Above All Earthly Powers Christ In A Postmodern World:

Above All Earthly Powers David F. Wells, 2006-08 In this prophetic call to the evangelical church Wells stresses that Christians need to confess Christ as the center in a society lacking a center as the sovereign in a world seemingly ruled by chance and as the one who can give meaning in a nihilistic culture

The Theology of Dallas Willard Gary Black Jr., 2013-08-06 Evangelical Christianity in the United States is currently in a dramatic state of change Yet amidst this sometimes tumultuous religious environment a rather unique blend of both ancient and contemporary Christian theology has found its way into the hearts and minds of emerging generations of Christians The Theology of Dallas Willard both describes and conveys the essence of this increasingly popular and perhaps mediating view of the gospel of Jesus Christ Blending both a prophetic critique with pastoral encouragement Willard's unique understanding of the reality present within a life lived as a disciple of Jesus in the kingdom of God is attracting both new and traditional Christians to reconsider their faith

Rebels with Insufficient Cause J. M. Sparrow, 2018-09-19 Why are Americans of African descent as a group not flourishing like other racial groups in America Dr J M Sparrow in Rebels with Insufficient Cause proposes that value formation through the biblical model of the family is lacking The secular world is redefining and reinterpreting the social structures that God created in order for humans to enjoy maximum human flourishing Every person or social group that chooses to ignore God's designs for humanity will experience chaos but every person and social group that submits to God's designs for humanity will experience order Americans of African descent are experiencing that chaos in greater measure than any other racial group Since this book holds to a biblical worldview that teaches that all humans are created equal Americans of African descent are not inherently more debased than other races However since the out of wedlock birth rate is astronomically higher in black communities than in others they are experiencing a greater share of the chaos Yet all is not lost When Americans of African descent begin to hold up the truths of the Bible as normative and encourage future generations to practice the same things will begin to turn around Americans of African descent must choose to reject the victim mentality see themselves as part of the larger American culture rather than as outsiders and inculcate biblical values on their children in the midst of loving supportive and God honoring family units

A Heart for God's Glory Lee Botzet, 2007 A Heart for God's Glory The Revival of a God centered Faith in a Self centered World is a personal journey and a biblical theological historical study regarding the urgent need to recover our divinely created purpose to glorify God by passionately loving Him and finding our greatest satisfaction in Him

The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies

special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students

The Oxford Handbook of Evangelical Theology Gerald McDermott, 2010 Evangelical theology is a burgeoning field This volume surveys the state of the discipline on topics of greatest importance to evangelical theology Each chapter has been written by a theologian or scholar who is widely recognized for his or her published work and is considered a leading thinker on that topic

The Jesus Gospel Liam Goligher, 2006 Recently much has been written on Atonement theory that would suggest that the Christian message could be re interpreted for post modern times While the desire to communicate with the new generation is well intended we must not stray from the gospel writers The Jesus Gospel reminds its readers of the original intent of God s Word and directs our attention back to the original passages dealing with this important and timeless issue

The Surprising Work of God Garth M. Rosell, 2020-03-18 The Surprising Work of God tells the story of how America s mid twentieth century spiritual awakening became a worldwide Christian movement This seminal study brings a unique perspective to the history personalities and institutions of that period and offers an intimate look at evangelicalism through the window of the life ministry and writings of Harold John Ockenga and his long friendship with Billy Graham Ockenga was pastor of the historic Park Street Congregational Church in Boston and cofounder of Fuller Theological Seminary Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary the National Association of Evangelicals and Christianity Today As such he was a central figure in the birth and development of American neo evangelicalism This lively engaging story will be of value to anyone with an interest in the American church of the last century Jesus Made in America Stephen J. Nichols,2010 Jesus is as American as baseball and apple pie But how this came to be is a complex story one that Stephen Nichols tells with care and ease Beginning with the Puritans he leads readers through the various cultural epochs of American history showing at each stage how American notions of Jesus were shaped by the cultural sensibilities of the The Historical Problem with Creeds Kenneth G. Arndt,2018-05-22 This short book deals with the debate among Christians about the timing of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ There are several viewpoints on this topic each with its defenders Is Christ coming again in the future and in what sequence of events will that happen Or did the Second Coming of Christ happen in the past as some scriptures seem to say when it describes the time as quickly The creeds have not really dealt with this issue in any definitive statement other than to say he is coming again All Christians believe that there will be a final coming in judgment to sum up human history The authority for Christians on this issue is the Bible the Word of God The two viewpoints dealt with in this book are preterist in the past and futurist in the future While not an extended support of either position although the author is a preterist by conviction this book speaks out against the futurist writers identifying a preterist as a heretic Often relying on the creeds there is a lack of historical scholarship on just how the creeds were constructed In the view of the author a preterist even if mistaken does not hold to a belief or reading of the scripture that rises to the level of heresy The attacks against preterists are unwarranted unkind and unworthy of Christian scholarship The Power of the Church Michael R. Wagenman,2020-11-20 It is fascinating that in all the media reports and discussions of the church s abuse of power in the early years of the twenty first century few if any seemed to notice that the accusation of the church s misuse of power presupposed a shared understanding of the positive use of power within the church that had been violated Rather than an interest in the sociological aspect of this question this book examines the more ontological and normative aspects of it That is it investigates and discerns the foundational theological framework of culture and society and the location and purpose of the church within them As a cultural force and societal institution what does the church constructively bring to the human community Renewing the Evangelical Mission Richard Lints,2013-05-26 The culture story of evangelicalism during the second half of the twentieth century has been well told It is important now to think about the theological mission of the church in an ever increasing post Christian and post partisan context What is the theologian s calling at the beginning of the third millennium How do global realities impact the mission of evangelical theology What sense can be made of the unity of evangelical theology in light of its many diverse voices Contributors Os Guinness Michael S Horton Richard Lints Bruce McCormack Mark Noll J I Packer Gary Parrett Rodney Peterson Cornelius Plantinga Tite Tienou Kevin J Vanhoozer Adonis Vidu and Miroslav Volf Renewing Minds David S. Dockery,2008-04-15 Renewing Minds encourages readers to better serve God the church and society by taking part in or supporting Christian higher education An Uncommon Union John

D. Hannah, 2009 This insightful history explores the stereotype of Dallas Theological Seminary as an anti intellectual stronghold of fundamentalism and dispensational premillennialism The tenures of the school s five presidents reveal the tensions that DTS a blend of differing heritages and of opposing traditions has experienced amid changes in American religious and cultural life Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God John Jefferson Davis, 2015-07-13 Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God presents a new paradigm for church ministry one that is based on fundamental truths of the Christian faith such as the Trinity union with Christ and the already presence of the Holy Spirit in the church This new paradigm can help busy pastors avoid burnout in the ministry and model Trinitarian New Testament patterns of ministry to their people Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God reflects the best of recent New Testament scholarship sensitivity to the contexts of globalized postmodern cultures dominated by digital media and practical applications for Christian life discipleship worship and mission

Great Commission, Great Confusion, or Great Confession? Lucas V. Woodford, 2012-04-26 There is a great debate going on in the church today It centers on one question What is the mission of the church From culturally relevant emerging congregations to strategic methods of organization and outreach many claim they have the answer They say the mission must become missional Yet the churches of North America continue to struggle Uncertainty is growing What does it really mean to be missional Competing claims abound Get the message out Get the message right Great confusion has set in particularly in the postmodern North American church The Gospel is getting lost Yet throughout the ages the creedal confession of the Holy Christian Church has carried her through uncertainty and struggle The Apostles Creed has steadied and stayed the mission of the church for centuries It centers on the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the work of the Holy Spirit the communion of saints the forgiveness of sins the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting This book celebrates the historic mission of the Holy Christian Church and it invites the North American church to do the same

Science and Theology James K. Dew, 2011-01-17 Alister McGrath s work on the relationship between Science and Theology makes the most notable contribution to the subject written by an evangelical in recent history McGrath holds earned doctorates in both science and theology and his three volume set A Scientific Theology is the culmination of three decades of his work on the subject In this book James K Dew explores McGrath s contribution to the issue and highlights the benefits of adopting a critical realist perspective such as his own In particular Dew argues that McGrath s approach helps establish a unified theory of knowledge and holds significant advantages for scientists and theologians alike

From Biblical Criticism to Biblical Faith William H. Brackney, Craig A. Evans, 2007 From Biblical Criticism to Biblical Faith offers cutting edge essays in the three discipline areas of theological education History and Exegesis Canon and Theology and Christian Life and Ministry

The Drama of Preaching Eric B. Watkins, 2017-02-16 Preaching is dramatic Through it we hear the voice of the living God as he speaks to us both through the reading and the preaching of the word of God But where do the hearers of sermons fit into the drama This book suggests ways in which the drama metaphor may help to address age old questions about the centrality of the gospel and the place of the hearer in preaching As God in Christ is the central character in the biblical drama of redemption he also calls hearers to understand their role in creatively yet faithfully living according to the biblical script Thus no sermon is complete until God's redemptive work is powerfully proclaimed and his people are instructed in how they too are participating in the Missio Dei In this work Hebrews 11 is employed as a means of showing how God not only reveals his redemptive work to his people but also through them As postmodernism sets the stage of contemporary preaching The Drama of Preaching interacts with some of the particular challenges preachers face in engaging postmodern listeners that they might not only be hearers but doers of the preached word
