Madoff Richard Behar, 2024-07-09 Fifteen years after Bernie Madoff's arrest renowned investigative journalist Richard Behar delivers the definitive account of history's largest and longest running financial fraud Some 68 billion evaporated during Bernie Madoff's epic confidence game Two people were driven to suicide in the wake of the Ponzi Scheme's exposure Others went to prison But there has never been a satisfying accounting for how Bernie got away with so much for so long Until now Richard Behar's relationship with Madoff began in 2011 with a simple email request from the inmate By the time Madoff died in 2021 he had sent Behar more than 300 emails and dozens of handwritten letters participated in some fifty phone conversations and sat for three in person jailhouse interviews a level of access provided to no other reporter Behar also established relationships with hundreds of regulators prosecutors FBI agents investors Wall Street experts ex employees of Madoff s family members school classmates and others The result is the final word on the criminal behind history s most enduring fraud and on those who believed him covered for him or locked him up Behar illuminates not only the fraud s origins decades earlier than Madoff claimed in his confession but also the complicity of investors Wall Street insiders family members and some of the largest banks in the US and Europe Shocking infuriating riveting and at times absurdly funny Madoff shows us how Bernie ensnared thousands of investors As Behar s dogged reporting over the last fifteen years makes clear however there aren t many innocents left standing by the end of this tale Just about everyone involved is guilty at a minimum of humanity s most consistent weakness greed Report of the
