

MERCURY. THE SHAPE YOU WANT TO BE IN.

Design leadership. Nobody hands it to you. You've got to go out and earn it. And that is exactly what the men and women who design Mercury automobiles are committed to doing. Our commitment is really one that goes beyond design. We recognize that the true success or failure of any design rests with the consumer. Regardless of how efficient a design may be in technical terms, success in the marketplace rests with its ability to satisfy the wants and needs of consumers. Mercury Grand Marquis is an excellent example of a "consumer-driven" design. Many others were quick to abandon full-size models.

But we perceived consumer demand to remain strong in this segment. Instead of trying to chase buyers who want big cars into small cars, we listened. We refined Grand Marquis and did our best to give consumers what they want in a big car. Today, Grand Marquis is one of the most successful Mercury models. Design At Mercury it's geared to satisfying the wants and needs of consumers because, when you get right down to it, the new car buyers of America are the ones who will determine the designs of tomorrow.
