between the compass and the clock between what's deeply important to us and how we spend our time. And this gap is not closed by traditional time management approach of doing more things faster. In fact, many of us find that increasing our speed only makes things worse. In How Many People On Their Deathbed Wish They'd Spent More Time At The Office were introduced to the guiding concept of First Things First: the difference between making daily decisions based on the clock versus making daily decisions based on the compass. The clock Covey explains represents what we do and how we manage our time. Things like schedules, goals, meetings, items that generally get written on to-do lists that's what First Things First calls clock items.

Street-Safe Kids Stephanie L. Mann, 2016-01-23 Open the door to success. Empower youth with emotional tools to stay safe from bullies, drugs, violence, and other self-destructive behaviors. While feeding the homeless with Mother Mary Ann Wright, Stephanie Mann saw the consequences of child abuse: mental, physical, and sexual, and neglect. Over the years, drug addicts and former inmates have asked for help. They didn't know how to turn their lives around and become productive citizens. Mann worked with Pastor Flemon Henry and formed support groups in Oakland, California. She saw how abuse and neglect created angry men who escaped into drugs and often abused women. Many of our homeless citizens never learned how to discover their inner power to develop their identity, self-confidence, and ability to stay centered. As a result of the support groups, homeless men got jobs or woke up and entered drug rehab. We can empower youth. Stephanie has realized that most parents demonstrate and share healthy values with children. Neglected or abused adults never learned how to raise centered children. This book gives adults and youth the tools to help one another. Every human being has the inner power to develop courage, character, and a self-protective conscience. These basic tools help youth make healthy choices and connect with others so they can reach their God-given potential.
