Learning to Teach in the Primary School Teresa Cremin, Cathy Burnett, 2018-03-14 How do you become an effective primary school teacher What do you need to be able to do What do you need to know Flexible effective and creative primary school teachers require subject knowledge an understanding of their pupils and how they learn a range of strategies for managing behaviour and organising environments for learning and the ability to respond to dynamic classroom situations The fourth edition of this bestselling textbook has been fully updated with the latest research and initiatives in the field as well as the most recent changes to the National Curriculum across the UK Twenty four new authors have contributed sharing their expertise and experience as practitioners Ten brand new units have been included on Becoming a professional in the current context Building inclusive communities of engaged learners Understanding schools aims and enacting your own Teaching for social justice Reading Grammar and punctuation Mastery in mathematics The value of outdoor learning Primary education in a digital age A selection of extra tasks have been woven throughout with an emphasis on innovative reflective practice and new vivid examples bring each chapter s argument to life in a classroom context In addition each chapter contains M level tasks and further reading to assist with research assignments and differences in the National Curriculum and policy in Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland are highlighted Providing a comprehensive but accessible introduction to teaching and learning in the primary school covering everything a trainee needs to know in order to gain QTS this accessible and engaging textbook is essential reading for all students training to be primary school teachers This textbook is supported by a free companion website with additional resources for instructors and students www.routledge.com/cw/Cremin and an accompanying series of books on Teaching Creatively across the curriculum Using Effectiveness Data for School Improvement Anthony Kelly, Christopher Downey, 2010-12-13 This book lifts the lid on a range of data gathering techniques and methods and reveals the provenance and shortcomings of education data collection and utilisation An Empirical Approach to Preparing Children for Starting School Karen Wickett, 2019-08-30 This book presents an exploration of the beliefs held by parents Early Childhood Education and Care ECEC practitioners and teachers and their relationships during children s transition to school This exploration was prompted by the author s observations that the relationships between ECEC practitioners and teachers became increasingly strained when the term school readiness was introduced to the EYFS Drawing on the findings of empirical research the book presents the four qualities of relationships between parents ECEC practitioners and teachers during children s transition to school Unlike many current texts this book extends the transition to include the phases of preparation and adjustment and explores how the qualities of relationships between parents ECEC practitioners and teachers can change throughout the phases of the transition The conceptual framework The Relational Transition to School is developed and is a useful tool for researchers and those working together to explore the qualities of relationships between those supporting children during a transition An Empirical Approach to Preparing Children for

Starting School will be of great interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the field of early childhood education as well as those training to be early years practitioners Education! Education! Education! Stephen Prickett, 2013-05-22 The essays in this book criticise the new positivism in education policy whereby education is systematically reduced to those things that can be measured by so called objective tests School curricula have been narrowed with an emphasis on measurable results in the 3 R s and the quality of university departments is now assessed by managerial exercises based on commercial audit practice As a result the traditional notion of liberal arts education has been replaced by utilitarian productivity indices The Times Index ,2007 Indexes the Times and its supplements
