounting cycle is to identify and analyze transactions and events that affect the financial statements.

2. What is the journalizing process?

Answer: The journalizing process is the process of recording transactions in a journal in chronological order, using debits and credits to indicate the effect on each account.

3. What is the purpose of posting?

Answer: The purpose of posting is to transfer the journal entries to the appropriate accounts in the general ledger.

4. What is a trial balance?

Answer: A trial balance is a list of all the accounts in the general ledger, along with their balances, used to ensure that the total debits equal the total credits.

5. What are adjusting entries and why are they necessary?

Answer: Adjusting entries are journal entries made at the end of an accounting period to ensure that revenues and expenses are properly matched and that the accounts are up to date. They are necessary to ensure the accuracy of the financial statements.

6. What is the purpose of an adjusted trial balance?

Answer: The purpose of an adjusted trial balance is to ensure that all adjusting entries have been properly recorded and to provide a starting point for preparing financial statements.
