The Really Practical Guide to Primary English Diana Bentley, 1999 This book contains clear chapter objectives suggestions for further reading on each topic and a glossary explaining key terms that the new or trainee teacher will need to understand The authors have all taught English in the primary setting are experienced teacher trainers and respected practitioners in their own specialist fields

Inclusive Educational Practice Teresa Grainger, Janet Tod, 2013-10-28 First Published in 2001 An inclusive education is one which seeks to respond to individual differences through an entitlement of all learners to common curricula Armstrong and Barton 2000 This book attempts to respond to this definition of inclusion by examining the principles of the literacy curriculum and a range of pedagogic practices The complex relationships between inclusion literacy and learning are acknowledged and it is argued that quality learning in language and literacy can work towards increased equity and involvement within the classroom community

Learning From Children Who Read at an Early Age Diana Hughes, Rhona Stainthorp, 2012-10-12 Based on research project which has attracted a great deal of attention and has been reported on at various conferences Practical approach to helping teachers on developing reading No other book on the market takes this approach

KS1 Magical SATs English Revision Guide Alison Head, 2008 Based on appealing magical characters this new Revision Guide captures pupils imaginations and motivates them to prepare for their KS1 English SATs It is specifically aimed at pupils working towards Level 2

The Learning and Teaching of Reading and Writing Naomi Flynn, Rhona Stainthorp, 2006-07-11 This book provides a unique description of teacher pupil interaction during the Literacy Hour in good schools It is based on detailed observations in inner city primary schools that were recognised as effective and improving The analysis is informed by contemporary research into the development and teaching of early literacy The book provides practice based examples of how teachers and schools might adapt their delivery for literacy as they move to greater creativity in their teaching of reading and writing The analysis begins within the classrooms of three expert Key Stage 1 teachers and broadens out in to the wider setting of the schools and their senior management teams An important theme running throughout the book is how the three teachers were able to make exceptional provision for their pupils who were largely second language speakers and from socio economically disadvantaged groups The teachers successful practice grew from their understanding of both early literacy development and planning for individual need The information in this book will enable student teachers recently qualified teachers and teachers interested in enhancing their literacy teaching to develop their practice in a similarly successful way

Raising Standards in Writing Ros Wilson, 2002

Sooner, Faster, Better Reading for All Diane Montgomery, 2023-10-05 Sutton Trust research showed that disadvantaged children were 11 5 months behind advantaged peers in reading by the end of their first year of primary education and never caught up By the time these students were completing their GCSE examinations they were 20 months behind This book provides a 7 point plan to change this so that all children including those with dyslexia can become readers by the end of

Year 1 and critical readers in secondary school The changes proposed are cost free in terms of both money and teachers time This book is for educators and their students early years teachers English teachers and Special Education Co ordinators SENCos in primary and secondary schools and in Further Education as well as reading researchers and policy makers Altogether the 7 point plan proposed in this book will improve reading fluency comprehension and subject attainments across the curriculum including mathematics Stimulating Story Writing! Simon Brownhill,2015-10-16 Stimulating Story Writing Inspiring Children aged 7 11 offers innovative and exciting ways to inspire children to want to create stories and develop their story writing skills This practical guide offers comprehensive and informed support for professionals to effectively engage child authors in stimulating story writing activity Packed full of story ideas resource suggestions and practical activities the book explores various ways professionals can help children to develop the six key elements of story these being character setting plot conflict resolution and ending All of the ideas in the book are designed to complement and enrich existing writing provision in classrooms with strategies such as role play the use of different technologies and using simple open ended resources as story stimuli Separated into two sections and with reference to the Key Stage 2 curricula this timely new text provides professionals with tried and tested strategies and ideas that can be used with immediate effect Chapters include Creating Characters The Plot Thickens Inspired Ideas Resourcing the Story Stimulation This timely new text is the perfect guide for inspiring children aged 7 11 in the classroom and will be an essential resource for teachers and students on teacher training courses Comprehension and Writing Pack Diana Bentley,Dee Reid,2002-09-27 This literacy programme for juniors offers fiction poetry and non fiction reading and writing materials for shared guided and group reading and writing and teaching materials Comets should capture the imagination of more able pupils and software integrates ICT with literacy teaching Primary English Curriculum Guide Christine Moorcroft,Ray Barker,2013-11-26 First Published in 2001 The purpose of this curriculum guide is to help student teachers and newly qualified teachers to make a start on learning how to become competent teachers of English Despite the emphasis given in training courses to the teaching of English newly qualified teachers often feel underprepared for it and frequently mention their concerns about this These concerns can be partly explained by a general lack of confidence in this key area and partly by widespread media and political criticism of the teaching of literacy It is also because it is often difficult for a student to make the connection between observation of key teaching strategies and his or her own personal practice Children's Reading of Film and Visual Literacy in the Primary Curriculum Jeannie Hill Bulman,2017-08-12 This book draws on a longitudinal study which highlights the beneficial impact of film in the primary curriculum It provides detailed accounts of both the reading process as understood within the field of literacy education and of film theory as it relates to issues such as narration genre and audience The book focuses on a small cohort of children to explore how progression in reading film develops throughout a child s time in Key Stage 2 it also examines how the skills and understanding required to read film can support the reading of print and vice versa in an asset model approach Since children's progression in reading film is found to be not necessarily age related but rather built on a period of experience and opportunity to read and or create moving image media Bulman clearly illustrates the importance of the inclusion of film in the primary curriculum The book provides an accessible study to a large audience of primary teachers and practitioners and will be a valuable resource for students and researchers in the fields of education English and media studies
