

Sixth Grade Romance

He wasn't very bright
And not the least bit tall.
He won me when he said
He liked me more than all.

We held hands on the playground,
Sent love notes while in class,
He gave me a diamond ring
(My mom said it's cut glass).

It ended with a bang
When he kissed my best friend, Kelly.
I got so fighting mad
I punched him in the belly.

Perhaps I'll love again, someday
But it hurts so much inside.
If I see him at school,
I want to run and hide.

I planned to sell my diamond
At the corner jewelry store,
... But then it smashed to pieces
When I dropped it on the floor.

Text-Dependent Questions, Grades 6-12 Douglas Fisher,Nancy Frey,Heather Anderson,Marisol Thayre,2014-09-02 Fisher Frey s answer to close and critical reading No doubt since the cave paintings of prehistoric times humans have asked questions to make sense of the message So what could possibly be new about posing questions about text Plenty and with TDQ Doug Fisher and Nancy Frey reveal it all After one quick read you will have learned all the very best ways to use text dependent questions as scaffolds during close reading and the big understandings they can yield especially when executed the Fisher and Frey way But that s just for starters Fisher and Frey also include illustrative video actual texts and questions examples from across content areas and an online professional learning guide making the two volumes of TDQ a potent professional development tool across all of K 12 The genius of TDQ is the way Fisher and Frey break down the process into four cognitive pathways that help teachers organize the journey through a text and frame an extended discussion around it Step by step this approach ensures that in every close reading lesson students are guided to consider explicit and implied meanings and deeply analyze and appreciate various aspects of a text especially those that may be challenging or confusing Here s how the four inter related processes play out with every why and every how answered What does the text say general understandings and key details How does the text work vocabulary structure and author s craft What does the text mean logical inferences and intertextual connections What does the text inspire you to do write investigate present debate The cool thing These questions ignite students engagement and discussion because they strategically lead students to a place of understanding where explicit and implied meanings and interpretations can be debated Far from being overly literal or teacher led the questioning framework Fisher and Frey advance enhances the quality of student talk and idea generation All in all there s no better resource to cultivate students capacity for independent reading and incisive thinking Longtime collaborators and recipients of numerous teaching and leadership awards DOUGLAS FISHER and NANCY FREY are Professors of Educational Leadership at San Diego State University as well as teacher leaders at Health Sciences High Middle College

Closer Reading, Grades 3-6 Nancy Boyles, 2014-02-19 Close Reading. Not in a very long while has a term been freighted with so much responsibility to pull every student out of a reading tailspin and into a great future of college and career readiness. Finally, here's a book that tunes out all of the hubbub and gets down to the business of showing how exactly to get close reading right. What makes Closer Reading such a have-to-have resource? Nancy Boyles knows full well that we'll never realize the promise of close reading unless we figure out where it fits in with existing literacy practices. So she magnifies all the planning that goes into powerful close reading lessons while providing a wide-angle lens to answer our biggest questions, top among them: how close reading relates to text complexity and strategic reading comprehension. Chapter by chapter, Nancy delivers astoundingly practical ideas on how to import close reading into daily planning, including how to connect close reading with other instructional practices, whole-class read-alouds, guided reading, conferring, selecting rich texts, and planning for initial close reading lessons. Deliver initial and follow-up close reading lessons. Engage students in peer practice after close reading. Coordinate comprehension strategies and close reading. Use close reading to deepen students' independent reading. Closer, closer, closest. Yes, if we want our students to intimately understand a text's ideas, we'll need to make some shifts in our instruction. Fortunately, we now have Closer Reading to lean on as we go into higher gear. A former classroom teacher and professor of reading, Nancy Boyles is a literacy consultant who provides workshops, model lessons, and curriculum support to districts and organizations nationally, regionally, and locally. Over the course of her career, she has received numerous awards, including New England Reading Association's Outstanding Literacy Leader Award and Connecticut Reading Association's Celebrate Literacy Award for exemplary service. Closer Reading, Grades 3-6 will become a treasured friend and guide as you will value every tip, model lesson, and complex book recommendation. It is a must-have book for your professional library and for professional learning communities.
