students interested in using participatory research to improve people's health and well-being. It is especially designed for those working in the fields of health and social welfare who are embarking on participatory research for the first time. It covers all phases in participatory research from getting started to acting for change, continuing the journey and articulating impact. Its unique format helps readers understand the essence of participatory research as a comprehensive approach for doing research which is underpinned by a set of fundamental values. The many real-life examples of participatory research projects from around the world inspire readers to find creative ways to manage their own research while opening up new horizons in their work.

Social Work and Social Welfare Vithya Murugan, Marla Berg-Weger, 2022-06-19. Social Work and Social Welfare: An Invitation is a best-selling text and website for introductory courses in social work. It provides students with the knowledge, skills, and values that are essential for working with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities in a variety of practice settings. The sixth edition has been updated to reflect the contemporary world in which today's social workers practice, with current demographic, statistical, legislative, policy, and research information; sensitive discussions of ethical dilemmas; and fresh profiles of social workers with first-person narratives to demonstrate the dynamic field. Students will be joining To address the dramatic changes in the world in which social workers practice since the fifth edition was released, we have revised and added content: Centering diversity, equity, and inclusion to elevate anti-racist and anti-oppressive practice; including a critical review of our profession's history; Demonstrating how the COVID-19 pandemic exposed and intensified inequities, as well as ways in which social workers responded to the needs of their clients, organizations, and communities; Updating language to reflect commitment to and respect for inclusivity, gender identity, and non-gendered identities. The content in this text is supported by a range of fully updated instructor-led and student resources that are available on its companion website www.routledgesw.com. Assignments, exercises, and readings that help instructors and students apply the concepts and theories the textbook reviews may be found there, as well as extensive interactive case studies to engage students in some of society's most challenging issues.

Sub-Saharan Africa Oliver Mutanga, 2023-11-03. This book uses Ubuntu philosophy to illuminate the voices of people with disabilities from Sub-Saharan Africa. Disability literature is largely dominated by scholars and studies from the Global North, and these studies are largely informed by Global North theories and concepts. Although disability literature in the Global South is now fast-growing, most studies continue to utilise conceptual, theoretical, and philosophical frameworks that are framed within Global North contexts. This presents two major challenges. Firstly, the voices of people with disabilities in the Global South remain on the fringes of disability discourses. Secondly, when their voices are heard, their realities are distorted. This edited book, consisting of 11 chapters, provides case studies from Botswana, Ghana, Lesotho, Uganda, and South Africa, exploring disability in various fields: Inclusive education, higher education environment, Open Distance Learning, and Technical and Vocational Education and Technical Colleges. The book contributes to the ways in which disability is understood and experienced in the Global South thereby challenging the Western hegemonic discourses on disability This collection of contributions will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies development studies medical sociology and African studies     The Routledge International Handbook of Multidisciplinary Perspectives on Character Development, Volume I Michael D. Terjesen, Kristene A. Doyle, 2022-10-25 This book presents a new approach to understanding the history and practice of cognitive behavior therapy by presenting country profiles in 38 countries located around the world. The objectives of this edited volume are to provide a broad understanding of the practice of CBT internationally as well as country-specific practices that will provide researchers and practitioners with important information for consideration in the application of CBT. The book begins with an introductory chapter by the editors that discusses the history of CBT and the efforts to globalize and disseminate the science and practice of CBT as well as the unique cultural and international variables. The subsequent chapters offer detailed country profiles of the history and practice of CBT from around the globe. More specifically, chapters will provide an overview of the country's history of psychotherapy, current regulations regarding psychotherapy provision, professional and cognitive behavior therapy organizations, training opportunities, programs in CBT, populations most frequently worked with using CBT in the country, the use and adaptation of CBT, the research on CBT in the country, and CBT with special populations: children, immigrants, HIV, etc. Many of the nations represented are the most populous and influential ones in their respective regions where CBT has been incorporated into psychotherapy training and practice. Taken as a whole, the countries are quite diverse in terms of sociocultural, economic, and political conditions, and the impact of these variables on the practice of CBT in the country will be discussed. The final chapter of the volume offers a summary of the patterns of practice, integrating the main findings and challenges and discussing them within a global context. A discussion of the vision for next steps in the globalization of CBT concludes the book.

Translational Cardiology Jeffrey A. Bakal, Michael Gibson, Adam E.M. Eltorai, 2025-02-01 Translational Cardiology provides a cardiology-specific instructional guide to translational medical research that will serve as a practical step-by-step roadmap for taking a biomedical device, potential therapeutic agent, or research question from idea through demonstrated clinical benefit. Fundamentally, the volume aims to help bridge the gap between current research and practice. Written by a team of expert medical, biomedical engineering, and clinical research experts in cardiology, this book provides a clear process for understanding, designing, executing, and analyzing clinical and translational research. Focuses on translational cardiovascular research, covering the principles of evidence-based medicine and applies these principles to the design of translational investigations. Provides a practical, straightforward approach that will help aspiring cardiovascular researchers navigate challenging considerations in study design and implementation. Details valuable discussions of the critical appraisal of published studies in cardiology, allowing the reader to learn how to evaluate the quality of such studies with respect to measuring outcomes and to make effective use of all types of evidence in patient care. Learning from Case Studies in

Chaplaincy Martijn Stoutjesdijk, 2020-12-01 The recent production of case studies in chaplaincy care combines the narrative nature of chaplaincy with the rigors of research demanded in contemporary care settings. The contributions in this volume from both practitioners and academic researchers join reflections on the challenges and promises of case study research in chaplaincy care with the results of specific case studies Based on reflections on methodology and professionalization in chaplaincy the volume hopes to contribute to answering the question of how and why chaplaincy works As such the book aims for a wide readership of scholars chaplains and policy makers Learning from Case Studies originated from the first international conference on case study research in chaplaincy care that was held in Amsterdam in 2019 This book is a valuable Western European contribution to the international emerging field of chaplaincy research Prof dr Anne Vandenhoeck Director of the European Research Institute for Chaplains in Health Care KU Leuven Belgium This significant book represents a step change in research into effective chaplaincy practice Building on previous work led by Fitchett and Nolan chaplains and academics offer new case studies but also develop this critically reflective approach together Chapters on methodology show how case studies especially when analysed comparatively provide important evidence for how and why chaplaincy works Rev Dr Andrew Todd Director of the Professional Doctorate in Practical Theology Anglia Ruskin University England At the heart of chaplaincy are stories and this collection combines reverence for the stories themselves alongside a critical exploration of how these cases engage with the important issues of our times what it means to be a profession and to have a professional identity and the need for research that recognises the integral relationship between practice and evidence This book provides a significant contribution to the current conversations in the spiritual care field Cheryl Holmes OAM CEO Spiritual Health Association Australia
