

Introduction paragraph: give an overall introduction to the trend and state the purpose of the paper in the thesis statement. It should provide valuable background information and prove the existence of the trend. Include a brief history of the trend.

- Body paragraph 1: Identify and describe the trend. Familiarize the reader with the trend, and address the following questions:

- o What is the trend?
- o Who does the trend affect?
- o What do people in general think of the trend?
- o What contribution (if any) is the trend making?

- Body paragraph 2: Write about the importance of the trend addressing the following questions:

- o Why is the trend important? Useful? Beneficial? (If the trend is negative, then address why people are gravitating toward it)
- o Why should the reader care?

- Body paragraph 3: Write about the problems with the trend.

- Body paragraph 4: Write about the future outcomes and projections of the trend, including how long it may last. Address the following questions:

- o Is the trend a fad?
- o Will it evolve into something else?
- o What are the possible consequences?

- Body paragraph 5: Address if the trend is positive or negative. Evaluate and explore whether it is beneficial or detrimental.

- Conclusion paragraph: Summarize the main points of the essay. The first sentence should state the final conclusion of the author's position. Do not present any new information in the conclusion.
