1988 I Want To Talk With The World:

Rebel Men Pamela Hunt, 2022-05-10 Masculinity fast changing and regularly declared to be in the throes of crisis is attracting more popular and scholarly debate in China than ever before At the same time Chinese literature since 1989 has been characterized as brimming with countercultural attitude This book probes the link between literary rebellion and manhood in China showing how as male writers critique the outcomes of decades of market reform they also ask the same question how best to be a man in the new postsocialist order In this first full length discussion of masculinity in post 1989 Chinese literature Pamela Hunt offers a detailed analysis of four contemporary authors in particular Zhu Wen Feng Tang Xu Zechen and Han Han In a series of insightful readings she explores how all four writers show the same preoccupation with the figure of the man on the edges of society Drawing on longstanding Chinese and global models of maverick as well as marginal masculinity and responding to a desire to retain a measure of masculine authority their characters all engage in forms of transgression that still rely heavily on heteronormative and patriarchal values Rebel Men argues that masculinity so often overlooked in literary analysis of contemporary China continues to be renegotiated debated and agonized over and is ultimately reconstructed as more powerful than before An exceptionally lucid elegant study of masculinity in mainland Chinese fiction of the 1990s and 2000s Both historically and theoretically informed Rebel Men Masculinity and Attitude in Postsocialist Chinese Literature offers a major new perspective on post 1989 Chinese counterculture Julia Lovell Birkbeck University of London

Common Worlds and Single Lives Verena Keck, 2020-08-20 In Pacific societies local knowledge which has been accumulated over thousands of years and is irreplaceable is rapidly disappearing With the extinction of languages the ability to observe and interpret the world from varying perspectives is also being lost At the same time an enormous body of knowledge about nature plants and animals is vanishing However in parallel with this the people of the Pacific are confronted with new modes of knowledge and newly introduced technologies through imported educational systems missions of various denominations and the media They do not passively assimilate this knowledge but adopt adapt and apply it in a syncretistic way These changes will have permanent effects on the individual lives of people in the region and their knowledge about themselves and their surrounding world This stimulating book tracks the course of these developments and offers revealing insights into the complexity of Pacific peoples responses to the process of globalization

Exploring Emotions, Aesthetics and Wellbeing in Science Education Research Alberto Bellocchi, Cassie Quigley, Kathrin Otrell-Cass, 2016-10-19 This book addresses new research directions focusing on the emotional and aesthetic nature of teaching and learning science informing more general insights about wellbeing It considers methodological traditions including those informed by philosophy sociology psychology and education and how they contribute to our understanding of science education In this collection the authors provide accounts of the underlying ontological epistemological methodological perspectives and theoretical assumptions that inform their work and that of others Each chapter provides a perspective on the study of emotion aesthetics or wellbeing using empirical examples or a discussion of existing literature to unpack the theoretical and philosophical traditions inherent in those works This volume offers a diverse range of approaches for anyone interested in researching emotions aesthetics or wellbeing It is ideal for research students who are confronted with a cosmos of research perspectives but also for established researchers in various disciplines with an interest in researching emotions affect aesthetics or wellbeing Violence, the Arts, and Willa Cather Joseph R.

Day,2022-05-02 Introduction to Family Processes Diverse Families Common Ties serves to provide an explanation of the complex workings of inner family life The text primarily focuses on family processes and dynamics the inside of families as opposed to sociological trends political topics or the individual psychological approach The text further presents the research underlying these processes and effectively presents ways to increase the positive aspects of family life This edition has been updated to include current research and contemporary topics The text has been divided into four parts Foundations Building and Establishing Families Maintaining Families and Change Turbulence Gains Losses While the research methods chapter still provides an introductory examination of family science research it now includes an expanded discussion on research design methods and advances in the area A new chapter titled Forgiveness Kindness Hope and Gratitude has been incorporated to amplify positive family processes and highlight emerging research This edition provides added emphasis on diverse families e g race ethnicity family structure LGBTQIA ability culture and family formation and each chapter includes a new Discussions in Diversity section related to that chapter The authors have consciously included an epilogue as a way of reflecting on what they have learned along with what they hope to learn in the future Aimed at courses related to family studies and family dynamics this text provides a comprehensive review of family processes Whether it is used for undergraduate or graduate classes professional growth or personal enrichment the text assists readers in enhancing the positive aspects of family life avoiding undesirable aspects and more effectively managing the challenges and obstacles families face that cannot be avoided Thus the text holds an appeal for people who live or will live in families as well as those who want to work with families

The Need for Revision David P. Owen, Jr., 2012-01-01 Can we have more teacher intellectuals in our classrooms This book demonstrates that we can But many things have to change before intellectual standards appear again in public schools David Owen attempts to show but not in outline form how we can revise our schools Can we escape the rut in which public education finds itself dominated by the inane tests the stifling reduction of school to job training and the insane transformation of a life affirming odyssey of the mind to cliché information gathering and slogans We can reclaim the beauty of an education if we join David and revise our classrooms Education is uncertain risky wonderfully adventurous yet schooling has become stale No tediously dreadful There is a need to revise Reject standardized tests Repeal pay for performance Eject No Child Left Behind before no child has a thoughtful mind left It is time to revise and David's book explains why Are we still interested in the mind soul and substance of the individual Does it matter who we are and become or just what we do If these questions still matter dwell carefully with David's ideas and transform yourself your students school community state nation and world It is time to revise them all John A Weaver Georgia Southern University
