This book is the first to document the potential for non traditional industries to address the formal sector job creation that is critical for Africa to simultaneously harness its demographic dividend and achieve structural transformation In the face of premature deindustrialization many economists have voiced pessimism about Africa s ability to replicate past economic development models The book also documents the potential of an alternative economic development model for Africa based on industries without smokestacks Finally the book suggests practical policy solutions to realize the potential of these industries

Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich,Adri Sauerman,2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

Office of Census and Statistics,1918 New Model of Burn Out Syndrome Drozdstoj Stoyanov,2022-09-01 This book is based on our most recent investigations revealing the complexity of the determinants of burn out in different populations at risk health care professions teachers social workers etc Based on our empirical study we have developed a model of vulnerability to burn out which explains it as a specific complementary interaction between certain personality profile and the psychological climate at work place In the course of evaluation there have been employed different inventories which are now validated as an assessment battery in about 300 subjects Temperament and Character Inventory revised has been exclusively standardized for Bulgarian population as well Although burn out syndrome BOS is thoroughly discussed in modern literature the present proposal is unique in the following aspects It emphasizes the role of personality profiling understood as complementary construct to the dimensional measures of psychological climate In this way the authors challenge traditional views of BOS as systematic phenomenon This book aims at establishment of the vulnerability to BOS proneness as well as to revealing of the protective factors and therefore to underpin early diagnosis and prevention programs Our book brings together several perspectives the clinical psychological and psychopathological with the management perspective In this way it is most suitable for both general and specialized audience including health care managers and mental health professionals such as trainees in psychiatry This book consist of entirely original investigation of BOS in specific populations at risk with novel battery of assessment tools

The Atlas of African Affairs Ieuan L.I. Griffiths, 2013-06-17 The Atlas of African Affairs is divided into five sections dealing with environmental historical political and economic issues and with Southern Africa Throughout the book presents an interdisciplinary integrated perspective on African affairs Most of the chapters deal with continent wide themes and are illustrated by maps of Africa as a whole drawn to a standardised outline of the same map projection and scale Other chapters often by way of example discuss parts of the continent or individual countries and are illustrated with appropriate maps The basic format of integrated text and maps is supplemented by guides to further reading at the end of each section as well as a series of detailed statistical tables at the end of the book

Neoliberal Apartheid Andy Clarno, 2017-03-07 In recent years as peace between Israelis and Palestinians has remained cruelly elusive scholars and activists have increasingly turned to South African history and politics to make sense of the situation In the early 1990s both South Africa and Israel began negotiating with their colonized populations South Africans saw results the state was democratized and black South Africans gained formal legal equality

Palestinians on the other hand won neither freedom nor equality and today Israel remains a settler colonial state Despite these different outcomes the transitions of the last twenty years have produced surprisingly similar socioeconomic changes in both regions growing inequality racialized poverty and advanced strategies for securing the powerful and policing the racialized poor Neoliberal Apartheid explores this paradox through an analysis of de colonization and neoliberal racial capitalism After a decade of research in the Johannesburg and Jerusalem regions Andy Clarno presents here a detailed ethnographic study of the precariousness of the poor in Alexandra township the dynamics of colonization and enclosure in Bethlehem the growth of fortress suburbs and private security in Johannesburg and the regime of security coordination between the Israeli military and the Palestinian Authority in the West Bank The first comparative study of the changes in these two areas since the early 1990s the book addresses the limitations of liberation in South Africa highlights the impact of neoliberal restructuring in Palestine and argues that a new form of neoliberal apartheid has emerged in both contexts
