A Child's Prayer Orthodox:

Children's Prayer Vivienne Mountain, 2016-04-11 This book provides strong arguments for giving prayer a central place in the education and nurture of children. It is based on research in Australian Catholic, parent-controlled Christian, Independent Jewish, Muslim, and government schools. The author demonstrates focused attention and care in the data collection from the words of children and their drawings of people praying. She takes us through her thorough processes of analysis and synthesis. The research shows that prayer is valued by all children, whether they come from a religious background or not. For some children, it is a way of associating with their communities and traditions of faith. For others, prayer is practised in an individualistic manner. Prayer is a way to perceive and respond to the experiences of life. It can help in dealing with the challenging emotional states of anxiety, loneliness, fear, anger, and guilt. It can give hope for the future. It provides a way of seeking help for others as well as expressing praise and thanksgiving. Vivienne Mountain has a background in teaching and in clinical counselling. She lectures in Spirituality and Ministry with Children at Stirling Theological College, University of Divinity, Australia. She has published three books as well as contributing chapters to a number of others and articles for national and international journals. The children's prayer book of Catholic devotions, ed. by H. Children, 1899 Rethinking Gender in Orthodox Christianity Ashley Purpura, Thomas Arentzen, Susan Ashbrook Harvey, 2023-11-09 What is the role of gender in Eastern Christianity? In this volume, Orthodox experts of different disciplines and cultural backgrounds tackle this complex question. They engage critically with gender issues within their own tradition. Rather than simply accepting pervasive assumptions and practices, the authors challenge readers to reconsider historically or theologically justified views by offering nuanced insights into the tradition. The first part of the book explores normative positions in Orthodox texts and contexts. From examinations of Scripture and hagiography to re-evaluations of monastic, patriarchal, and legal sources, it sheds new light on gender issues in Orthodox Christianity. The second part considers how gendered expectations shape individuals' participation in Orthodox liturgical life and how ecclesial contexts inflect gender theologically. The chapters reflect diverse Orthodox voices brought together to foster new understandings of the ways gender shapes Orthodox religious lives and beliefs. Rethinking what has been inherited from tradition, the authors proffer new perspectives on what it means to be a man or woman within Orthodoxy in the twenty-first century. A Child's Guide to

Prayer Ancient Faith Publishing, 2020-01-25 A Child's Guide to Prayer is a beautifully illustrated prayer book for Orthodox Christian children aged 5-10 who are just developing a habit of prayer. The selection includes morning and evening prayers, prayers during the day, at mealtimes for family and friends, and prayers of and to the saints, along with psalms to pray and prayers that have to do with communion and confession. All the prayers were carefully selected by priests and youth workers to ensure their age appropriateness. The 120-page guide also includes brief instructions on how to pray, why we pray, and a list of different ways to pray. The book concludes with several blank pages for personal prayer requests. Russian

Baptists and Orthodoxy, 1960-1990 Constantine Prokhorov, 2014-01-14 Russian Baptists and the Orthodox Church have had a difficult and at times dramatic relationship over the past century and a half. However, the purpose of this thesis is to examine certain internal connections between these two Christian bodies. Despite the evident dissimilarity in theology, church practice and traditions, there is common ground which has been largely unexplored. A number of features inevitably brought them together, such as living in the same country over a long period of time, sharing a history and national roots, responding to the same civic concerns, and finally, until recently, using the same Russian Synodal translation of the Bible. This thesis explores first of all the roots of the issue of Orthodox Baptist similarities and dissimilarities in the nineteenth century. The remainder of the thesis focuses on 1960 to 1990. There is a chapter analyzing the way in which, in significant areas, Russian Baptist theology resembled Orthodox thinking. This is followed by a study of church and sacraments, which again shows that Russian Baptist approaches had echoes of Orthodoxy. The thesis then explores Baptist liturgy, showing the Orthodox elements that were present. The same connections are then explored in the area of Russian Baptist communal spiritual traditions. The examination of the Bible, beliefs and behaviour also indicates the extent to which Russian Baptists mirrored Orthodoxy. Finally, there is an analysis of the popular piety of the Russian Baptists and the way in which they constructed an alternative culture. The basic views of Russian Baptists between the 1960s and 1990 have been drawn from periodicals of the Russian Baptist communities and from interviews with pastors, presbyters and church members who were part of these communities. This often yields insights into primary theology, which in relation to many issues differs from official Baptist declarations that tend to stress the more Protestant aspects of Russian Baptist life. The aim of the thesis is to show that in a period in the history of the USSR, when the division between the Western world and the Soviet bloc was marked, there was a strong Eastern orientation among Russian Baptists. This changed when the USSR came to an end. Over a number of years, there was mass emigration of Russian Baptists, and in addition, pro-Western thinking gained considerable ground within the Russian Baptist community. During the period examined here, however, it is possible to uncover a great deal of evidence of Russian Baptists participating in Orthodox theology, spiritual mentality and culture. Women and Religiosity in Orthodox Christianity Ina Merdjanova, 2021-11-02 Women and Religiosity in Orthodox Christianity fills a significant gap in the sociology of religious practice. Studies focused on women's religiosity have overlooked Orthodox populations, while studies of Orthodox practice operating within the dominant theological, historical and sociological framework have remained gender-blind. The essays in this collection shed new light on the women who make up a considerable majority of the Orthodox population by engaging women's lifeworlds, practices and experiences in relation to their religion in multiple, varied localities, discussing both contemporary and pre-1989 developments. These contributions critically engage the pluralist and changing character of Orthodox institutional and social life by using feminist epistemologies and drawing on original ethnographic research to account for Orthodox women's previously ignored perspectives, knowledges and experiences. Combining the depth of ethnographic analysis with geographical breadth and employing a variety of research methodologies this book expands our understanding of Orthodox Christianity by examining Orthodox women of diverse backgrounds in different settings parishes monasteries and the secular spaces of everyday life and under shifting historical conditions and political regimes In defiance of claims that Orthodox Christianity is immutable and fixed in time these essays argue that continuity and transformation can be found harmoniously in social practices demographic trends and larger material contexts at the intersection between gender Orthodoxy and locality Contributors Kristin Aune Milica Bakic Hayden Maria Bucur Ketevan Gurchiani James Kapal Helena Kupari Ina Merdjanova Sarah Riccardi Swartz Eleni Sotiriou Tatiana Tiaynen Qadir Detelina Tocheva 1890-1981 Joseph Krauskopf,1890 The Psychology of Orthodoxy Elwin Lincoln House,1913 Church of Our Granddaughters Carrie Frederick Frost,2023-02-16 Church of Our Granddaughters is a visionary work of theology and ethics that looks hopefully and lovingly two generations into the future imagining the Orthodox Church s practices and realities rightfully aligned with its core theological teachings and truths regarding women This reverent but bold work offers the necessary insight and inspiration to create a community that welcomes all its members our granddaughters as well as our grandsons thus allowing the Orthodox Church to better incarnate its mission of service and transfiguration The Pietist Impulse in Christianity G William Carlson,Christian T Collins Winn,Christopher Gehrz,Eric Holst,2012-10-25 Pietism is a reform movement originating among German Lutherans in the 17th century It focused on personal faith reacting against Lutheran Church s emphasis on doctrine and theology over Christian living The movement quickly expanded exerting an enormous influence on various forms of Christianity and became concerned with social and educational matters Indeed Pietists showed a strong interest in issues of social and ecclesial reform the nature of history and historical inquiry the shape and purpose of theology and theological education the missional task of the church and social justice and political engagement Though the movement remained largely misunderstood especially in Anglo American contexts negative stereotypes depicted Pietism as a quietist and sectarian form of religion merely concerned with the pious soul and its God The main proposal of the editors of this volume is to correct this misunderstanding assembling a deep collection of essays written by scholars from a variety of fields this work demonstrates that Pietism was a movement characterized by great depth and originality Besides they show the vitality and impulse of Pietism today and emphasize the ongoing relevance of the movement for contemporary problems and questions Kinderbeten Eric Jonas Swensson,2010-01-01 Research in the roots of evangelicalism and revivalism uncovers its share of peculiarities but nothing is more unusual than what follows What we have here is a compelling story touching on the exercise of free religion the religious wars in Europe the roots of Evangelicalism the supernatural and more all wrapped up in a religious revival which began not through a charismatic revivalist or any adult at all but rather found it s origin with children aged four to fourteen The children became pawns in a controversy between political and religious opponents Indulge your curiosity and read the remarkable story about the King of Sweden and the

Children and Everyday Life in the Roman and Late Antique World Christian Laes,Ville Vuolanto,2016-11-10

Children and Everyday Life in the Roman and Late Antique World explores what it meant to be a child in the Roman world what were children s concerns interests and beliefs and whether we can find traces of children s own cultures By combining different theoretical approaches and source materials the contributors explore the environments in which children lived their experience of everyday life and what the limits were for their agency The volume brings together scholars of archaeology and material culture classicists ancient historians theologians and scholars of early Christianity and Judaism all of whom have long been involved in the study of the social and cultural history of children The topics discussed include children s living environments clothing childhood care social relations leisure and play health and disability upbringing and schooling and children s experiences of death While the main focus of the volume is on Late Antiquity its coverage begins with the early Roman Empire and extends to the early ninth century CE The result is the first book length scrutiny of the agency and experience of pre modern children      European Zoroastrian Attitudes to Their Purity Laws Gillian Towler Mehta,2011-02

The thesis has one main focus the purity laws of a religious group in Europe an original piece of research never done before in the UK The thesis uses diasporic theories of identity theories of women and the body theories of women their bodies and patriarchal religion and theories of women purity and pollution in religion to explain why European Zoroastrian women continue to support six of the purity laws of Zoroastrianism in the year 2003 Purity and pollution are at the heart of the Zoroastrian religion and the research demonstrated that Zoroastrians belief in and knowledge of the six purity laws was strong in 2003 Zoroastrians are a diasporic religious group whose modern origins are in Iran and the sub continent of India They have been visiting and settling from the sub continent in Europe and especially in London in small numbers since the middle of the nineteenth century There have been three quantitative surveys of the Zoroastrian community in Europe in 1976 1985 and 2003 with each survey building on the last one Thus the analytical quantitative research leading up to the thesis covers a period of nearly 30 years In the 2003 survey new questions never posed before in academic research were asked about six of the Zoroastrian purity laws which yielded data for the main focus of the thesis The women support the six purity laws more than the men and the majority of both women and men affirmed four of the purity laws and rejected two of them The conclusion of the thesis is that the six Zoroastrian purity laws examined in this research are used in the creation of a hybrid immanent and liminal religious identity and in some cases ethnic identity by the women of the European Zoroastrian community purity laws are known about and matter to these women in Europe in 2003      The Holy Orthodox Church

Sebastian Dabovich,1898      Heresy and Orthodoxy in Sixteenth-Century Paris: François Le Picart and the Beginnings of the Catholic Reformation Larissa Juliet Taylor,2021-10-11 This is the story of Paris from the Reformation to the Religious Wars Through the works of François Le Picart the most popular preacher from 1530 1556 the book delineates the increasing tensions sparked by Reformation ideas Targeted by Calvin and Beza Le Picart was considered the reason Paris remained in the Catholic fold Exiled by Francis I for his incendiary preaching he would later serve as a professor and lecturer coming into close contact with the first Jesuits A fierce opponent of heresy he helped compile the Articles of Faith read heretical books lectured on scripture and presided at executions His 270 sermons the only substantial preaching source for this period offer glimpses of life during these increasingly troubled times that challenge works by Denis Crouzet suggesting that France was in the grip of eschatological anguish

Sacred and Secular Intersections in Music of the Long Nineteenth Century Eftychia Papanikolaou, Markus Rathey, 2022-06-21 Sacred and Secular Intersections in Music of the Long Nineteenth Century Church Stage and Concert Hall explores interconnections of the sacred and the secular in music and aesthetic debates of the long nineteenth century The essays in this volume view the category of the sacred not as a monolithic attribute that applies only to music written for and performed in a religious ritual Rather the sacred is viewed as a functional as well as a topical category that enhances the discourse of cross pollination of musical vocabularies between sacred and secular compositions church and concert music Using a variety of methodological approaches the contributors articulate how sacred and religious identities coalesce reconcile fuse or intersect in works from the long nineteenth century that traverse an array of genres and compositional styles

The Eucharistic Liturgy Jameson K. Pallikunnil, 2017-03-20 The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church exists as a hybrid church by blending the Eastern liturgical elements of the Oriental Orthodox Church and the evangelical ideas of the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century This Church is a bridging church connecting Protestantism and Oriental Orthodoxy The reformation in the Malankara Church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission A major missiological imperative employed by CMS missionaries in India was solely centered on the scripture Against this popular understanding the Mar Thoma Church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission The translation and revision of the Eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the Malankara Church Hence this book explicitly places how the Eucharistic liturgy of the Mar Thoma Church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth In order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the Eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of St James In a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the Eucharistic liturgy of the church This study throws ample light on how the Mar Thoma Church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development The writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works This volume asserts that an emphasis on Eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission
