A Divine Investigation Of The Holy Spirit:

A Divine Investigation of the Holy Spirit Barbara Ann Smith, 2014-10-28 The lessons in this book are to equip the saints on how to have a deeper and more precise understanding of the role of the Holy Spirit in their life God told King Jehoshaphat that the battle was not his it was the Lord s and our Father is declaring the same statement to us through the Holy Spirit We can and we will overtake every battle that comes our way through the wisdom and power of the Father Son and Holy Spirit Each section of this book is a step by step approach to who the Holy Spirit is to us and the Kingdom of God

The acts of the holy Spirit, an examination of the active mission of the Spirit of God as set forth in the Acts of the Apostles Arthur Tapper Pierson, 1895 A Help to the Study of the Holy Spirit William Edward Biederwolf, 1903 The Doctrine of the Holy Spirit Yacob Godebo, 2025-07-03 The Scriptures teach the church that in biblical times the coming of the Holy Spirit equally entailed objective gift of divine reality and subjective experience of his presence gifts and works There was objective pouring out and imparting of the Holy Spirit from the divine side and subjective experiential demonstration from the receivers side which resulted from the gifts endowed and power imparted along with the Holy Spirit Having given them either verbally uttered or visibly performed gifts the Holy Spirit then moved believers towards practical demonstration through subjective experience Believers subjective experience took place only as a result of the objective gift of the Holy Spirit and the resulting endowment and empowerment Thus in the objective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit is the objective gift of God to indwell his people In the subjective content of his manifestation the Holy Spirit endows people with audibly uttered or visibly performed gifts The subjective experience of the Holy Spirit s presence therefore is an original theological input from God just like the objective impartation of the Holy Spirit Practitioners were just objects of divine purpose and their subjective experience was divine provided and divine initiated genuine experience beyond their consciousness and calculation Reception of the Holy Spirit therefore means equally an experience of his presence gifts power and works in the church and in with and through believers from Hosanna to Maranatha Word Studies on the Holy Spirit Ethelbert W. Watts,2007-01-01 The theme of this study is the relationship between the doctrine of revelation and pneumatology How can we conceive of the relation between the self revelation of God and our knowledge of that self revelation This is an important question given the postmodern abandonment of any normative understanding of truth and the mushrooming of alternative forms of spirituality The task of Christian mission in the context of popular pluralism raises the question of the relationship between truth and experience The focus of the work is a critical comparison between two contemporary Lutheran theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg and Eberhard J ngel By contrasting these influential writers clear distinctions are drawn between an approach based on metaphor and metaphysic Both approaches are deemed to be deficient in their construction and it is argued that some of these problems emerge from a common Lutheran heritage It is further argued that Trinitarian pneumatology might be better advanced by giving greater weight to the concepts of participation and communion In doing so some contribution is made towards long standing pneumatological questions including the personhood of the Holy Spirit and the distinction between God as Spirit and the Holy Spirit Studies for the Pulpit. ...
