Handbook of Medical Image Computing and Computer Assisted Intervention S. Kevin Zhou,Daniel Rueckert,Gabor Fichtinger,2019-10-18 Handbook of Medical Image Computing and Computer Assisted Intervention presents important advanced methods and state of the art research in medical image computing and computer assisted intervention providing a comprehensive reference on current technical approaches and solutions while also offering proven algorithms for a variety of essential medical imaging applications This book is written primarily for university researchers graduate students and professional practitioners assuming an elementary level of linear algebra probability and statistics and signal processing working on medical image computing and computer assisted intervention Presents the key research challenges in medical image computing and computer assisted intervention Written by leading authorities of the Medical Image Computing and Computer Assisted Intervention MICCAI Society Contains state of the art technical approaches to key challenges Demonstrates proven algorithms for a whole range of essential medical imaging applications Includes source codes for use in a plug and play manner Embraces future directions in the fields of medical image computing and computer assisted intervention

Artificial Intelligence in Radiation Oncology and Biomedical Physics Gilmer Valdes,Lei Xing,2023-08-14 This pioneering book explores how machine learning and other AI techniques impact millions of cancer patients who benefit from ionizing radiation It features contributions from global researchers and clinicians focusing on the clinical applications of machine learning for medical physics AI and machine learning have attracted much recent attention and are being increasingly adopted in medicine with many clinical components and commercial software including aspects of machine learning integration General principles and important techniques in machine learning are introduced followed by discussion of clinical applications particularly in radiomics outcome prediction registration and segmentation treatment planning quality assurance image processing and clinical decision making Finally a futuristic look at the role of AI in radiation oncology is provided This book brings medical physicists and radiation oncologists up to date with the most novel applications of machine learning to medical physics Practitioners will appreciate the insightful discussions and detailed descriptions in each chapter Its emphasis on clinical applications reaches a wide audience within the medical physics profession A Dynamic Theory of Hylomorphism Jeremy W. Skrzypek, 2025-06-20 This book introduces a novel hylomorphic theory of material objects according to which material objects are understood as comprised or composed of both matter and activity where activity plays the role of form This theory hyloenergeism captures the dynamic nature of many of the objects of our experience such as living organisms better than other leading varieties of contemporary hylomorphism Hylomorphism is the theory according to which material objects are understood as comprised or composed of two fundamental parts components aspects or principles matter and form Many contemporary hylomorphists endorse a version according to which the form of a material object is understood as a certain kind of complex relation or structure realized in its material parts Others endorse a version according to which the form of a material object is understood as a certain kind of power or disposition continuously activated in the object or in its material parts This book argues against structural and dispositional varieties of hylomorphism in favor of a third approach hyloenergeism Drawing on various aspects of traditional Aristotelian hylomorphism and other contemporary occurrence based theories of material objects it argues that hyloenergeism has the resources to successfully avoid or resolve several major concerns for other competing hylomorphic views A Dynamic Theory of Hylomorphism will appeal to researchers and graduate students working in metaphysics ancient philosophy and medieval philosophy Human pose estimation for decubitus prophylaxis Benedikt Weber, 2023-06-27 Decubitus is one of the most relevant diseases in nursing and the most expensive to treat It is caused by sustained pressure on tissue so it particularly affects bed bound patients This work lays a foundation for pressure mattress based decubitus prophylaxis by implementing a solution to the single frame 2D Human Pose Estimation problem For this methods of Deep Learning are employed Two approaches are examined a coarse to fine Convolutional Neural Network for direct regression of joint coordinates and a U Net for the derivation of probability distribution heatmaps We conclude that training our models on a combined dataset of the publicly available Bodies at Rest and SLP data yields the best results Furthermore various preprocessing techniques are investigated and a hyperparameter optimization is performed to discover an improved model architecture Another finding indicates that the heatmap based approach outperforms direct regression This model achieves a mean per joint position error of 9.11 cm for the Bodies at Rest data and 7.43 cm for the SLP data We find that it generalizes well on data from mattresses other than those seen during training but has difficulties detecting the arms correctly Additionally we give a brief overview of the medical data annotation tool annoto we developed in the bachelor project and furthermore conclude that the Scrum framework and agile practices enhanced our development workflow

Active Particles, Volume 3 Nicola Bellomo, José Antonio Carrillo, Eitan Tadmor, 2022-03-28 This edited volume collects six surveys that present state of the art results on modeling qualitative analysis and simulation of active matter focusing on specific applications in the natural sciences Following the previously published Active Particles volumes these chapters are written by leading experts in the field and reflect the diversity of subject matter in theory and applications within an interdisciplinary framework Topics covered include Variability and heterogeneity in natural swarms Multiscale aspects of the dynamics of human crowds Mathematical modeling of cell collective motion triggered by self generated gradients Clustering dynamics on graphs Random Batch Methods for classical and quantum interacting particle systems The consensus based global optimization algorithm and its recent variants Mathematicians and other members of the scientific community interested in active matter and its many applications will find this volume to be a timely authoritative and valuable resource

The Longevity Code Kris Verburgh,2019-12-24 Slow down the aging process and live well for longer Do you know exactly how and why you age And what you can do whatever your current age to slow that process and have a longer healthier life In The Longevity Code medical doctor Kris Verburgh illuminates the biological mechanisms that make our bodies susceptible to heart attacks dementia diabetes and other aging related diseases With the facts laid out he provides the tools we need to slow down the aging process His scientifically backed Longevity Staircase outlines a simple yet innovative step by step method offering better health and a longer life span especially the crucial role of proper nutrition and exercise But diet and exercise might not be the only way to crack the longevity code With each passing day advances in biotechnology that were once the stuff of science fiction are emerging Dr Verburgh discusses how new types of vaccines mitochondrial DNA CRISPR proteins and stem cells may help us slow and even reverse aging now and in the future and when paired with the right lifestyle lead to longer healthier lives than we've ever imagined

DNA Repair Maddalena Mognato,2019-06-05 This book offers a collection of chapters addressing different studies on DNA repair from a cellular and molecular point of view The various contributions highlight the vastness of DNA repair process and the need for a deeper understanding To this end the recent considerations here presented can be a cue for scientists and students working on or interested in the subject of DNA repair in human cells This book may suggest to readers new avenues of interplay between different kinds of DNA damage and cellular response for maintaining nuclear and mitochondrial genomic stability

Knowing New Biotechnologies Matthias Wienroth,Eugénia Rodrigues,2015-02-20 The areas of personal genomics and citizen science draw on and bring together different cultures of producing and managing knowledge and meaning They also cross local and global boundaries are subjects and objects of transformation and mobility of research practices evaluation and multi stakeholder groups Thirdly they draw on logics of convergence new links between and new kinds of stakeholders spaces knowledge practices challenges and opportunities This themed collection of essays from nationally and internationally leading scholars and commentators advances and widens current debates in Science and Technology Studies and in Science Policy concerning converging technologies by complementing the customary focus on technical aspirations for convergence with the analysis of the practices and logics of scientific social and cultural knowledge production that constitute contemporary technoscience In case studies from across the globe contributors discuss the ways in which science and social order are linked in areas such as direct to consumer genetic testing and do it yourself biotechnologies Organised into thematic sections Knowing New

Biotechnologies explores ways of understanding the dynamics and logics of convergences in emergent biotechnologies governance and regulatory issues around technoscientific convergences democratic aspects of converging technologies lay involvement in scientific research and the co production of biotechnology and social and cultural knowledge Beat Cancer Kitchen Chris Wark, Micah Wark, 2023-03-07 125 recipes for prevention and healing Supply your body with an abundance of life giving nutrients to repair regenerate detoxify and heal all while providing the comfort that all good food should Following the success of Chris Beat Cancer Chris Wark and his wife Micah share whole food plant based recipes that appeal to the whole family whether you are healing from cancer actively eating a diet to prevent it or simply seeking a healthy lifestyle for you and your loved ones Fruits vegetables mushrooms nuts seeds legumes whole grains herbs and spices are the foundational ingredients of Chris s anticancer diet Complete with tips for diet optimization this cookbook will get you in the Beat Cancer Mindset and guide you onto the road to wellness Inside you will find easy to make nutrient rich recipes for healing family friendly recipes for prevention and overall health full color photos of each recipe and salad juice smoothie soup side veggie bowl breakfast lunch dinner and dessert recipes galore Antibody-Drug Conjugates Kenneth J. Olivier, Jr., Sara A. Hurvitz, 2016-11-14 Providing practical and proven solutions for antibody drug conjugate ADC drug discovery success in oncology this book helps readers improve the drug safety and therapeutic efficacy of ADCs to kill targeted tumor cells Discusses the basics drug delivery strategies pharmacology and toxicology and regulatory approval strategies Covers the conduct and design of oncology clinical trials and the use of ADCs for tumor imaging Includes case studies of ADCs in oncology drug development Features contributions from highly regarded experts on the frontlines of ADC research and development Earth Observation for Water Resource Management in Africa Benjamin Koetz, Zoltán Vekerdy, Massimo Menenti, Diego Fernández-Prieto, 2018-10-02 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Earth Observation for Water Resource Management in Africa that was published in Remote Sensing Monte Carlo Techniques in Radiation Therapy Joao Seco, Frank Verhaegen, 2021-11-14 Thoroughly updated throughout this second edition of Monte Carlo Techniques in Radiation Therapy Applications to Dosimetry Imaging and Preclinical Radiotherapy edited by Joao Seco and Frank Verhaegen explores the use of Monte Carlo methods for modelling various features of internal and external radiation sources Monte Carlo methods have been heavily used in the field of radiation therapy in applications such as dosimetry imaging radiation chemistry modelling of small animal irradiation units etc The aim of this book is to provide a compendium of the Monte Carlo methods that are commonly used in radiation therapy applications which will allow students postdoctoral fellows and university professors to learn and teach Monte Carlo techniques This book provides concise but detailed information about many Monte Carlo applications that cannot be found in any other didactic or scientific book This second edition contains many new chapters on topics such as Monte Carlo studies of prompt gamma emission Developments in proton imaging Monte Carlo for cone beam CT imaging Monte Carlo modelling of proton beams for small animal irradiation Monte Carlo studies of microbeam radiation therapy Monte Carlo in micro and nano dosimetry GPU based fast Monte Carlo simulations for radiotherapy This book is primarily aimed at students and scientists wishing to learn and improve their knowledge of Monte Carlo methods in radiation therapy Extracellular Vesicles and Their Importance in Human Health Ana Gil De Bona, Jose Antonio Reales-Calderon, 2020-03-04 Extracellular vesicle is a wide term that involves many different types of vesicles Almost all the cell types studied secrete vesicles to the extracellular environment related to cell cell communication Extracellular vesicles have been found in different biological fluids such as blood milk saliva tears urine and cerebrospinal fluid These vesicles transport different molecules including mRNA proteins and lipids some of them cell type specific that make them ideal biomarkers in both health and disease conditions However their contribution to different conditions is not well understood The aim of this book is to provide an overview of the extracellular vesicles in the human body how they are internalized and their participation in several diseases Dual-use life science research and biosecurity in the 21st Century: Social, Technical, Policy, and Ethical Challenges Jonathan E. Suk, Kathleen M. Vogel, Amanda Jane Ozin, 2015-06-04 In September 2011 scientists announced new experimental findings that would not only threaten the conduct and publication of influenza research but would have significant policy and intelligence implications The findings presented a modified variant of the H5N1 avian influenza virus hereafter referred to as the H5N1 virus that was transmissible via aerosol between ferrets These results suggested a worrisome possibility the existence of a new airborne and highly lethal H5N1 virus that could cause a deadly global pandemic In response a series of international discussions on the nature of dual use life science arose These discussions addressed the complex social technical political security and ethical issues related to dual use research This Research Topic will be devoted to contributions that explore this matrix of issues from a variety of case study and international perspectives Flavonoids, Inflammation And Cancer Hollie Swanson, 2015-08-13 This book provides an insightful analysis of the chemopreventive actions of flavonoids Flavonoids are naturally occurring constituents of plants that have been traditionally used as anti inflammatory and anti cancer medicines In addition human consumption of vegetables and fruits with high concentrations of flavonoids is associated with decreased cancer mortalities rates Flavonoids Inflammation and Cancer presents an in depth analysis of the mechanisms by which flavonoids are thought to prevent inflammation and the development of GI and steroid responsive cancers In addition the promise and pitfalls associated with using flavonoids as chemopreventive agents are discussed This book is an invaluable reference for basic and clinical scientists who are interested in exploring the link between nutrition and cancer

Transhumanizing War H. Christian Breede, Stéphanie A.H. Bélanger, Stéphanie von Hlatky, 2020-04-09 The concept of soldier enhancement often invokes images of dystopian futures populated with dehumanized military personnel These futures serve as warnings in science fiction works and yet the enhancement of soldiers combat capability is almost as old as war itself Today soldier enhancement is the purpose of military training and the application of innovative technologies but when does it begin to challenge individuals very humanity Bringing together the work of a diverse group of practitioners and academics Transhumanizing War examines performance enhancement in the military from a wide range of perspectives The book builds on two key premises that rapid advances in science and technology are outstripping governments and military organizations capacity to adapt and that this has put pressure on the connection between the military and the public The contributors to this collection grapple with the implications of continued technological advancement and the possibility that innovative solutions to performance enhancement will risk further alienating the soldier from society Navigating the fine line between technological promise and ethics this volume presents a guide to responsible implementation in Canada and abroad Offering unique insights into a debate on the bleeding edge of public discourse Transhumanizing War considers the best ways to improve combat effectiveness while still preserving soldiers humanity

Israel's Colonial Project in Palestine

Elia Zureik,2015-11-19 Colonialism has three foundational concerns violence territory and population control all of which rest on racist discourse and practice Placing the Zionist project in Israel Palestine within the context of settler colonialism reveals strategies and goals behind the region's rules of governance that have included violence repressive state laws and racialized forms of surveillance In Israel's Colonial Project in Palestine Brutal Pursuit Elia Zureik revisits and reworks fundamental ideas that informed his first work on colonialism and Palestine three decades ago Focusing on the means of control that are at the centre of Israel's actions toward Palestine this book applies Michel Foucault's work on biopolitics to colonialism and to the situation in Israel Palestine in particular It reveals how racism plays a central role in colonialism and biopolitics and how surveillance in all its forms becomes the indispensable tool of governance It goes on to analyse territoriality in light of biopolitics with the dispossession of indigenous people and population transfer advancing the state's agenda and justified as in the interests of national security The book incorporates sociological historical and postcolonial studies into an informed and original examination of the Zionist project in Palestine from the establishment of Israel through to the actions and decisions of the present day Israeli government Providing new perspectives on settler colonialism informed by Foucault's theory and with particular focus on the role played by state surveillance in controlling the Palestinian population this book is a valuable resource for students and scholars interested in the Arab Israeli Conflict and Colonialism

XIV Mediterranean Conference on Medical and Biological Engineering and Computing 2016 Efthymou Kyriacou, Stelios Christofides, Constantinos S. Pattichis, 2016-03-31 This volume presents the proceedings of Medicon 2016 held in Paphos Cyprus. Medicon 2016 is the XIV in the series of regional meetings of the International Federation of Medical and Biological Engineering IFMBE in the Mediterranean. The goal of Medicon 2016 is to provide updated information on the state of the art on Medical and Biological Engineering and Computing under the main theme Systems Medicine for the Delivery of Better Healthcare Services. Medical and Biological Engineering and Computing cover complementary disciplines that hold great promise for the advancement of research and development in complex medical and biological systems. Research and development in these areas are impacting the science and technology by advancing fundamental concepts in translational medicine by helping us understand human physiology and function at multiple levels by improving tools and techniques for the detection, prevention and treatment of disease. Medicon 2016 provides a common platform for the cross fertilization of ideas and to help shape knowledge and scientific achievements by bridging complementary disciplines into an interactive and attractive forum under the special theme of the conference that is Systems Medicine for the Delivery of Better Healthcare Services. The programme consists of some 290 invited and submitted papers on new developments around the Conference theme presented in 3 plenary sessions, 29 parallel scientific sessions and 12 special sessions.
