Urban Food Marketing and Third World Rural Development T. Scarlett Epstein,2019-07-19 Originally published in 1982
This book explores the nature of food marketing in Third World countries Economic development invariably involves a transition from the traditional subsistence and or barter economics to increasing participation in cash transactions In many less developed countries this transition has been facilitated by enterprising middlemen who provide the link between dispersed small satellite producers and urban buyers In spite of these developments producer seller markets still operate in numerous countries particularly the newly independent Pacific island states and large parts of Africa and Asia This book examines the phenomenon of producer seller markets basing the study on the situation in New Guinea The author then uses this data to construct theoretical propositions for the marketing of various food items and examines the producer seller market arguing that the lack of inter regional economic interdependence is likely to promote secessional movements particularly in states where two or more ethnic groups exist Resources in Education ,2001-10 Research in

Union Catalog ,1982 From Servants of the Empire to Everyday Heroes Tobias Harper,2020-02-13 In the twentieth century the British Crown appointed around a hundred thousand people military and civilian in Britain and the British Empire to honours and titles For outsiders and sometimes recipients too these jumbles of letters are tantalizingly confusing OM MBE GCVO CH KB or CBE Throughout the century this system expanded to include different kinds of people while also shrinking in its imperial scope with the declining empire Through these dual processes this profoundly hierarchical system underwent a seemingly counter intuitive change it democratized Why and how did the British government change this system And how did its various publics respond to it This study addresses these questions directly by looking at the history of the honours system in the wider context of the major historical changes in Britain and the British Empire in the twentieth century In particular it looks at the evolution of this hierarchical deferential system amidst democratization and decolonization It focuses on the system s largest and most important components the Order of the British Empire the Knight Bachelor and the lower ranks of other Orders By creatively analysing the politics and administration of the system alongside popular responses to it in diaries letters newspapers and memoirs Tobias Harper shows the many different meanings that honours took on for the establishment dissidents and recipients He also shows the ways in which the system succeeded and failed to order and bring together divided societies

Mammals of the South-west Pacific Tyrone Lavery, Tim Flannery, 2023-06 Islands are special because they promote unique forms of life and large proportions of the species they hold are found nowhere else on Earth The mammals of the South west Pacific are no exception with many distributed only across single islands or archipelagos Mammals of the South west Pacific details the natural history for more than 180 species of marsupials bats and rodents from 24 Pacific nations and territories Species profiles are accompanied by distribution maps illustrations and photographs many being the first images ever captured for the species By combining available knowledge with unpublished data collected over years of field work Mammals of the South west Pacific forms a definitive guide to the mammals from this region
