Shona Women in Zimbabwe--A Purchased People? John Chitakure, 2016-09-29 The position and treatment of women in every religion culture and society have been subjects of concern for a long time In every society women fight for their emancipation from exploitive and oppressive patriarchal structures The most contentious issues include domestic violence gender discrimination and inequality in the areas of employment leadership and marriage Domestic violence tops the list and is the worst enemy of any progressive and democratic society It dehumanizes disfigures and demeans its victims and survivors Shona Women in Zimbabwe a Purchased People explores the causes of domestic violence the cultural practice of bridewealth in particular and assesses the extent to which it contributes to the proliferation of domestic violence among the Shona people of Zimbabwe It then explores the Christian traditions particularly the Roman Catholic Church in search of resources that can be used to emancipate Shona women from patriarchal subjugation Finally the book offers a pastoral response that is informed by the experiences of the Shona women their cultural resources and the Roman Catholic religious tradition

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women s and girls lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religio cultural ideologies on the status of women In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move Furthermore chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes Contributing to ongoing scholarly debates on gender in Africa this book will be of interest to academics and students of Gender Studies Women s Studies African Studies Development Studies as well as advocates of human rights and gender activists

Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, Ezra Chitando, 2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women s sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women s SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030 Zimbabwe National Bibliography, 1986

Regime and Education in Zimbabwe Bekithemba Dube, Albert Mufanechiya, 2024-06-10 This collection focuses on the post independence educational development in Zimbabwe It shows how the ZANU PF regime has presided over the demise of education and covers a wide range of topics such as violence against teachers poor salaries student activism minority languages and curriculum innovations This volume argues that the regime has used education as a tool for repression Curriculum innovations introduced and implemented in Zimbabwe have little to do with improving the performance of the learners and more to do with stopping teachers from pushing the regime change agenda Consequently this has resulted in a nation in crisis marked with high turnover poor economy and mass exodus of teachers and learners The contributors to this volume make various suggestions which could recenter education towards addressing the experiences of the learners as opposed to being used as a tool to push repression and thwart democracy The Five-Factor Model of Personality Across Cultures

Robert R. McCrae, Juri Allik, 2012-12-06 ROBERT R MCCRAE it is simply personality research conducted in different countries The implicit assumption behind this practice is that personality processes are universal and where they are studied is thus of no consequence An insensitivity to cultural context once imputed mostly to Americans now appears to characterize the field worldwide Fortunately recent years have also seen a rise of interest in studies of personality and culture Church 2001 Church Lee McCauley McCrae 2000 What do these new studies show Are personality processes indeed universal or are there significant variations across cultures that necessitate a more nuanced approach to research There is as yet no definitive answer to that question In some respects human personality does seem to transcend the boundaries of language and culture in other respects it is profoundly influenced by social and historical forces Sorting these issues out must be a priority for our field if we are to understand the current personality literature Cultures, Chess & Art Ned Munger, 1996

Cultures of Change in Contemporary Zimbabwe Oliver Nyambi, Tendai Mangena, Gibson Ncube, 2021-11-04 This book investigates how culture reflects change in Zimbabwe focusing predominantly on Mnangagwa's 2017 coup but also uncovering deeper roots for how renewal and transition are conceived in the country Since Emmerson Mnangagwa ousted Robert Mugabe in 2017 he has been keen to define his Second Republic or New Dispensation with a rhetoric of change and a rejection of past political and economic cultures This multi and inter disciplinary volume looks to the social media language discourse theatre images political speeches and literary fiction and non fiction to see how they have reflected on this time of unprecedented upheaval The book argues that themes of self renewal stretch right back to the formative years of the ZANU PF and that despite the longevity of Mugabe's tenure the latest transition can be seen as part of a complex and protracted layering of postcolonial social economic and political changes Providing an innovative investigation of how political change in Zimbabwe is reflected on in cultural texts and products this book will be of interest to researchers across African history literature politics culture and post colonial studies Teacher in Zimbabwe, 2014 Vowel Epenthesis in Loanword Adaptation Christian Uffmann, 2012-02-14 While it is commonly assumed that languages epenthesize context free default vowels this book shows that in loanword adaptation several strategies are found which interact intricately Large loanword corpora in Shona Sranan Samoan and Kinyarwanda are analyzed statistically and the patterns are modeled in a version of Optimality Theory which introduces constraints on autosegmental representations The focus of this book is on English loans in Shona providing an in depth empirical and formal analysis of epenthesis in this language The analysis of additional languages allows for solid typological generalizations In addition a diachronic study of epenthesis in Sranan provides insight into how insertion patterns develop historically In all languages analyzed default epenthesis exists alongside vowel harmony and spreading from adjacent consonants While different languages prefer different strategies these strategies are subject to the same set of constraints however In spreading feature markedness plays an important role alongside sonority We suggest universal markedness scales which combine with constraints on autosegmental configurations to model the patterns found in individual languages and at the same time to constrain the range of possible crosslinguistic variation

Theatre from Rhodesia to Zimbabwe Samuel Ravengai, Owen Seda, 2021-07-06 The voices that are represented in this collection come from various parts of the world and express the views of practitioners and scholars who have all had first hand experience working in Zimbabwean theatre from the last days of Rhodesia to Zimbabwe The collection views the long continuum of developments in local theatre history as a case of the intrusive hegemonies that came with colonial Rhodesia as a conquest society and localised identities in the form of the persistence of indigenous and syncretic popular forms With time all these came together to constitute the makings of a contested post colony in contemporary theatre practice in Zimbabwe The primary interest of scholars who are represented here is located at the intersection of political cultural and performative discourses and the flow of Zimbabwean history The focus moreover is not only on the history of performance cultures in postcolonial Zimbabwe it extends its critical gaze to include the history of political ideas that gave rise to cultural contestation in the field of theatre and performance

Zimbabwean Transitions Mbongeni Z. Malaba, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2007 This collection of essays on Zimbabwean literature brings together studies of both Rhodesian and Zimbabwean literature spanning different languages and genres It charts the at times painful process of the evolution of Rhodesian Zimbabwean identities that was shaped by pre colonial colonial and post colonial realities The hybrid nature of the society emerges as different writers endeavour to make sense of their world Two essays focus on the literature of the white settler The first distils the essence of white settlers alienation from the Africa they purport to civilize revealing the delusional fixations of the racist mindset that permeates the discourse of the white man s burden in imperial narratives The second takes up the theme of alienation found in settler discourse showing how the collapse of the white supremacists dream when southern African countries gained independence left many settlers caught up in a profound identity crisis Four essays are devoted to Ndebele writing They focus on the praise poetry composed for kings Mzilikazi and Lobengula the preponderance of historical themes in Ndebele literature the dilemma that lies at the heart of the modern Ndebele identity and the fossilized views on gender roles found in the works of leading Ndebele novelists both female and male The essays on English language writing chart the predominantly negative view of women found in the fiction of Stanley Nyamfukudza assess the destabilization of masculine identities in post colonial Zimbabwe evaluate the complex vision of life and reality in Charles Mungoshi s short stories as exemplified in the tragic isolation of many of his protagonists and explore Dambudzo Marechera s obsession with isolated threatened individuals in his hitherto generally neglected dramas The development of Shona writing is surveyed in two articles the first traces its development from its origins as a colonial educational tool to the more critical works of the post 1980 independence phase the second turns the spotlight on written drama from 1968 when plays seemed divorced from the everyday realities of people s lives to more recent work which engages with corruption and the perversion of the moral order The volume also includes an illuminating interview with Irene Staunton the former publisher of Baobab Books and now of Weaver Press

Zimbabwe's Lost Decade Lloyd Sachikonye, 2012-04-24 Zimbabwe occupies a special place in African politics and international relations and has been the subject of intense debates over the years At independence in 1980 the country was better endowed than most in Africa and seemed poised for economic development and political pluralism The population was relatively well educated the industrial and agricultural bases were strong and levels of infrastructure were impressive However in less than two decades Zimbabwe was mired in a deep political and economic crisis Towards the end of its third decade of independence the economy had collapsed and the country had been transformed into a repressive state How can we make sense of this decline How can we explain the lost decade that followed Can the explanation be reduced to the authoritarian leadership of Robert Mugabe and role of ZANU PF Or was something defective about the institutions through which the state has exercised its authority Or was it the result of imperialism the West and sanctions Zimbabwe's Lost Decade draws on Lloyd Sachikonye's analyses of political developments over the past 25 years It offers a critique of leadership systems of governance and economic strategies and argues for democratic values and practices and more broad based participation in the development process

The Political Legacy of Colonialism in Zimbabwe Everisto Benyera, 2024-11-18 This book investigates the political legacy of colonialism in contemporary African institutions Using the case study of electoral and justice institutions in post colonial Zimbabwe the book explores how those in post colonial states relate to and with institutions initially designed to oppress them and remain structurally and systematically colonial The book argues that the colonial era colonised the land knowledge and minds of Africans resulting in injustice and epistemicides The book demonstrates how the critical institutions of elections and justice have been rendered anti black and toxic The book calls for Africa to invest in epistemic independence unencumbered by Western political modernity and then deploy that independence to build reconstituted institutions structures and systems that serve the interests of Africans This book will be an important read for African policymakers and researchers working on African politics governance and international relations Chihera in Zimbabwe Ezra

Chitando,Sophia Chirongoma,Munyaradzi Nyakudya,2023-02-27 Zimbabwean social media has been awash with images of a woman character spirit or concept called Chihera Traditionally a woman descending from the Mhofu Eland lineage totem is known as Chihera In the cumulative tradition of the Shona a Zimbabwean ethnic group Chihera is a fiercely independent assertive free spirited and no nonsense woman This volume seeks to deepen reflections on the Chihera phenomenon in the context of the search for gender justice in Zimbabwe and Africa The authors reflect on how this radical indigenous feminist ethic circulating on social media can animate the quest for Zimbabwean and African women s full liberation from patriarchy and all oppressive forces They grapple with the issue of generating culturally sensitive theories and approaches to galvanize the struggle for African women s liberation in post colonial settings Second they locate the Chihera mystique in the context of the practical struggle for women s empowerment Third the volume illustrates how the Chihera phenomenon could be utilized for gender justice in Zimbabwe and beyond Integral Ecology for a More Sustainable World Matthew

Eaton,Dennis O'Hara,Michael T. Ross,2019-10-25 Laudato Si insists on a revolutionary human response to the public challenges of our time concerning the ecological crisis The volume takes up the revolutionary spirit of Pope Francis and speaks to the economic technological political educational and religious changes needed to overcome the fragile relationships between humans and Earth This volume identifies various systemic factors that have produced the anthropogenic ecological crisis that threatens the planet and uses the ethical vision of Laudato Si to promote practical responses that foster fundamental changes in humanity s relationships with Earth and each other The essays address not only the immediate behavioral changes needed in individual human lives but also the deeper societal changes required if human communities are to live sustainable lives within Earth s integral ecology Thus this volume intentionally focuses on a plurality of cultural contexts and proposes solutions to problems encountered in a variety of global contexts Accordingly the contributors to this volume are scholars from a breadth of interdisciplinary and cultural backgrounds each exploring an ethical theme from the encyclical and proposing systemic changes to address deeply entrenched injustices Collectively their essays examine the social political economic gender scientific technological educational and spiritual challenges of our time as these relate to the ecological crisis UNICEF in Zimbabwe ,1996 Women's Labor in the Global Economy

Sharon Harley,2007-06-05 Globalization is not a new phenomenon women throughout the world have been dealing with the circumstances and consequences of an international economy long before the advent of the transnational corporate conglomerate However in a mercenary example of the tried cliché the more things change the more they stay the same women particularly those of color continue to be relegated to the lowest rung of the occupational ladder where their indispensable contributions to global market capitalism are downplayed or invalidated completely through the perpetuation of stereotypes and the denial of access to better job opportunities and resources How women of color around the world adapt and challenge the economic political and social effects of globalization is the subject of this broad minded and incisive anthology From Mexico Jamaica Ghana Zimbabwe and Sri Lanka to immigrant and non immigrant communities in the United States the women documented in these essays are agricultural and factory workers artists and entrepreneurs mothers and activists Their stories bear stark witness to how globalization continues to develop new sites and forms of exploitation while its apparent victims continue to be women men and children of color Festschrift Rufus H. Gouws Willem Botha, Paul Mavoungou, Dion Nkomo, 2013-06-01 The range of languages covered by the lexicographic investigations reported on e g Afrikaans English Northern Sotho Yilumbu Fang French and Dutch is a clear indication of the wide ranging influence of Rufus Gouws to whom the work is dedicated
