Exalting God's Faithfulness Prof. Samuel C. Obi, 2018-10-31 Exalting God's Faithfulness is written to remind Christians the meaning, importance, and implications of God's faithfulness. It seeks to sensitize and transform the Christian from living a rather dull, flat, and unappreciative life into thriving in a life of joyful appreciation, exuberance, and jubilation for God's role in our lives. David said in Psalm 108:5, "Be exalted, O God, above the heavens; let your glory be over all the earth." He recognized all through his life the importance of praising God in everything Exalting God's Faithfulness is really living a life in a way that gives thanks to God for his goodness to us Chapter 1 introduces readers to God's faithfulness and explains the meanings and ramifications of the act of exalting God for his faithfulness Chapter 2 discusses God's faithfulness as our creator father and keeper God's expressions of his faithfulness as our provider are discussed in chapter 3 Chapter 4 delves into the expressions of God as our helper and enabler The expressions of God as our forgiver and healer are discussed in chapter 5 Chapter 6 discusses how we should exalt God Chapter 7 is designed to introduce non Christians to the kingdom of God

The Rhetoric of Abraham's Faith in Romans 4 Andrew Kimseng Tan, 2018-04-20 Explore Romans 4 from a sociorhetorical perspective Andrew Kimseng Tan examines Romans using sociorhetorical interpretation to determine how Paul attempted to alleviate dissension between Judean or Jewish and non Judean or gentile Christians Through his analysis of Paul's rhetoric Tan reveals that Paul used Abraham's faith in Genesis to demonstrate that the both groups were equally children and heirs of Abraham whose acceptance by God was through the same kind of faith that Abraham possessed not through the Mosaic law which Judean Christians claimed gave them a special honored status with God Features A model for the application of sociorhetorical interpretation for analyzing close readings of biblical texts A demonstration of the persuasive power of Romans 4 through the use of sociorhetorical interpretation Exploration of the relationships between important theological topics such as resurrection the Mosaic law the Holy Spirit righteousness ethical living and eschatological salvation

Faith with Reason Paul Helm, 2000 Paul Helm presents a new study of the nature of religious faith investigating what makes it reasonable Religious belief needs to meet and sustain philosophical scrutiny just as any other type of belief does nothing about religion purchases immunity from this But at the same time religious epistemology must also respect the contours of religion the distinctiveness of the subject matter of religious belief Helm looks sympathetically at two currently prominent ways of defending the rationality of religious belief Reformed epistemology and the cumulative case for theism He argues that the reasonableness of faith depends not only on beliefs about the world but also on beliefs about oneself for instance about what one wants about one's hopes and fears and on what one is willing to trust Helm goes on to look at the relations between belief and trust and between faith and virtue and concludes with an exploration of one particular type of belief about oneself the belief that one is oneself a believer This is a book for anyone interested in the basis of religious faith The Ethnographic Character of Romans Susann M. Liubinskas,2019-02-05 In this work Susann Liubinskas provides a coherent reading of Paul s letter to the Romans in light of ancient ethnography Paul like his contemporaries harnesses the apologetic power of this genre in order to fortify the members of the Roman house churches to maintain their distinctiveness by arguing for the historical legitimacy of the Christ movement s laws customs and way of life When the law faith dichotomy is considered within the larger context of Paul s ethnic discourse its primary function as the means by which Paul draws lines of continuity and discontinuity between the Christ movement and its venerable Jewish roots comes to light Rather than viewing Paul as dealing with two different religions we see Paul working to position believing Jews and Gentiles in relationship to Israel s history with God particularly as its finds its climax in Jesus Christ Thus Paul utilizes the law faith dichotomy not to describe two paths of salvation but to redefine the people of God in the new age as ethnically inclusive *The New Evangelical Family Bible; Or, a Complete Paraphrase, Exposition, and Commentary on the Holy Scriptures ... with Copious Notes ...
