A Child In Red The Horrors Of War:

The Child Soldiers of Africa's Red Army Carol Berger,2021-12-23 This book examines the role of social process and routinised violence in the use of underaged soldiers in the country now known as South Sudan during the twenty one year civil war between Sudan s northern and southern regions Drawing on accounts of South Sudanese who as children and teenagers were part of the Red Army the youth wing of the Sudan People s Liberation Army SPLA the book sheds light on the organised nature of the exploitation of children and youth by senior adult figures within the movement The book also includes interviews with several of the original Red Army commanders all of whom went on to hold senior positions within the military and government of South Sudan The author chronicles the cultural transformation experienced by members of the Red Army and considers whether an analysis of the processes involved in what was then Africa s longest civil war can aid our understanding of South Sudan s more recent descent into ethnicised conflict As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and political science with interests in ethnography conflict and the military exploitation of children

The Ransom of Red Chief (Read-Along Radio Drama) , Publications of the Red Cross Institute for the Blind Red Cross Institute for the Blind, Baltimore, Md,1918 Red Cross: The Line Between Life and Death Fabricio Sales Silva,2025-04-24 Between life and death there is a fine line where courage compassion and sacrifice meet It is precisely in this space that the Red Cross acts transforming despair into hope even in the most devastating situations This book reveals the human side behind the iconic red emblem sharing true stories of unsung heroes who defied wars natural disasters and epidemics to save lives From battlefields to the most remote regions of the planet the Red Cross journey is a tribute to human resilience You ll discover how a visionary idea was born in chaos and became a global force for solidarity crossing borders and uniting peoples on behalf of humanity On the line between life and death there are those who choose to fight It s not just a story about an organization but about real people who chose to make a difference when all seemed lost The Pedagogical Seminary ,1916 Vols 5 15 include Bibliography of child study by Louis N Wilson Women Engaged in War in Literature for Youth Hilary S. another 100 that in effect indict viewers for crimes of child abuse and abandonment greed social and ecological negligence and political and war crimes and for persistent denial of responsibility for them all For 75 years evil children have ritually rebuked audiences and in playing on our guilt established a horror subgenre that might be described as a blood spattered rampage on an ethical mission The National Humane Review ,1919 The Red Schwinn Bicycle Barrie C Bartulski,2007-05 The story of how six boys lives are touched by the use of a special red bicycle Voluntary Organisations, the Red Cross, and the Features of Humanitarian Reconstruction in Western Europe after the World Wars Romain Fathi,Melanie Oppenheimer,Paul-André Rosental,2025-06-11 This book explores the ways in which non government organisations have contributed to the reconstruction of and care for populations in Western European countries including but not limited to Belgium France Germany Italy and the United Kingdom in the aftermath of the World Wars Historical research on voluntary or non government organisations and their contribution to the reconstruction of states communities and humanitarian assistance to civilian populations following conflicts epidemics and disasters through the twentieth century has generally focused on non Western European countries except for Second World War II The historiography suggests that it is mostly in Eastern Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa that natural or man made disasters have occurred and that these places have been the focus for humanitarian assistance Rather the humanitarian enterprise is viewed through the binary of the Global North Global South those who save and those who are saved The chapters in this volume investigate how the Red Cross movement the League of Red Cross Societies the International Committee of Red Cross and individual national societies and other voluntary organisations such as the Rockefeller Foundation and a range of other international and local non government bodies have contributed to reconstruction in these countries at both national and local levels following times of crises such as wars civilian upheavals and disasters This book will appeal to scholars and students of history humanitarian studies international relations and social sciences The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues in European Review of History Revue europ éenne d histoire When the Danube Ran Red Zsuzsanna Ozsvath,2010-08-16 Opening with the ominous scene of one young school girl whispering an urgent account of Nazi horror to another over birthday cake Ozsv th s extraordinary and chilling memoir tells the story of her childhood in Hungary living under the threat of the Holocaust The setting is the summer of 1944 in Budapest during the time of the German occupation when the Jews were confined to ghettos but not transported to Auschwitz in boxcars as were the Hungarian Jewry living in the countryside Provided with food and support by their former nanny Erzsi Ozsv th s family stays in a ghetto house where a group of children play theater tell stories to one another invent games to pass time and wait for liberation In the fall of that year however things take a turn for the worse Rounded up under horrific circumstances and shot on the banks of the Danube by the thousands the Jews of Budapest are threatened with immediate destruction Ozsv th and her family survive because of Erzsi s courage and humanity Cheating the watching eyes of the munderers she brings them food and runs with them from house to house under heavy bombardment in the streets As a scholar critic and translator Ozsv th has written extensively about Holocaust literature and the Holocaust in Hungary Now for the first time she records her own history in this clear eyed moving account When the Danube Ran Red combines an exceptional grounding in Hungarian history with the pathos of a survivor and the eloquence of a poet to present a truly singular work The Lady Maccabee ,1918 Red Eyes and the Human Horror Story James D. Patalon,2015-05-26 The book had originally been titled THE HUMAN HORROR STORY It was a very over descriptive novel that in many other opinions was just too graphic and gory So although that novel had been decided by me to be put on a shelf for future revising one of its chapters caught my attention So I removed that particular chapter and began building a new story surrounding that specific idea and long and behold within four months I created my second novel RED EYES I worked diligently on making sure that the subject matter although a horror story wouldn't upon being published offend anyone So happy and relieved that the finished novel after several personal revisions was finally what I thought completed How very wrong was I The first project somehow decided to find itself added as an extension to the new novel So once again I had to go in and perform surgery Now both stories had to be merged to be one novel So now I began thinking about a new title Finally I came up with merging both titles into one RED EYES AND THE HUMAN HORROR STORY A SPINE TINGLING ADVENTURE INTO UNKNOWN REALMS Two men each facing an unimaginable inexplicable journey each must face horrors and promises in an alternate reality that is both surreal and yet oddly familiar One man suffering from depression deals with his pain by imagining an easier world until an accident pushes him into another realm where he is reunited with a lost love but also must face zombies and an evil demon He must face the truth of the comforting illusions he created but as his dream world becomes more and more compelling and satisfying what will happen when he has to return to real life The second man enters an alternate reality by committing suicide an act that as he has been warned will have serious consequences He is reunited with his soulmate but they can't stay in the reality they currently inhabit An adversary that they thought they had destroyed is back and they must face him again and to their horror they come to learn that they must defeat their demons over and over as they move to new realms the price for taking your own life is to be doomed to move continually from one reality to the next Red Eyes and the Human Horror Story is a thrilling endlessly inventive exploration of the ways in which imagination shapes our reality and how reality shapes our dream worlds The Red Cross Bulletin ,1917 The Japanese Filmography Stuart Galbraith IV,1996-01-01 This encyclopedic reference work treats a near century's worth of Japanese films released in the United States in theaters or on video and the important actors directors producers and technical personnel involved in them For people each entry provides birth date education death when appropriate a brief biography and a filmography The movies are arranged by original U S release titles and include cast and production credits studio Japanese and U S distributor sound format running time in both the U S and Japanese versions release dates in both countries alternate titles and rating when appropriate of U S release Monthly Bulletin - League of
