Louisiana Health Report Card ,1999      Post Katrina Health Care United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations,2007      Post Katrina Health Care in the New Orleans Region United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Oversight and Investigations,2008      Tapping State Government Information Sources Lori L. Smith,Daniel C. Barkley,Daniel D. Cornwall,Eric W. Johnson,J. Louise Malcomb,2003-11-30 Each state government produces large varieties and quantities of useful information that are largely unknown outside their state of origin This book leads the public to the most useful information sources produced by each state as well as to depository libraries that will facilitate more effective research For each of the 50 states important publications are detailed along with information on how to obtain them The publications topics range from crime statistics to vital statistics business statistics health information statistical abstracts education directories state budgets economic indicators state laws and legal information and more Tapping State Government Information Sources has a broader focus than previously published books in this subject area most of which have focused solely on depository laws useful state publications or indexes to state publications This book covers all three The first chapter describes print and electronic sources that provide information about all 50 states Each state s resources are then described in individual chapters When possible information about how to order a copy of the source is given as are Web addresses for titles that are available online At the beginning of each state chapter the state s legal definition of public document or its equivalent is given which may be of interest to librarians in states that are reexamining their own depository laws

Louisiana Almanac ,2006      MEDINFO 2007 K.A. Kuhn,J.R. Warren,T.-Y. Leong,2007-08-02 The theme of Medinfo2007 is Building Sustainable Health Systems Particular foci are health challenges for the developing and developed world the social and political context of healthcare safe and effective healthcare and the difficult task of building and maintaining complex health information systems Sustainable health information systems are those that can meet today s needs without compromising the needs of future generations To build a global knowledge society there needs to be an increased cooperation between science and technology and access to high quality knowledge and information The papers presented are refereed and from all over the world They reflect the breadth and depth of the field of biomedical and health informatics covering topics such as health information systems knowledge and data management education standards consumer health and human factors emerging technologies sustainability organizational and economic issues genomics and image and signal processing As this volume carries such a wide collection it will be of great interest to anyone engaged in biomedical and health informatics research and application      ,      Race, Place, and Environmental Justice After Hurricane Katrina Robert D. Bullard,Beverly Wright,2010-06 On August 29 2005 Hurricane Katrina made landfall near New Orleans leaving death and destruction across the Louisiana Mississippi and Alabama Gulf Coast counties The lethargic and inept emergency response that followed exposed institutional flaws poor planning and false assumptions that are built into the emergency response and homeland security plans and programs Questions linger What went wrong Can it happen again Is our government equipped to plan for mitigate respond to and recover from natural and manmade disasters Can the public trust government response to be fair Does race matter Racial disparities exist in disaster response cleanup rebuilding reconstruction and recovery Race plays out in natural disaster survivors ability to rebuild replace infrastructure obtain loans and locate temporary and permanent housing Generally low income and people of color disaster victims spend more time in temporary housing shelters trailers mobile homes and hotels and are more vulnerable to permanent displacement Some temporary homes have not proved to be that temporary In exploring the geography of vulnerability this book asks why some communities get left behind economically spatially and physically before and after disasters strike An Introduction to Instructional Services in Academic Libraries Elizabeth Connor,2008-10-15 Unique in its expansive breadth and in depth approach An Introduction to Instructional Services in Academic Libraries explores the latest methods and ideas for fostering the academic success of students through planning delivering and evaluating effective instructional sessions for developing information literacy Anthropology and Public Health Robert A. Hahn,Marcia Claire Inhorn,2009 Anthropologists also work as evaluators examining the activities of public health institutions and the successes and failures of public health programs Vicksburg Campaign Trail, Feasibility Study ,2005 There is No Such Thing as a Natural Disaster Gregory Squires,Chester Hartman,2013-01-11 There is No Such Thing as a Natural Disaster is the first comprehensive critical book on the catastrophic impact of Hurricane Katrina on New Orleans The disaster will go down on record as one of the worst in American history not least because of the government s inept and cavalier response But it is also a huge story for other reasons the impact of the hurricane was uneven and race and class were deeply implicated in the unevenness Hartman and Squires assemble two dozen critical scholars and activists who present a multifaceted portrait of the social implications of the disaster The book covers the response to the disaster and the roles that race and class played its impact on housing and redevelopment the historical context of urban disasters in America and the future of economic development in the region It offers strategic guidance for key actors government agencies financial institutions neighbourhood organizations in efforts to rebuild shattered communities WorldMinds Donald G. Janelle,Barney Warf,Kathy Hansen,2004-03-31 WorldMinds provides broad exposure to a geography that is engaged with discovery interpretation and problem solving Its 100 succinct chapters demonstrate the theories methods and data used by geographers and address the challenges posed by issues such as globalization regional and ethnic conflict environmental hazards terrorism poverty and sustainable development Through its theoretical and practical applications we are reminded that the study of Geography informs policy making Cultural Food Practices Cynthia M. Goody,Lorena Drago,2010 Provides information on food practices for 15 cultures Each chapter focuses on a particular culture including such factors as diabetes risk factors traditional foods dishes and meal plans special holiday foods traditional health beliefs current food practices and more Culturally appropriate counselling recommendations are also discussed De Gruyter Handbook of Climate Migration and Climate Mobility Justice Andreas Neef,Natasha Pauli,Bukola Salami,2024-09-23 Accelerating climate change is widely predicted to have profound impacts on human mobility over the coming decades Climate mobilities and immobilities invoke issues of justice and social inequality and pose numerous socio cultural health economic legal and political challenges Current international legal frameworks and national governance mechanisms provide insufficient protection for people displaced by climate change who are often subjected to health risks psychosocial trauma human rights abuse and even new climatic risks At the same time there is a need to better understand how climate change interacts with other mobility drivers and why many climate affected people decide to stay put or remain trapped in at risk locations Drawing on a wide range of disciplinary traditions and featuring Indigenous voices and youth perspectives this book introduces new conceptual frameworks and empirical studies to examine the unique challenges facing people on the move and those staying behind The Prison School Lizbet Simmons,2016-11-22 Public schools across the nation have turned to the criminal justice system as a gold standard of discipline As public schools and offices of justice have become collaborators in punishment rates of African American suspension and expulsion have soared dropout rates have accelerated and prison populations have exploded Nowhere perhaps has the War on Crime been more influential in broadening racialized academic and socioeconomic disparity than in New Orleans Louisiana where in 2002 the criminal sheriff opened his own public school at the Orleans Parish Prison The Prison School as locals called it enrolled low income African American boys who had been removed from regular public schools because of nonviolent disciplinary offenses such as tardiness and insubordination By examining this school in the local and national context Lizbet Simmons shows how young black males are in the liminal state of losing educational affiliation while being caught in the net of correctional control In The Prison School she asks how schools and prisons became so intertwined What does this mean for students communities and a democratic society And how do we unravel the ties that bind the racialized realities of school failure and mass incarceration Food, Cuisine, and Cultural Competency for Culinary, Hospitality, and Nutrition Professionals Sari Edelstein,2011 Food Cuisine and Cultural Competency for Culinary Hospitality and Nutrition Professionals comprehensively covers unique food traditions as they apply to health The text explores the critical importance of cultural sensitivity and competency in today s work setting addresses health literacy issues of diverse client bases and helps readers identify customer communication techniques that enable professionals to establish trust with clients of ethnicity not their own Written and peer reviewed by experts in the culture discussed each chapter in this groundbreaking text covers a distinct region or culture and discusses the various contexts that contribute to nutrition and health lifestyles eating patterns ethnic foods menu planning communication verbal and non verbal and more This book is consistent with The American Dietetic Association s Cultural Competence Strategic Plan Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly,2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences      Quarterly bulletin, Louisiana State Department of Health. 1914-15 ,1914      Harvard Journal of African American Public Policy ,1999
