The Global Governance of Climate Change John J. Kirton,Ella Kokotsis,2016-03-03 Climate change control has risen to the top of the international agenda Failed efforts centred in the United Nations to allocate responsibility have resulted in a challenge now reaching crisis stage John J Kirton and Ella Kokotsis analyse the generation and effectiveness of four decades of intergovernmental regimes for controlling global climate change Informed by international relations theories and critical of the prevailing UN approach Kirton and Kokotsis trace the global governance of climate change from its 1970s origins to the present and demonstrate the effectiveness of the plurilateral summit alternative grounded in the G7 8 and the G20 Topics covered include G7 8 and UN competition and convergence on governing climate change Kyoto obligations and the post Kyoto regime The role of the G7 8 and G20 in generating a regime beyond Kyoto Projections of and prescriptions for an effective global climate change control regime for the twenty first century This topical book synthesizes a rich array of empirical data including new interview and documentary material about G7 8 and G20 governance of climate change and makes a valuable contribution to understanding the dynamics of governing climate change It will appeal to scholars researchers and policy makers interested in the dynamics behind governance processes within the intergovernmental realm Human Development and Interaction in the Age of Ubiquitous Technology Rahman, Hakikur,2016-06-27 The human condition is affected by numerous factors in modern society In modern times technology is so integrated into culture that it has become necessary to perform even daily functions Human Development and Interaction in the Age of Ubiquitous Technology is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the widespread integration of technological innovations around the globe and examines how human computer interaction affects various aspects of people s lives Featuring emergent research from theoretical perspectives and case studies this book is ideally designed for professionals students practitioners and academicians Rolling Alfred L. Martin, Jr.,2024-04-02 Since slavery African and African American humor has baffled intrigued angered and entertained the masses Rolling centers Blackness in comedy especially on television and observing that it is often relegated to biopics slave narratives and the comedic But like W E B DuBois s ideas about double consciousness and Racquel Gates s extension of his theories we know that Blackness resonates for Black viewers in ways often entirely different than for white viewers Contributors to this volume cover a range of cases representing African American humor across film television digital media and stand up as Black comic personas try to work within outside and around culture tilling for content Essays engage with the complex industrial interplay of Blackness white audiences and comedy satire and humor on media platforms and the production of Blackness within comedy through personal stories and interviews of Black production crew and writers for television comedy Rolling illuminates the inner workings of Blackness and comedy in media discourse E-Innovation for Sustainable Development of Rural
